PURIM PREPARATIONS

An inspiring Purim is the product of diligent preparation. In the days prior to Purim, one should review the Halachos of Purim, learn Maamarim which focus on the inner dimension of Purim, and make appropriate Mivtzoim preparations.

TAANIS ESTHER

Taanis Esther is not one of the four public fasts instituted by the Nevi'im, and is generally more lenient. This year, Taanis Esther is even more lenient, for it is observed two days early (being that the 13th of Adar falls on Shabbos). One should not presume that the leniencies outlined below automatically apply to other fasts. [It goes without saying that, aside from these leniencies, one must observe Taanis Esther scrupulously.]

WHO MUST FAST?

All healthy adults must fast. If one inadvertently ate during the fast, he must compensate by fasting on Friday.

A Chosson and Kallah during the week of Sheva Brochos need not fast. Similarly, when a Bris occurs on Taanis Esther, the Baalei Habris (i.e. the Mohel, the Sandek, and the father of the baby) need not fast. However, all other attendees must fast. Therefore, the Seudah takes place at night, after the fast.

Pregnant and nursing mothers are not required to fast. [One should not be unduly strict in this regard, so as not to harm the wellbeing of mother and baby.] Mothers who have difficulty fasting while tending to their young children should consult with a Rov.

Anyone weakened by illness or advanced age need not fast.

Anyone below Bar/Bas Mitzva need not fast. From the age of nine upwards, the custom is to train children to fast for several hours, as per the child's abilities. [One should not be unduly strict in this regard.]

An individual exempt from fasting should eat in private only, and avoid meat, delicacies or excessive intake. Similarly, children old enough to understand the concept of a fast should avoid delicacies.

EATING PRIOR TO THE FAST

One may eat and drink the entire evening until dawn (5:52am), provided that either of these conditions are met:

- One didn't go to sleep for the night. [Dozing off is not regarded as such.]
- One stipulated (preferably verbally) before going to sleep that he will eat upon waking. In this case, one recites the morning Brochos before eating.

LAWS OF FASTING

One shouldn't brush one's teeth nor rinse one's mouth. [If this will cause great aggravation, there is room to be lenient, provided that one leans forward to prevent any liquid from flowing down one's throat; that one uses substances unfit for consumption (e.g. Listerine); and that one rinses with less than 86 ml.]

One may take non-chewable pills for medical purposes, without water. A Rav should be consulted regarding other medicines.

One may shower, bathe and apply ointments and creams. [Even one who is strict on other fast days may nevertheless be lenient on Taanis Esther.]

One may touch food and engage in its preparation. However, one may not taste food to determine whether it requires salt/spices. Nevertheless, when preparing food for a Seudas Mitzvah scheduled for the night following the fast, one may taste the food, provided that all these conditions are met:

- One expels it without swallowing.
- One tastes an absolute minimum.
- One does not taste more than 86 ml in total throughout the day.

CONDUCT ON TAANIS ESTHER

One should learn Torah connected to the topic of the fast.

One should give increased Tzedakah, especially before davening. It is proper to give the value of the forgone meals – especially if one is exempt from fasting.

The purpose of fasting is to make a Cheshbon Hanefesh (reckoning of one's deeds) and arouse one to do Teshuvah. Idling away one's time, or partaking in joyous or entertaining activities, is not in the spirit of the fast.

One should be especially careful not to become angered.

TAANIS ESTHER: SHACHARIS

During Shacharis, only the Chazzan

recites Aneinu. Therefore, one who is not fasting (or who anticipates that he won't be able to finish the fast) shouldn't serve as Chazzan.

[In the unlikely event that the Chazzan is not fasting, or less than three congregants are fasting: Instead of reciting Aneinu between Goel Yisroel and R'faeinu, the Chazzan includes Aneinu in the Brocho of Sh'ma Koleinu, and concludes the Brocho regularly; i.e. Shomea Tefillah.]

A Chazzan who forgot to recite Aneinu:

- if he remembered before reciting Hashem's name at the conclusion of the Brocho of R'foeinu, he recites Aneinu immediately, and then repeats the Brocho of R'foeinu;
- if he already concluded the Brocho of R'foeinu, he recites Aneinu in the Brocho of Sh'ma Koleinu, and concludes the Brocho with a double conclusion; i.e. Ha'one B'eis Tzara V'shomea Tefillah;
- if he already concluded the Brocho of Sh'ma Koleinu, he recites Aneinu as a separate Brocho immediately after the Brocho of Sim Shalom.

Selichos is recited after Vehu-Rachum and Shomer Yisroel (ordinarily recited each Monday and Thursday), right before Avinu Malkeinu.

The long Avinu Malkeinu is recited. [It is not our custom to recite it verse by verse after the Chazzan.]

If Tachnun is not recited (e.g. when a Chosson or one of the Baalei Habris are present), Selichos is still recited, whereas Avinu Malkeinu is not recited.

One who is not fasting must still recite Selichos and Avinu Malkeinu.

It is customary to stand for the entire Selichos. [An infirm person may sit. If possible, he should at least stand for each recitation of the Yud-Gimel Midos.]

One who davens without a Minyan omits the Yud-Gimel Midos-Harachamim.

TAANIS ESTHER: KRIAH

The passage of Vayechal is read, provided that at least three congregants are fasting.

A non-fasting individual must still hear Krias Hatorah of Vayechal, but is not called up for an Aliya. [If he is the only Kohen or Levi, he should absent himself.] If he is called up, and refusing the Aliya will cause him discomfort or minimize the honour of the Torah, he may accept the Aliya. In any case, he may perform Hagbah or Gelilah.

A non-fasting individual shouldn't serve as the Ba'al Koreh, unless there is no one else who can do so.

When the congregation recites the verses aloud, the Ba'al Koreh waits for silence before resuming. The one receiving the Aliya begins these verses with the congregation, but concludes them with the Ba'al Koreh.

❖ MACHATZIS HASHEKEL

Before Mincha, males over Bar-Mitzvah give three halves of the local currency. [In Australia, three 50-cent pieces.]

One should not use Maaser money for his own Machatzis Hashekkel.

The Rebbeim would also give Machatzis Hashekkel on behalf of their wives and daughters, as well as for their sons under the age of Bar Mitzvah. [Sefer Haminhagim qualifies that this isn't a directive for the public. Nevertheless, it is prevalent amongst Chassidim to do so.]

Where possible, boys below Bar Mitzvah should personally give Machatzis Hashekkel.

It is preferable that the proceeds go to a Shule or Beis Midrash, just as the Machatzis Hashekkel of old would be used for the Beis Hamikdash. Alternatively, the proceeds are distributed to the poor.

❖ TAANIS ESTHER: MINCHA

Mincha is longer than usual (due to Krias Hatorah and Haftorah); it should be timed to conclude before sunset (7:48pm).

Ideally, Krias Hatorah should not begin prior to Mincha Gedolah (2:02pm). Shmoneh Esrei may certainly not begin before then.

After Haftorah, the Chazzan slowly recites Kaddish while the Torah is returned to the Aron Hakodesh, similar to Mincha on Shabbos.

If an individual forgot to recite Aneinu in the Brocho of Sh'ma Koleinu, he may recite it in the passage Elokai N'tzor, before the second Yih'yu L'ratzon. If one didn't remember until he concluded Shmoneh Esrei, he does not repeat it. [A non-fasting individual does not recite Aneinu.]

The Chazzan recites Aneinu between Goel Yisroel and R'faeinu, and also recites

Birchas Kohanim towards the end of Shmoneh Esrei.

Tachnun and Avinu Malkeinu are recited, since it is not Erev Purim.

The Rebbe reintroduced the custom of addressing the congregation after Mincha to arouse them with feelings of Teshuvah.

The fast concludes with the emergence of three medium stars (8:16pm).

❖ PARSHAS ZACHOR

It is a Torah obligation for all men and boys over the age of Bar Mitzvah to hear Parshas Zachor. [One who absolutely cannot attend a Minyan should read this passage from a Sefer Torah or Chumash, with the Trop if he knows it.]

Although women are ordinarily exempt from Krias Hatorah, there is a dispute with regards to Parshas Zachor. Therefore, it is ideal for women to attend Shule. However, a woman who is unable to easily attend Shule (e.g. she is tending to her small children) may instead read this passage from the Chumash.

Ordinarily, a Sefer Torah may not be moved to another location for one time use. Nevertheless, one may do so to facilitate the Kriah of Parshas Zachor.

Ideally, the Ba'al Koreh should be old enough to have a beard. [If this is not possible, a boy over thirteen may serve as Ba'al Koreh only if it is established that he has reached puberty and has the Halachic status of a Bar Mitzvah.]

The Ba'al Koreh should read loudly and clearly, and have in mind to be Moitzie everyone listening to the Kriah. Similarly, all the listeners should have in mind to be Yoitzei the Kriah and to fulfil the Mitzvah of remembering to eliminate Amalek.

The word Zecher is first read with a Tzeirei and then again with a Segol.

Av Harachamim is recited before Musaf.

❖ CONCLUSION OF SHABBOS

Tzidkasecha is omitted in Mincha.

Since one may not prepare on Shabbos for the weekday, one should not take the Megillah out of its place before the end of Shabbos. [Another option is to bring the Megillah to Shule before Shabbos and leave it in a safe and respectable place.]

One who needs to perform Melachah before Maariv should remember to say "Boruch Hamavdil bein Kodesh L'Chol".

❖ PURIM DRESS

The Rebbeim would wear Shabbos clothing throughout Purim. [Sefer

Haminhagim qualifies that this isn't a directive for the public. Nevertheless, it is prevalent amongst Chassidim to act accordingly. Some say that the Rebbe himself encouraged this practice.]

The custom is for children to wear masks or costumes. One should ensure that they do not contain Shatnez.

Cross-dressing is absolutely forbidden throughout the year. Although the Remo and several other early Achronim rule leniently with regards to Purim, the overwhelming majority forbid it. This prohibition applies to all adults, as well as to children of the age of Chinuch.

The Rebbe encouraged children to shy away from dressing as Haman or other wicked people. [When a Purim play requires a child to act the part of Haman, the Rebbe indicated that this role be played without enthusiasm.]

❖ V'AL HANISSIM

V'al Hanissim is recited in each Shmoneh Esrei of Purim. One should not intentionally skip V'al Hanissim to recite Kedushah or Modim with the Minyan.

If one forgot V'al Hanissim at the appropriate place in Shmoneh Esrei, he may still recite it if he did not yet say Hashem's name at the end of that Brocho. After that point, he does not recite it.

V'al Hanissim is recited each time one bentches on Purim. If one forgot V'al Hanissim at the appropriate place, he may recite it before saying Hashem's name at the end of that Brocho. After that point, he may recite it as a Horachamon, as per the Nusach printed in the Siddur.

Towards the end of benching, one recites Magdil, and not Migdal.

❖ MAARIV & HAVDALLAH

An Ovel (within 12 months of a parent's passing or within 30 days of a spouse, child or sibling's passing) may serve as Chazzan on Purim.

Unlike a usual Motzei Shabbos, the Chazzan recites Kaddish Tiskabel immediately after Shmone Esrei. The Megillah is read immediately afterwards.

After the Megillah is concluded, Vi'h No'am and V'Atah Kadosh are recited, followed by Kaddish without Tiskabel—as opposed to the way Kaddish would ordinarily be recited on Motzei Shabbos at this point.

In Shule, Havdallah is not recited until after the conclusion of davening.

One who is hearing the Megillah at home should first recite Havdallah, but should not otherwise eat or drink before hearing the Megillah. [Nevertheless, if one feels ill or weak, one may eat or drink. Even so, one should not eat more than a K'beitza (57 grams) of bread or Mezonos – unless there are health concerns, in which case he should appoint a Shomer (guardian) to remind him to hear the Megillah.] Similarly, one may not nap or perform any activity that may distract him prior to reading the Megillah. Rather, one should endeavour to hear the Megillah as soon as possible. Nevertheless, it may be read the entire night until dawn (5:56am).

MEGILLAH READING

All men and women over the age of Bar/Bas Mitzvah must hear the Megillah.

Children (both boys and girls) should also attend the Megillah reading and quietly follow along according to their ability, unless they are too young and will create a disturbance. [An infant who makes noise should be taken out of Shule.]

Ideally, one should attend a Megillah reading in a Shule where a large crowd has congregated. [Despite this, one need not attend any Shule other than the one he ordinarily attends.]

At the very least, one should hear the Megillah with a Minyan. [This applies even if he will be reading the Megillah later for individuals who could not attend a Minyan.] If this is also not possible, one should still endeavour to hear the Megillah with as many people as possible.

One does not fulfil the Mitzvah of Megillah when hearing it with the aid of a microphone, or over the phone or radio. [A person who uses hearing aids should consult a Rav.]

A perfectly Kosher Megillah should be used. [If that is unavailable, a Megillah with disqualified or missing letters/words may be used if they do not occur at its beginning or end, nor do they comprise an entire section or the majority of the Megillah. Needless to say, the Ba'al Koreh must still recite every single word – including the missing or disqualified words – when using such a Megillah.]

One may assume that his friend consents to his Megillah being borrowed for the sake of performing the Mitzvah, as long as it remains in the vicinity at all times and it is returned to exactly the same place in the same condition.

It is preferable that the listener follows along in a proper Megillah and recites the words in a whisper audible only to himself – but only if he is sufficiently familiar with the proper pronunciation of the words.

One who follows along from a Chumash should not recite the words at all, but must rather pay especially close attention to the Ba'al Koreh.

Before the first Brochos are recited, the Megillah is unrolled and folded twice, to create three folds. The ends of the scroll should not dangle disrespectfully. [This also applies to everyone else following along with a proper Megillah.]

One may touch the parchment of the Megillah directly, unlike a Sefer Torah.

An Ovel (within 12 months of a parent's passing or within 30 days of a spouse, child or sibling's passing) may read the Megillah for individuals. However, he should not serve as the Ba'al Koreh in a Minyan, unless this is his regular function, or there is nobody as fluent as him.

Everyone should stand for the Brochos, unless it is too difficult. During the actual Megillah reading in Shule, the Ba'al Koreh must stand (and may lean for support if necessary), but those listening don't need to stand. Nevertheless, the Rebbe would stand, and this is the prevalent custom.

When the Ba'al Koreh recites the Brochos, he should have in mind to be Moitzie everyone as they listen to the Brochos and the entire Megillah. Similarly, all the listeners should intend to be Yoitzei the Brochos and the entire Megillah, and should not say "Boruch Hu u'Voruch Shmoi". [If one accidentally did so, he does not recite the Brochos again.]

If the Ba'al Koreh already heard the Megillah, the Brochos are recited by another man who did not yet hear the Megillah, and he is Moitzie everyone. If none of the other men present are able to recite the Brochos, the Ba'al Koreh may recite it for them (or prompt them word by word).

When the Megillah is read for women only, and the Ba'al Koreh already heard the Megillah, the women recite the Brochos themselves (standing). They may either recite the Brochos individually, or have one woman be Moitzie all the others. The same applies when reading the Megillah for children under the age of Bar/Bas Mitzvah.

One should not speak from the time of the Brochos until after the Megillah reading (and the last Brocho) is concluded, because unnecessary speech constitutes an interruption, and also prevents him from hearing every word of the Megillah.

Whenever Haman's name is mentioned alongside a title, one should stamp his feet vigorously. Children should be encouraged in spinning their graggers and stamping out Haman's name. The Ba'al Koreh should wait for absolute silence before resuming.

The following Pesukim are read aloud by the congregation, followed by the Ba'al Koreh: 2:5, 8:15, 8:16, 10:3.

The Ba'al Koreh raises his voice at "Balailah Hahu" (6:1).

The Baal Koreh reads "Laharog Ul'abeid; v'Laharog Ul'abeid" (8:11) and "V'ish Lo Omad Bifenehem; V'ish Lo Omad Lifenehem" (9:3).

The congregation reads the ten sons of Haman quickly in one breath, from the words "Chamesh Meios Ish" until "Aseres" (9:6-10), followed by the Ba'al Koreh. [Despite the speed of reading and the large gaps that appear in the Megillah between these words, the Ba'al Koreh should ensure that he is looking at each respective word as he pronounces it. Nevertheless, if he failed to do so, the Megillah reading is still valid.]

The Megillah is given a light shake at the words "Ha'igeres Hazos" (9:26) and "Ha'igeres Hapurim Hazos" (9:29). [This also applies to everyone else following along with a proper Megillah.]

The final Brocho is recited by the Ba'al Koreh, but only if the Megillah was read with a Minyan. [The Rebbeim would recite this Brocho even without a Minyan.] Shoshanas Yaakov is recited by everyone even when there is no Minyan.

The Megillah should remain unfurled until the conclusion of the last Brocho. [This also applies to everyone else following along with a proper Megillah.]

INTERRUPTION DURING MEGILAH

One who misses hearing even a single word is not Yoitzei the Megillah reading. Therefore, one should pay absolute attention to every word whilst the Ba'al Koreh is reading the Megillah, and not allow his mind to wander.

If one missed hearing a word, the best solution is to read from that word onwards, until he catches up with the Ba'al Koreh. [This is necessary because each word of the Megillah must be read/heard in the correct order.] This should be done even when one is following along in a Chumash and not a proper Megillah.

One need not recite the words with the Trop if this will detain or prevent him from catching up to the Ba'al Koreh. However, one must ensure that all the words are properly enunciated and vowelized.

If one missed a word and did not follow the guidelines above, or he left during the Megillah reading for even a short time, he must hear the Megillah again. Nevertheless, he does not need to start again from the beginning, but may instead resume hearing it from the place where he was interrupted. In such an instance, one does not repeat the Brochos unless he diverted his attention from the Mitzvah of Megillah.

As mentioned above, one should not speak during the Megillah reading. If one said anything unrelated to the Megillah between the Brochos and the very start of Megillah, he needs to recite the Brochos again. If one spoke after this time – even matters unrelated to the Megillah – he does not repeat the Brochos again. Nevertheless, being that he could not have properly heard the words that the Ba'al Koreh was reading whilst he was talking or repeating the Brochos, he must follow the guidelines above for one who missed a word.

One should not pause unnecessarily during the Megillah. Nevertheless, if one paused even for an extended period of time, he may resume from the place where he paused. The exception is if he was forced to pause due to circumstances beyond his control, and the pause was for more time than it would have taken him to finish reading the Megillah. In such a case, one needs to start reading the Megillah again from the beginning, but does not repeat the Brochos.

PURIM NIGHT

The table should be set with a tablecloth and candles. One should wash for Melave Malka. During the meal, one should rejoice and eat something special in honour of Purim. [One should moderate any festivities in order that they do not interfere with Purim morning.]

It is customary to eat seeds on Purim, such as poppy-seed Hamantashen, to commemorate the seeds that Esther ate when keeping Kosher in the king's palace.

SHACHARIS

Ideally, Megillah should be read after sunrise (7:15am). Shacharis should be timed to read the Megillah as soon as possible. In extenuating circumstances, one may read the Megillah after dawn (5:56am).

Ideally, men should not eat before hearing the Megillah. If this is difficult, or there is any concern that one will be unable to concentrate during davening, one may snack, but should not eat a K'beitzah (57 grams) of Mezonos.

Nevertheless, one should not be stringent if there are any health concerns.

V'al Hanissim is recited in Shmoneh Esrei, and Tachnun is not recited.

If one did not hear Parshas Zachor on Shabbos, he should have in mind to fulfil his obligation through the Krias Hatorah of Purim. [For this reason, the Ba'al Koreh should intend to be Moitzie anyone who did not hear Parshas Zachor on Shabbos.]

During Krias Hatorah, the word Zecher is first read with a Segol, then again with a Tzeirei (the reverse of Parshas Zachor).

The Sefer Torah remains out during the Megillah reading, and is returned only after Kaddish Tiskabel, as usual. [The one who holds the Sefer Torah remains seated throughout the Megillah reading and associated Brochos.]

If one did not yet give Machatzis Hashekel, he should do so before the Megillah reading.

When the Brocho of Shehecheyanu is recited, all should have in mind the other Mitzvos of Purim; i.e. Mishloach Manos, Matanos Lo'evyonim and Seudas Purim. Preferably, the Gabbai or Ba'al Koreh should announce this.

One should wear his Rashi Tefillin until after the Megillah reading (and davening). The Rebbe would touch his Tefillin Shel Rosh at the word Vikor (8:16), for it refers to Tefillin.

A Bris performed at Shule is conducted right before Megillah. A Bris performed at home is held after davening.

WORKING ON PURIM

One should not perform manual labour on Purim (e.g. construction, gardening, sewing, laundering, calligraphy and artistic drawing or painting) unless for the sake of Purim or a Mitzvah; or he is so poor that he is without food; or in order to prevent a financial loss.

One may do light office-work or sell goods and merchandise, but not to the point that it distracts him from the joy of Purim.

One may instruct a non-Jew to perform manual labour on Purim.

MISHLOACH MANOS

All men and women over Bar/Bas Mitzvah should send at least one Mishloach Manos. Children (of the age of Chinuch) should also do so. [The Rebbeim would distribute three Mishloach Manos packages – to a Kohen, Levi and Yisroel.]

The Mishloach Manos should contain at least two types of (respectable) ready-to-eat foods and/or beverages other than water. [The Rebbeim would include a food item as well as a beverage.]

Men should send their Mishloach Manos to men, and women should send their Mishloach Manos to women.

Some authorities hold that Mishloach Manos should be delivered through a Shliach. The Shliach may even be a child.

The Mishloach Manos should be both sent and delivered during Purim day (and not the night before or after).

It is praiseworthy to give Mishloach Manos to many people. [Technically, one doesn't need to adhere to the above-mentioned Halachos with regards to any additional optional Mishloach Manos that one sends. Nevertheless, it is commendable to do so.]

When giving Mishloach Manos to one who is not yet observant, one should remind him to make the appropriate Brochos on each food item.

Mishloach Manos may not be sent to an Ovel (within 12 months of a parent's passing or within 30 days of a spouse, child or sibling's passing). If it was sent for whatever reason, the Ovel may accept it. One may send Mishloach Manos to an Ovel's spouse or child. The Ovel himself is required to send Mishloach Manos, but should send simple food items.

When sending Mishloach Manos in a new (non-disposable) utensil that requires Tevilas Keilim, it should be performed by the recipient and not by the sender. This is because Tevilas Keilim needs to be performed by the end user.

If the sender already Toiveled the utensil, the recipient must still Toivel the utensil, but without a Brocho. The same applies if the recipient is unsure whether the sender Toiveled the utensil. Therefore, the sender should inform the recipient (e.g. with a label) that the item has not yet been Toiveled, in order that the recipient may Toivel it with a Brocho. [It is best that the Mishloach Manos food does not directly touch a non-Toiveled utensil.]

MATANOS LO'EVYONIM

All men and women over Bar/Bas Mitzvah should give Matanos Lo'evyonim to at least two needy people. Children (of the age of Chinuch) should also do so.

One should use the local currency, and not use Maaser money. [This does not apply to any additional optional Matanos Lo'evyonim that one gives.]

Matanos Lo'evyonim must go specifically to needy people (or Tzedakah organisations devoted to that purpose), and not to other Tzedakah causes.

One need not assess the financial circumstances of a poor person before giving him Matanos Lo'evyonim. Rather, "we give to whomever extends a hand."

Matanos Lo'evyonim should be delivered during Purim day (and not the night before or after).

If there are no poor people present, one must physically set aside Matanos Lo'evyonim – a verbal pledge is insufficient – and distribute it at the earliest opportunity. Alternatively, one should appoint a Shliach who can distribute it for him in a different location.

It is preferable to allocate more of one's funds to Matanos Lo'evyonim than to Mishloach Manos and Seudas Purim.

MIVTZOIM

One should do all within his or her power to ensure that every Jew hears the Megillah and fulfills all the Mitzvos of Purim. This includes even children of the age of Chinuch.

One should arrange gatherings and events for adults and/or children who are not yet familiar with Purim, and utilize the opportunity to tell them the story and laws of Purim, as well as to fulfill the Mitzvos of Purim with them. These gatherings should be conducted in as exciting and public a manner as possible.

One should participate in visiting Jewish people who are in hospitals, aged-care facilities, in the army, or in jail.

If one is faced with the choice of reading the Megillah for someone only once, he should prioritize the daytime reading over the night-time reading.

If the Megillah is read for someone who may be too infirm or incompetent to listen to the whole reading properly, the Brochos should not be recited.

Where possible and appropriate, one should involve his children in Mivtzoim activities.

One who cannot perform Mivtzoim personally should participate financially.

Megillah readings should conclude before sunset (7:43pm). In extenuating circumstances, it should be read (and concluded) before the advent of three stars (8:12pm), without the Brochos.

SEUDAS PURIM

One must feast and rejoice on Purim. In fact, the joy of Purim is even greater than the joy of Yom-Tov.

The feast is conducted in the late afternoon. Hence, Mincha is davened earlier than usual, prior to the Seudah.

Despite the hustle-and-bustle of Purim, one should make a point of learning Torah prior to the Seudah, for a short period of time. Since Purim is thirty days before Pesach, one should begin reviewing the laws of Pesach.

A fair part of the meal should take place during the daylight hours. At the very least, one should eat a Kezayis before sunset (7:43pm).

If circumstances do not allow one to conduct his Seudah in the late afternoon, he may eat this meal anytime during the daylight hours.

One should feast among family and friends, because a larger crowd increases the joy. One should also invite guests to the Seudah.

The table should be set with a tablecloth. Some have the custom to light candles.

The prevalent custom is to wash, and eat meat and other delicacies. It is also customary to eat Kreplach.

If one wishes to begin the Seudah in one place and continue it and bentch elsewhere, he must have this in mind when reciting the Brocho of Hamotzie.

One should share words of Torah at the meal, especially words of Torah that are connected with the Purim story.

It is customary to share a Purim Torah. The intention is not to use Torah to make a joke or mockery, G-d forbid. Rather one should share a Dvar Torah of the sort that brings joy to those who hear it. [In similar vein, it is forbidden to produce or read any satirical imitations of Gemoro, such as "Masechta Shikorim".]

WINE AND ALCOHOL

Chazal instituted that one should drink wine on Purim "until he doesn't know the difference between Orur Haman and Boruch Mordechai". Many Poskim understand this to mean that one must drink to the point of intoxication.

At the same time, the Poskim caution against becoming inebriated when there is even the slightest chance of negative consequences. This especially applies to anyone with a medical issue or a weak constitution; to young teenagers; to anyone whose behaviour may not completely conform with Halacha when inebriated (such as forgetting to make a Brocho properly, bentch or daven Maariv); to anyone who may cause damage, injury or shame to himself or others; or to anyone who may cause a Chillul Hashem when inebriated. Anyone in this category should discharge their obligation by drinking only slightly more wine or alcohol than usual.

It goes without saying that drinking and driving can be deadly and is a severe violation of Halacha. It is also dangerous for an intoxicated person to cross the road himself, and he should therefore be escorted home safely.

The Mitzvah of drinking wine or alcohol does not apply to women and children.

The Rebbe established a year-round ban against people under the age of forty drinking more than four Kelitchlach (shot cups) of alcohol. Some years, the Rebbe made an exception for Purim. However, on many other occasions, the Rebbe stated explicitly that this ban extends even to Purim. The Rebbe would especially caution the Bochurim about this, and suggested that they fulfil their obligation by increased involvement in "Yeyna shel Torah" (the wine of Torah).

MOTZOEI PURIM

V'al Hanissim is recited even when bentching after dark, as long as the meal began before nightfall and one has not yet davened Maariv. [For this reason, it is best to bentch before davening Maariv.]

Towards the end of benching, one recites Magdil, and not Migdal.

On the night following Purim, one must not forget to daven Maariv as soon as possible. In any case, one should certainly daven before midnight (1:30am).

The night following Purim is an especially appropriate time for a Chassidische Farbrengen, and is an appropriate way of celebrating the joy of Purim in a manner of "b'rov am hadras melech".

Purim is an auspicious time for the Daled Bavoros to be sung. Additionally, the Rebbe frequently instructed that Hop Kozzak and Nyet Nyet Nikovah be sung at the Purim Farbrengens.

SHUSHAN PURIM

Tachnun is not recited.

Even though there is no requirement to eat a festive meal, one should still rejoice and eat something special in honour of Shushan Purim.

During the annual Purim Farbrengens, the Rebbe would note that Shushan Purim is an appropriate time to begin giving Maos Chittim; to begin focusing on learning the Halachos of Pesach; to begin making Mivtzoim preparations for Pesach; and to begin arranging the distribution of hand-made Shmurah Matzah.

Matzah is not eaten in the thirty days prior to Pesach. [One may eat Matzah balls or foods that contains Matzah meal.]
