

Issue #9

PARSHAS VAYEISHEV
TNS - TORAH NEWS SERVICE

כרשת וישוב
Price: 1 Shekel

The Parsha Post

YOSEF AND THE

AMAZING DREAMCOAT

Rabbi Yaakov Isaacson has recently made a stunning cloak for his son Yosef. Expertly designed using the Pasim method, and containing a vast array of colors, this cloak has already attracted the envy of Yosef's brothers.

"It's a true masterpiece" commented TNS fashion correspondent, Ms. Gitty Glorygitz. "Exquisite! Priceless! An absolute DREAMCOAT!"

TEENAGER ASSUMED DEAD

A torn and bloodied suit of clothes sized to fit a teenager has been identified as belonging to 17-year-old Yosef Jacobson. The tattered garment is the only item that has been recovered since the boy's disappearance.

Speculation has grown that the missing lad was attacked and killed by a wild animal. Yosef is survived by his father, a twin sister, one brother, and ten half-brothers.

ROYAL BAKER & BUTLER BOTCH BATCHES

In a stunning turn of events, both the royal baker and butler were demoted and thrown into prison after they were caught serving Paraoth horrendous products. A fly was found in the evening wine, and a stone in the breakfast bread.

These unacceptable mistakes did not go unnoticed by the royal staff and the longtime familiar faces are no longer seen around his majesty's kitchens and wineries.

"I am not at liberty to discuss details of this disgusting debacle," remarked an official palace official, "but after Paraoth was served those rolls, someone's head will definitely roll."

MANAGER ACCUSED OF IMPROPER CONDUCT

The wife of one of Egypt's wealthiest businessmen, Mr. Potifar Seris-Paraoth, has accused their head manager, Mr. Yosef Ivri, of terrible crimes. The accused, who is awaiting trial, is jailed at the Royal Egyptian Prison. "I never saw this coming. He was the best and the brightest," said Mr. Seris-Paraoth. "But when your wife says he's gotta go, he's gotta go. No two ways about it.."

PERFECT PASIM PRESENT!

WHY SETTLE FOR AN ORDINARY COAT, WHEN YOUR TEEN DESERVES THE BEST?

THIS AMAZING PASIM-COAT COMES IN ALL COLORS, SIZES, STRIPES AND STYLES.

IT WILL GO PERFECTLY WITH HIS NEW HAIRSTYLE AND MAKE HIM THE ENVY OF ALL!

Super Chanukah Shazak Sale! 20% off! - Coupon Code: SHAZAK20 - www.shazak.com/subscribe

