

TAKE ME HOME: We're Good & Geuladik! #3

GOING FOR GOLD

What did the Yidden donate to the Mishkan? There are fifteen materials. And it starts with...

GOLD! Even though this precious metal wasn't the biggest donation item (there was way more silver), the Torah lists it first to teach us an important lesson: Every Yid—men, women and even little children donated to build Hashem's House. Are all Yidden really worthy of this? The answer is YES! Every Yid is special and precious and valuable—even in the most gashmiyusdike way—just like gold.

When we look at ourselves and others in a way that brings out their best—that our outside matches our inside, we are living in a geuladike way. We are seeing the way things really are at their very core, a reality that everyone will realize 100% when the world is flooded with Elokus!

Trivia Challenge

Name all 15 materials donated to the Mishkan.

Bonus: What was each one used for?

Niggun Note

Thirty years ago, when the Rebbe said this sichah on Parshas Terumah 5752, the niggun for the Rebbe's kapitel had a hint to the building of the Mishkan and a plea for the geulah. In fact, the last possuk, which is a tefillah that Hashem's shechinash should rest "in the work of our hands", was said by Moshe Rabbeinu when he put up the Mishkan for the first time!

שׁוֹבָה ה' עַד-מִתֵּי וְהִנָּחֵם עַל-עַבְדָּיָהּ: שְׁבַענוּ בַּבֶּקֶר חֲסֵדָהּ
וְיִרְרָנָה וְנִשְׁמָחָה בְּכַל־יְמֵינוּ: יִרְאֶה אֶל-עַבְדָּיָהּ פְּעֵלָהּ וְהִדְרָה
עַל-בְּנֵיהֶם: וְיֵהִי נָעִם ה' אֶלְקֵינוּ וּמַעֲשֵׂה יְדֵינוּ כֹּנֵנָה
עַלֵּינוּ וּמַעֲשֵׂה יְדֵינוּ כֹּנֵנָה:

Life Lesson

One of the ways to build a place for Hashem in this world today is by making your own room into a Cheder Tzivos Hashem. Of course, it should have Torah, tefillah and tzedakah inside, but it should also be neat and welcoming so that you can invite your friends inside and make them feel closer to Torah and Yiddishkeit.

Mission of the Week

Choose one way to improve your Beis Chabad. Maybe help your parents fix something, organize an area or get something to make your own Cheder Tzivos Hashem more beautiful.
