Rashbi Is at the Ohel In the prayers recited when visiting the Ohel, as published in Maaneh Lashon, we say: "In the merit of the Tannaim and Amoraim... and in the merit of the tzaddikim who are buried here...." This implies that at the resting place of a tzaddik, other tzaddikim, Tannaim,

Visit the Ohel

Accordingly, I would suggest that tomorrow, on the day of Lag B'omer, the yom hahilula of Rashbi... everyone should visit the Ohel, where Rashbi, too, is present.

Break All Barriers

Reading a pan at the Ohel on Rashbi's day of celebration... has the ability to break all barriers and to bestow upon each individual everything they need: children, health and livelihood, in abundance.
