SHABBOS SELICHOS / MEVORCHIM

As on every Shabbos Mevorchim, the entire Tehillim is recited before davening.

We don't bentch the new month before Musaf, and Av Harachamim is recited. The Baal Shem Tov explains that Hashem himself bentches the month of Tishrei, and with this power we bentch the other months of the year.

A Farbrenge is conducted after davening in honour of Shabbos Mevorchim and Shabbos Selichos.

Tzidkosecha is recited.

The 5th and 6th chapters of Pirkei Avos are recited after Mincha. The opening Mishna ("Kol Yisroel") and concluding Mishna ("Rabbi Chananya") are recited twice.

Vi'hi Noam and V'atah Kaddosh is omitted on Motzei Shabbos.

MOTZEI SHABBOS – LEIL SELICHOS

A Farbrenge is conducted before Selichos.

Selichos starts immediately after Chatzot (12:10am). Shabbos clothing is worn, and the Chazzan dons a Tallis without a Brocho.

SELICHOS (MON-WED)

From Monday onwards, Selichos is said before davening. We are not particular to recite it before dawn. However, it is appropriate to rise earlier for Selichos instead of postponing davening.

Brochos is said before Selichos, even before dawn (presuming that one slept at night).

The Chazzan for Selichos wears a Tallis. [The earliest time for Tallis is 5:05am on Mon, 5:03am on Tue, and 5:02am on Wed Erev Rosh Hashana. If Selichos begins after this time, the Chazzan dons his own Tallis with a Brocho. If Selichos begins before this time, the Chazzan puts on his Tallis without a Brocho. As soon as it is the time, he should touch the Tzitzis and recite a Brocho.]

RECITAL OF SELICHOS

One should prepare for Selichos by learning (at least one idea from) the Maamar printed at the front of Selichos. Tzedakah should also be given right before Selichos.

It is customary to stand for the entire Selichos. [An infirm person may sit. If possible, he should at least stand for each recitation of Keil Melech Yoishev and Hashem Hashem, as well as Ashamnu.]

Ideally, Ashrei should begin only after a Minyan has gathered. However, if Selichos began without ten people, and a Minyan eventually forms, Chatzi Kaddish may be recited at that time. [The Chazzan should recite several Pesukim beforehand.]

A person who davens without a Minyan should omit the Yud-Gimel Midos-Harachamim. Some maintain that Machei u'Masei and Moron D'vishmaya (end of Selichos) should also be omitted.

If a Chosson is present at Selichos, Ashamnu is omitted. The same applies if one of the Balei Habris are present, provided that it is after dawn.

If there was a Minyan for Selichos but some participants left before the end, Kaddish Tiskabel is still recited, as long as six people still remain. [Obviously, it is forbidden to abandon a Minyan before the end.]

EREV ROSH HASHANA MORNING

This day is the birthday of the Tzemach Tzedek, in 5549 (1789).

Selichos is longer than usual and one should plan his morning accordingly.

During Selichos, Ashamnu is recited even after daybreak, unless a Chosson is present.

After Selichos, Tachnun is not recited for the remainder of the day.

The Shofar is not sounded. [A Baal Tokeiah who still needs to practice for Rosh Hashana may do so in a secluded area. However, it is far more preferable to practice in the days prior, instead of on Erev Rosh Hashana.]

HATARAS NEDARIM

Hataras Nedarim is performed by all males over the age of Bar Mitzvah, in the presence of a full Minyan. [If this is not possible, one may recite Hataras Nedarim in front of three men or boys over the age of Bar Mitzvah. There is a debate as to whether Hataras Nedarim can be performed via a Shliach, letter, phone call or Zoom, and this may be relied upon when there is no other choice. Nevertheless, even according to the lenient opinion, this is valid only when the three men serving as Dayanim are physically present together.]

One should stand when reciting Hataras Nedarim, whereas everyone else sits.

One must understand the text of Hataras Nedarim. If he doesn't understand the Hebrew, he should say it in English.

The text of Hataras Nedarim in the Siddur is effective only for those vows or positive practices that one no longer remembers. Any vow or positive practice that one remembers must be presented (not necessarily on Erev Rosh Hashana) before a Beis Din of three, of whom at least one is well-versed in the laws of Nedarim.

A "positive practice" requires Hataras Nedarim if it was observed:

- One time or more, with the intention of continuing to do so indefinitely.
- Three times or more, even in the absence of any such intention, unless he specifically stipulated (whether verbally or in thought) that he was doing so "Bli Neder" (without a vow).

ROSH HASHANA PREPARATIONS

On Erev Rosh Hashana, one writes and sends a Pan on behalf of himself and his family. Those within proximity visit the Ohel.

One should remember to prepare: Round Challos, sweet apples, honey, new fruits, pomegranates, Tzimmes, head of a ram or fish, meat, sweet foods and drinks.

On Rosh Hashana, it is customary not to eat any foods that are perceptibly bitter, sour, overly sharp, vinegary, or that contain any nuts.

One should ensure that the pages of a newly purchased Machzor aren't attached to each other (due to being uncut), as it is prohibited to separate uncut pages on Rosh Hashana.

One should take a haircut, bathe and cut one's nails, as necessary.

On Erev Rosh Hashana, one should not donate blood or undergo any procedures or tests involving blood loss. [This does not apply in cases of great need, and certainly not when it is Pikuach Nefesh.]

Prior to every Yom Tov, the Rebbe emphasized that the Yom Tov requirements of the needy be met. (Online donations for Melbourne can be made at <http://mjcf.com.au>.) Yom Tov is also an especially appropriate time to host guests.
