SHABBOS MEVORCHIM / CHAZAK

The Baal Koreh receives the Aliyah containing the Tochecha, and he recites the Brocho both before and after it. He is not formally called up to the Torah, but he does receive the Mi Sheberach afterward.

The Tochecha is read more quietly and quickly than usual. Obviously, one must still hear every single word clearly.

The Aliyah of Chazak is given to a prominent individual. The entire congregation stands for the last Posuk.

Unlike every other Shabbos Mevorchim, Av Harachamim is recited on Shabbos Mevorchim Sivan, in memory of the tragedies that occurred during this month. [Thus, it is recited even when there is a Bris.]

It is customary for the Gabboim to arrange a Farbrengen with the aim of increasing resolutions in learning Torah, keeping Mitzvos B'hidur, and rejoicing in the completion of the Torah.

The fifth chapter of Pirkei Avos is recited after Mincha.

SIVAN

Tachnun is not recited from Rosh Chodesh Sivan (Tuesday evening) until after the twelfth day of Sivan. One should not undertake a fast on these days, even for a Yohrtzeit. [However, a Chosson and Kallah do fast on their wedding day, unless it takes place on the day after Shavuot.]

Many customs of mourning associated with Sefirah Haomer no longer apply from the first morning of the Shloshes Y'mei Hagboloh (i.e. Friday). Music, dancing, and weddings are permissible. Nevertheless, one should not take a haircut until Erev Shavuot.

SHABBOS BAMIDBAR

In 5746, the Rebbe made a "Bakasha Nafshis (heartfelt request) that, in association with Rosh Chodesh Sivan, when the Jewish people encamped around Har Sinai with unity, every community should utilize the day of Shabbos to focus on the theme of Achdus, including through Torah gatherings and Farbrengens. This Shabbos is often referred to in Chabad circles as Shabbos Achdus.

Av Harachamim and Tzidkosecha are not recited this Shabbos.

For Parshas Nasso, which is read at Mincha and continues into the following week, there are differing opinions regarding the divisions of the Aliyos. According to Chabad custom, the last Aliyah at Mincha (as well as Monday and Thursday) ends at Perek 4 Posuk 33. For the purposes of Chitas, Rishon ends at Perek 4 Posuk 28, and Shishi ends at Perek 7 Posuk 82.

The sixth chapter of Pirkei Avos is recited after Mincha.

Vihi Noam and V'atah Kaddosh are not recited on Motzei Shabbos.

YOM TOV PREPARATIONS

The Mitzvah of V'Samechta B'Chagecha entails eating meat, drinking wine and enjoying delicacies; providing new clothing or jewellery for one's wife according to his means; and giving sweets to the children. These should be arranged in advance.

Prior to every Yom Tov, the Rebbe emphasized that the Yom Tov requirements of the needy be fully met. Yom Tov is also an especially appropriate time to host guests.

One should make spiritual preparations for Shavuot. These include learning Torah – especially the laws of Shavuot and topics related to Matan Torah, as well as increasing in Ahavas Yisroel.

In the lead-up to Yom Tov, one should do all within his or her power to reach out and ensure that all Jews – men, women, children and even small babies (health permitting) – attend Shule to hear the Aseres Hadibros.

FLOWERS AND FOLIAGE

Shulchan Oruch mentions the custom of decorating the Shule with trees (since Shavuot is the day of judgement for fruits), and flowers (to commemorate the foliage that appeared on barren Har Sinai). For various reasons, it is not our custom to decorate Shule with trees and flowers, but this may be done at home.

Flowers and decorative leaves or branches that were cut and arranged prior to Shavuot are regarded as decoration and are not Muktzeh. Therefore, when necessary, they may be moved on both Yom Tov and Shabbos. However, if some of the flowers are not yet in full bloom and exposure to additional moisture will induce them to blossom further, the vase must be moved very gently so that the water level remains constant.

When all flowers are already in full bloom, and exposure to additional moisture will not cause them to blossom further, the following further leniencies apply:

- One may take flowers out of the vase of water. One may also return the flowers to the same vase, as long as the original water was not changed.
- One may place the flowers into a new vase that was prepared and filled with water before Shavuot. One may also add flowers to an existing vase that already held flowers from before Shavuot.
- On Yom Tov (but not on Shabbos), one may top up the water in a vase if necessary, but the ratio of the new water must be less than half of the total volume. One may certainly not replace the existing water.

A potted plant should not be moved due to two concerns – Muktzeh and aiding plant growth. [In principle, these issues are subject to differing Halachic opinions and other variables.] If a potted plant accidentally overturns, or some soil spills out, it should be left alone. [If doing so will cause a significant hindrance or inconvenience, a Rav should be consulted.]

For practical purposes, a potted plant should generally be treated as attached to the ground. Therefore, one may not water it at all or detach any of its leaves or branches. One may not lean on a potted tree or shrub, move it with his hands even ever so slightly, place anything in its branches, or remove anything caught in its branches.

Flowers, branches or leaves that were detached (regardless of the cause) on Shavuos are Muktzeh. The same applies even if there is just a doubt as to whether it became detached on Shavuos. It goes without saying that anything still attached to the ground is Muktzeh.

One may smell flowers and plants on Shavuos – even if still attached to the ground (and hence Muktzeh). One should remember to recite the appropriate Brocho. However, one may not smell attached fruits.

🕯 EREV SHAVUOS

On Erev Shavuos, one should not donate blood, take a blood test, or undergo any procedures involving blood loss. [Of course, this prohibition does not apply in a case of Pikuach Nefesh.]

It is appropriate to take a haircut in honour of Shavuos, but not before Erev Yom Tov (i.e. not before Motzei Shabbos).

If applicable, one's nails should be cut in honour of Yom Tov.

It is a Mitzvah to immerse in a Mikvah on Erev Yom Tov, after midday.

Just like on Erev Shabbos, it is preferable to refrain from beginning a full meal once the tenth Halachic hour of the day begins (2:43pm), in order to properly enjoy the Yom Tov meal at night. However, one may snack in small quantities.

Shavuos is an opportune time to enhance one's Torah learning and make positive resolutions – without hindrance from the Satan – to increase (both quantitatively and qualitatively) in one's private and public Shiurim of both Nigleh and Chassidus; to spread Torah to others; to enhance one's adherence to the daily study of Chitas and Rambam; and to accept upon oneself the Oi Shel Torah (yoke of Torah).

The Rebbe's customary Shavuos greeting: "Kabbolas Hatorah B'Simcha ub'Pnimiyus" means "May you receive the Torah joyfully and internally".

🕯 CANDLE-LIGHTING

Prior to candle-lighting on Erev Yom Tov, one should give Tzedakah for the two days of Yom Tov.

One should arrange a pre-existing flame with which to light the candles on the second night of Shavuos.

Candle-lighting is at 4:51pm. The Brochos are L'Hadlik Ner Shel Yom Tov and Shehecheyanu. [If one incorrectly concluded Shel Shabbos Kodesh, but realized within the time it takes to say three words, she corrects her mistake. Otherwise, she must repeat the entire Brocho. If one forgot Shehecheyanu, she should have in mind to be Yoitzei during Kiddush.]

If lighting at home but eating the Seudah elsewhere, one must ensure that practical benefit is derived from the candles after nightfall (such as arranging for someone to eat by its light, or lighting in a location that needs to be used and would otherwise remain dark).

Since it is Yom Tov, if one neglected to light at the proper time, one may – and should – light candles on Yom Tov itself, from a pre-existing flame.

When a man is required to light candles, he does not recite Shehecheyanu, as he will do so in Kiddush. [Therefore, it is best that he lights candles right before Kiddush, so that his Shehecheyanu is linked to both.]

🕯 FIRST NIGHT OF SHAVUOS

On the first night of Shavuos, Maariv (and Kiddush) should not begin before Tzeis Hakochovim.

A woman who needs to recite her own Kiddush should not say Shehecheyanu, as she already did so at candle-lighting.

One must drink (a revi'is of) wine each day of Yom Tov. This should be paid special attention by those who do not make their own Kiddush.

🕯 YA'ALEH VEYAVO IN BENTCHING

If one forgets Ya'aleh Veyavo in bentching, but remembers before saying Hashem's name at the end of Bonei Yerushalayim, he goes back. If one remembered after that, but before beginning the next Brocho, he recites the relevant Brocho printed in the Bentcher. If one began even the first word of the next Brocho, he must begin bentching again if it is one of the two required meals of Yom Tov, but not if it is a third optional meal.

The Horachamon for Yom Tov is recited.

🕯 TIKUN LEIL SHAVUOS

The custom is to stay awake the entire first night of Shavuos learning Torah.

Needless to say, the night of Shavuos is not the appropriate time for lectures or forums about social, economic, political and communal issues. Although important, they cannot really be regarded as a form of Torah study – unless the focus is to explore the Torah's perspective.

The recitation of Tikun Leil Shavuos should be prioritized over all other forms of learning and Shiurim.

One should be mindful of errors that have crept into the text of the Zohar and Sefer Yetzirah in many printed editions. One should recite the text as corrected in Likutei Sichos volume 28, page 315.

The Tefillos and Yehi Ratzons that appear in some editions of Tikun Leil Shavuos are omitted, and Kaddish is not recited.

If, for whatever reason, one did not complete the entire Tikun Leil Shavuos on the first night of Shavuos, he should do so at the earliest opportunity.

Shortly before dawn (6:03am), one immerses in the Mikvah four times.

At dawn, one washes Neggel Vasser and recites Brochos. One should not begin learning Torah after dawn until he concludes the morning Brochos.

The Brocho of Tzitzis is not recited at this time as it is still too early.

After staying awake the entire night, it is generally recommended to sleep for several hours and daven at the usual time, in order to daven with proper focus and without rushing.

Since B'dieved one fulfils his obligation when reciting the daytime Shema immediately after dawn, it is worthwhile to recite it then, with the intention that he thereby fulfils his obligation only if he fails to recite it later at the proper time.

One does not recite Krias Shema She'al Hamittah when going to sleep after dawn.

If one chooses to daven before going to sleep, he should ensure that he recites the Brocho of Tzitzis and Shema after the earliest time (6:31am), and Shmoneh Esrei after sunrise (7:27am).

The Brocho of Tzitzis is not recited on a Tallis Koton worn overnight. One who does not wear a Tallis Gadol should change his Tallis Koton before reciting the Brocho.

🕊️ SHACHARIS & HALLEL

Care must be taken to recite Krias Shema within its proper time (between 6:31-9:52am). One who goes to sleep before davening should ensure that he awakens in time to recite Shema.

Full Hallel is recited on Shavuot. When reciting Hallel, one may not interrupt it – other than for those things that one may respond to during the Brochos of Krias Shema. [i.e. If the Chazzan recites Kedushah, one responds Kodosh, Boruch and Yimloch. When the Chazzan says Ha'E-I Hakodosh, one answers Omein. When the Chazzan says Modim, one answers the three words Modim Anachnu Loch. When the Chazzan recites Kaddish, one answers Omein Yehei Shmei etc, and Omein to d'amiran b'olmo. One also answers Borchu and Omein when the Brochos are recited before and after an Aliyah or Haftorah.]

Hallel is recited standing (unless one is feeble or infirm).

It is preferable to recite Hallel with the Minyan. If one is not up to the Minyan, this creates a dilemma; on the one hand it is fitting to recite Hallel with the congregation (if he hasn't yet begun Boruch She'omar), and on the other hand, it is proper to daven in the correct order. For this reason, the Rebbeim were punctilious about being up to Hallel when the Minyan recited it on Yom-Tov.

If one forgot to recite Hallel, he should recite it with a Brocho as soon as he remembers, as long as it is before sunset (or without a Brocho until Tzeis).

If one mistakenly recited half-Hallel, he must repeat the entire Hallel (without a Brocho).

🕊️ KRIAS HATORAH

It is not our custom to recite Akdomus. (The Rebbe would recite it quietly.)

The Aliya containing the Aseres Hadibros is given to a prominent individual.

The Rebbe instituted that all men, women, children, and even newborns (health permitting), attend Shule to hear the Aseres Hadibros. The congregation stands and faces the Sefer Torah while the Aseres Hadibros is read.

The first day's Maftir is given to a learned and prominent individual, due to the special significance of this Haftorah. The congregants read along in an undertone, and some have the custom to stand up while reading it.

🕊️ FIRST DAY – YOM TOV MEAL

The Mitzvah of V'Samechta B'Chagecha requires one to celebrate Yom Tov with his family. As such, one should not overly prolong time spent at any communal Kiddush or Farbrengen.

If possible, one avoids starting the meal after the tenth Halachic hour begins (approximately 2:43pm), in order to preserve an appetite and properly enjoy the Yom-Tov meal of the second night.

It is customary to eat Milchigs on the first day of Shavuot. By the same token, Yom Tov must be celebrated with the consumption of meat.

One of the reasons for eating Milchigs is to emphasize that Yidden – unlike the angels who visited Avraham Avinu – are careful to separate milk and meat. As such, special care must be taken to uphold all the Halachos of Kashrus. These include:

- Waiting one full hour after Milchigs, or six hours after cheeses cured for more than six months. [It may not be practical to consume aged cheeses on Shavuot, as one must also eat meat later on.]
- Making a Brocho Acharona between Milchigs and Fleishigs.
- Not using the same tablecloths, utensils or loaves for Milchigs and Fleishigs.
- If the same table is shared by individuals eating Milchigs and Fleishigs, a Hekker (Halachically valid marker) must be used. This can generally be achieved by using separate placemats or placing something distinctive and unusual in between.
- Not eating Milchigs together with Challah baked in a Fleishig oven or vice versa. [There are grounds to be lenient if the Challos weren't physically touching any part of the oven, and the oven was both absolutely clean and devoid of steam whilst the Challos were baking.]

- Not baking a Milchig or Fleishig loaf of bread lest people mistakenly assume it is Parve. Even if already baked, it may not be eaten. Exceptions: The loaf has a distinctive shape, or it is visibly and obviously noticeable as Milchig or Fleishig, or it is small enough to be completely consumed within one day.
- Using separate knives and blenders (or Parve utensils) to cut vegetables used with Milchigs and Fleishigs. This is especially important when cutting sharp vegetables (e.g. onions), as they assume the knife's status even if it was clean and unused in the 24 hours prior.
- If Parve food was already cooked in a Fleishig pot, and the pot had not been used for Fleishig in the 24 hours prior, the Parve food may be eaten with Milchig food. If the pot had been used for Fleishig in the 24 hours prior, the Parve food may be served in Milchig dishes, but not eaten directly together with Milchig food. [All the above applies to Parve food already cooked in a Fleishig pot. However, one should not plan in advance to prepare Parve food in Fleishig cookware for use with Milchigs; in cases of need, a Rav should be consulted.]

Needless to say, Chassidim (among others) are careful to eat only Chalav Yisroel. Accordingly, one should not even eat Parve or Chalav-Yisroel foods that came into contact with non-Chalav-Yisroel utensils whilst hot.

The Brocho on cheesecake containing flour is Mezonos, even if the crust is thin.

The first day of Shavuot is the Yohrtzeit of the Baal Shem Tov, and is therefore an opportune time to share a teaching and story of the Baal Shem Tov. Shavuot is also associated with Moshe Rabbeinu (who received the Torah) and Dovid Hamelech (who compiled Tehillim). Therefore, Shavuot is an opportune time to enhance one's commitment to learning Chitas.

🕊️ FIRST DAY AFTERNOON

One may not perform any preparations on the first day for the second night and day of Yom Tov.

The Rebbe instituted the custom of Tahalucha, directing all Chassidim to visit community Shules and enhance their Simchas Yom Tov by sharing words of Torah (both Nigleh and Chassidus). The Rebbe attached much importance to Tahalucha.

🕯️ SECOND NIGHT OF SHAVUOS

The candles should be kindled with a pre-existing flame, and not before Tzeis Hakochavim (5:51pm). The Brochos are L'Hadlik Ner Shel Yom Tov and Shehecheyanu. [See the "Candle-lighting" section for further relevant details.]

Maariv should not begin before this time, nor should tasks or preparations required for the second night and day of Yom Tov be performed before this time.

Candles must not be waxed into place, nor may wicks be twisted. If needed, wax from the previous night may be removed in a way that it falls directly into the bin.

🕯️ SECOND DAY OF SHAVUOS

Some have the custom of reading Rus in Shule on the second day of Yom Tov. Although that is not our custom, the link between Rus and Shavuos is preserved by reading the entire Sefer as part of Tikun Leil Shavuos.

Yizkor is recited before Musaf. Those who leave the Shule for Yizkor may recite "Av Harachamim" after Yizkor if they wish.

After Mincha and before sunset of the second day of Yom Tov, we wash for Hamotzi and partake in a Farbrengen at which the Nigunim of the Rebbeim (and the Daled B'avos) are sung. At these Farbrengens, the Rebbe would frequently speak about learning Chitas and Rambam; about the importance of Chinuch; and encourage everyone's participation in the Kinus Torah.

🕯️ MOTZEI SHAVUOS

Ya'aleh Veyavo (and Horachamon) is recited during Bentching, even if it is already Tzeis Hakochavim (5:51pm).

On Motzei Shavuos, Kiddush Levana is recited after Maariv.

Havdalah is recited without Besomim and candles. V'Yiten Lecha is not recited.

🕯️ AFTER SHAVUOS

The day after Yom Tov is known as "Yom Tovo'ach". It is also Isru Chag, and should be celebrated with additional food items. One may not fast on this day – even a Chosson and Kallah on their wedding day.

In association with the Yom Tov of Shavuos, the Rebbe encouraged all to attend a Kinus Torah. [The Kinus Torah in Melbourne will take place at Yeshivah Gedolah on Motzei Shabbos after Shavuos, from 8:00-10:30pm.]

The days after Shavuos until the twelfth of Sivan (inclusive) are known as "Y'mei Tashlumin", during which Tachnun is not recited. The Alter Rebbe once remarked that these are the days to "pack" all the treasures and revelations of Shavuos.

On the Shabbos after Shavuos (11th Sivan), Av Harachamim and Tzidkosecha are not recited.

🕯️ INTERNATIONAL DATE LINE

One should not cross the International Date Line (one-way) during Sefirah Haomer, unless absolutely unavoidable.

Polar flight routes can be problematic. If travel by such a route is necessary, or after the fact, one should seek guidance from a Rav familiar with these matters.

If one crossed the International Date Line, he observes Shavuos in accordance with his personal count of Sefiras Haomer. Thus, his first day of Shavuos will not coincide with the sixth of Sivan; the day of Matan Torah.

One who travelled east (e.g. from Australia to USA) observes Shavuos a day earlier than the people at his destination (i.e. on Sunday and Monday, the fifth and sixth of Sivan), and these Halachos are relevant:

- Sunday: This day is Yom-Tov for the traveller but weekday for the local populace. The traveller should light candles, recite the Yom Tov Tefillos and Kiddush, but omit the three words "Zman Matan Toraseinu". On Motzei Shabbos, he needs to recite Vatodienu during Maariv, and Yaknehaz at the nighttime Kiddush.
- Monday: This is the second day of Yom-Tov for the traveller but the first day for the local populace. The traveller observes Yom-Tov as usual, and includes the three words "Zman Matan Toraseinu" in his Tefillos. At the end of this day, the traveller recites Havdallah in private.

- Tuesday: This day is Yom-Tov for the local populace but weekday for the traveller. The traveller should don Tefillin and daven the weekday Tefillos. Other than that, he should not perform any Melocho, even in private. Likewise, for appearances sake, he should act as though it is Yom Tov, such as wearing Yom Tov clothing and attending Shule.

One who travelled west (e.g. from USA to Australia) observes Shavuos a day later than the people at his destination (i.e. on Tuesday and Wednesday, the seventh and eighth of Sivan), and these Halachos are relevant:

- Monday: This day is Yom-Tov for the local populace but weekday for the traveller. The traveller should don Tefillin and daven the weekday Tefillos. Other than that, he should not perform any Melocho, even in private. Likewise, for appearances sake, he should act as though it is Yom Tov, such as wearing Yom Tov clothing and attending Shule.
- Tuesday: This is the first day of Yom-Tov for the traveller but the second day for the local populace. The traveller observes Yom-Tov as usual; however, he omits the words "Zman Matan Toraseinu" in his Tefillos.
- Wednesday: This day is Yom-Tov for the traveller but weekday for the local populace. The traveller should light candles, recite the Yom Tov Tefillos and make Kiddush, but omit the three words "Zman Matan Toraseinu". At the day's conclusion, the traveller recites Havdallah in private.

Whenever the traveller's Tefillos differ from those of the local populace, he should daven discreetly and not call attention to the fact.

When it is Yom-Tov for the traveller but weekday for the local populace, the traveller may not instruct another Jew to perform Melocho on his behalf. In fact, if the traveller notices someone doing Melocho for his benefit, he must object. However, if the Melocho was not performed on the traveller's behalf, or he didn't know about it until after it was completed, he may benefit from it.

Yizkor is recited together with the local community.
