FOREWORD

Presented here is comprehensive guidance for the laws and customs associated with the days from 20 Elul through 13 Tishrei. The details are derived from multiple sources. Due to a dearth of space only some references and halachic notes have been added. Primary sources include: the Alter Rebbe's Shulchan Aruch, Mateh Ephraim, Kitzur Shulchan Aruch, Sefer Haminhagim Chabad, Luach Colel Chabad, various sichos, maamarim and Igros Kodesh. Please see the footnotes in the Hebrew section for more halachic discussion of the topics mentioned.

The details are derived from multiple sources, revised by Rabbi M.M. Rotenberg.

The intention of this summary is to inform you of some of the relevant laws, not to replace each person's obligation to review the halachos comprehensively.

Please note: Specific laws are usually mentioned only the first time that they become relevant, though they may apply to subsequent dates as well.

TIME TO PREPARE

In a sichah on the second day of Rosh Hashanah 5752, the Rebbe states:

"We need to focus on studying the laws that apply to this time of year, during which many changes are made to the standard prayers and there are numerous customs that apply. We should make certain to study these laws in the Code of Jewish Law.

"Recently, yearly calendars have begun to include many of the laws that apply to the relevant time of the year and that are necessary to know. This is particularly useful for those who, for whatever reason, do not have sefarim or do not know how to find what they are looking for in the sefarim that they own. Now, they can simply examine such calendars and easily find the relevant laws.

"It is therefore extremely appropriate for every single person to peruse the contents—of these calendars, such as the Kollel Chabad calendar (available both in wall size and pocket size formats) in such a manner that the laws that apply to this time of year will become fixed in his memory. After all, it sometimes happens that a halachic question arises precisely at a point during which it is forbidden to interrupt and ask for someone's guidance—or when there is nobody around to ask. Furthermore [not having familiarized himself with the relevant laws beforehand], it can happen that one does not even realize that there is a problem to begin with."

This guide incorporates several reminders about laws that will only be applicable during the Era of Redemption, with the hope that Moshiach will come speedily, allowing us to implement these laws in practice.

LAWS OF REDEMPTION

The concept of studying these halachos is based on several sichos, some of which are quoted below:

TO REALIZE REDEMPTION

“Hashem begs the Jewish people,” the Rebbe passionately stated, “to occupy themselves with the study of the laws of the sacrificial orders ... which [as our Sages state] is considered as if we had actually offered the sacrifices. This study will bring about the actual offerings because it brings [to quote the Rambam] ‘King Moshiach [who] will build the Beis Hamikdash ... and restore the laws of the Torah ... so that the Jewish people will again offer the sacrifices ... in accordance with all the mitzvos that are stated in the Torah,’ speedily, in our time—literally! [Then, to quote the festival liturgy] ‘We will offer before You there the offerings of our obligations ... in accordance with the commandments of Your will.’”¹

“We must experience greater longing and yearning for the Redemption,” the Rebbe demanded. “One of the ways this is accomplished is through studying more Torah on the subjects of the Redemption and the Beis Hamikdash. Studying these topics greatly hastens their actual realization, to the extent that we will go directly from studying these subjects to greet our righteous Moshiach. We will inform him, ‘We have just completed studying the laws associated with your coming!’ An additional motivation to study these laws is that we must expect Moshiach’s arrival each and every day. In that case, these laws [concerning the Redemption and the Beis Hamikdash] are matters that every Jew—men and women alike—must know in order to put them into practical use on a daily basis, such as many of the laws of the offerings.”²

General Note: The times listed below are for Crown Heights only. Since one can never achieve complete precision, and many factors may influence the accuracy of these times, it is recommended to begin earlier than the time listed and not wait until the last minute (e.g., for the start of Shabbos), or to wait extra time, when that is the appropriate precaution (e.g., at the close of Shabbos).

MONTH OF ELUL

Elul is called a month of mercy for the thirteen attributes of Hashem's Rachamim shine especially during this time. During this month, the heavenly gates of mercy are wide open to anyone who is spiritually attenuated, serving the Creator, Blessed is He, with teshuvah, tefillah and tzedakah.

Elul is also a time for doing an internal audit; as the last month of the year, it is a month of accounting when we contemplate everything that occurred in the past year that has affected our Divine service. We must feel true regret for our previous wrongdoings and accept upon ourselves good resolutions to fulfill the mitzvos more perfectly, to pay more attention to Torah learning and prayer, and to make our positive traits more ingrained.

Elul also serves as a month of preparation for the new year—may it be heralded with only positivity and blessing in material and spiritual matters.

KING IN THE FIELD

The Alter Rebbe presents³ the following parable to explain the Divine service of Elul: As the king approaches his capital, the city's inhabitants leave their homes and enter the fields beyond the city limits in order to greet the king and escort him in. While the king is still in the field, all who wish are able to personally greet him. He, in turn, greets them in a friendly manner and shows a smiling countenance to all.

Likewise, concludes the Alter Rebbe, we go forth during Elul to greet the light of Hashem's countenance in the 'field'..

This subject is expounded upon in numerous sichos and maamorim of this season.

FIVE ACRONYMS OF ELUL

These are the five acronyms of the name "Elul" (אֱלוּל) that are based on Torah verses. Each of the verses represents another aspect of Divine service that we should emphasize throughout the month:

- 1) אָנָה לִידּוּ וּשְׂמֵתִי לָךְ [Hashem] caused it to come to his hand, and [He] will provide for you [a place to flee]⁴—this corresponds to Torah study.
- 2) אֲנִי לְדוּדִי וְדוּדִי לִי "I am to my Beloved (Hashem) and my Beloved is to me"⁵—this corresponds to the service of prayer.
- 3) אִישׁ לְרֵעֵהוּ וּמִתְנוּת לְאֲבִיּוֹנִים [Sending delicacies] each to the other and gifts to the poor⁶—this corresponds to acts of charity.
- 4) אֶת לִבְךָ וְאֶת לִבּוֹ [Hashem, your G-d, will circumcise] your heart and the heart of

3) Likkutei Torah, Devarim 32a

4) Shemos 21:13, regarding the Cities of Refuge

5) Shir Hashirim 6:3

6) Esther 9:22

your offspring [to love Hashem, your G-d, with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live]⁷—this corresponds to teshuvah.

5) ויאמרו לאמר אשירה לה [Then Moshe and the Children of Israel sang this song to Hashem] and they declared saying: I will sing to Hashem⁸—this corresponds to Geulah.

ELUL FIVE

We should publicize and promote the spiritual tasks of Elul that are alluded to by its five acronyms everywhere. These are: Torah-study, prayer, acts of kindness, penitence and Redemption. Immersing ourselves completely with the theme of the Geulah—and especially through studying those areas of Torah that discuss Redemption, Moshiach and the Beis Hamikdash—amidst expectant yearning and an absolute certainty that we will literally and immediately see with our corporeal eyes that “Behold! The King Moshiach comes!”

We should lay special emphasis on the Redemption, for which the acronym of Elul is found in the verse, “I will sing to Hashem; and they declared saying⁹”—in a manner that results in Redemption permeating every aspect of our Divine service.

GREETINGS

Concerning the customs of Elul, the Rebbe said¹⁰: Each person should bless others (and be blessed in return) with the wish of kesivah vachasimah tovah leshanah tovah umesukah (“May you be inscribed and sealed for a good, sweet year!”). It is appropriate that men bless men, women bless women, boys bless boys, and girls bless girls. This blessing should be extended to each individual Jew as well as to the entire Jewish nation as a whole. It should be expressed directly and in writing—as noted by latter-day halachic authorities, “It is customary when one pens a letter to send regards to a friend, from Rosh Chodesh Elul until Yom Kippur, that he add a prayerful wish that his friend merit to be judged favorably in the approaching days of judgment and to be inscribed and sealed in the Book of Good Life.” The blessing of a Jew, especially at an auspicious time—during the month of mercy when “the King is in the field ... and displays a benevolent countenance to all, and fulfills their requests”—serves to increase Hashem’s blessings in fulfillment of the requests of each and every Jew for all they need, both materially and spiritually!

CHECKING STAM

(Additionally) halachic authorities record, “The scrupulous are accustomed to have their tefillin and mezuzos checked during Elul, as well as seeing to the repair of

7) Devarim 30:6

8) Shemos 15:1

all other aspects that concern the performance of mitzvos; this is a fine custom.”¹¹ Indeed, this is a way to increase the blessings we receive from Hashem—especially the blessing to be inscribed and sealed for a good, sweet year!

It is worthwhile and highly appropriate that besides having our own tefillin and mezuzos checked, we also make an effort to publicize this practice wherever we can and to whomever we can.

Prayer: “It is more preferable to increase in Selichos and supplications during these days than to learn more,” writes the Birchei Yosef.¹² “I have personally observed this with some Rabbonim who are habitually occupied with halachic analysis and compedia, but in Elul, slightly alter their schedules to learn more superficially and (spend time) in prayer.”

ELUL PRACTICES

L'DOVID HASHEM ORI

From the first day of Rosh Chodesh Elul until Hoshana Rabbah, we add Chapter 27 of Tehillim (beginning L'Dovid Hashem Ori, with allusions to all three Tishrei holidays) to our davening—in Shacharis, after Shir shel Yom; and in Minchah, before Aleinu.

SHOFAR BLOWING

Ten blasts are blown every day of Elul following Shacharis. They are:

Tekiah, shevarim-teruah, tekiah. Tekiah, shevarim, tekiah. Tekiah, teruah, tekiah.

Although there is no halachic imperative as to how the shofar is blown each day of Elul, the common custom is to be attentive to blow the combination Shevarim-teruah sound in a single breath.¹³

If someone failed to blow shofar at the end of the Shacharis, it would be proper to sound it directly following Minchah.¹⁴

THREE TEHILLIM CHAPTERS

When the Tzemach Tzedek was nine years old, the Alter Rebbe told him: I received (an instruction) from my teacher (the Maggid of Mezritch), who received it from his teacher (the Baal Shem Tov) in the name of his famous teacher (Achiyah Hashiloni) that every day, starting on the second day of Rosh Chodesh Elul until Yom Kippur, we recite three chapters of Tehillim sometime 12) 581; In the name of the Tur Borekes, as quoted in various sichos.

14) However, do not blow shofar at night. See Hebrew footnote on this section for a lengthy discussion.

throughout the day (completing 114 chapters in 38 days). On Yom Kippur, we recite nine additional chapters before Kol Nidrei; nine before going to sleep; nine after davening Musaf; and nine after Neilah (thus completing all 150 chapters of Tehillim).¹⁵ If you did not begin on time, or skipped some days, start with the current three chapters of that day and fill in the missing chapters whenever possible.

TEHILLIM SEASON

The story is told of how once, during Elul, the Rebbe Rashab sent R' Avraham Pariz to Vitebsk to collect funds for redeeming captive Jews. "While you are there," the Rebbe told R' Avraham, "Buy me a Tehillim—it is the season for it."

SHUL DUES

Maaser money should not be used to purchase seats in a shul, except in cases where there are plenty of available seats, and the act of purchasing a seat is done simply to support the shul.

When purchasing Aliyos for the High Holidays, maaser may be used if that was the donor's intention when initially making the pledge.¹⁶

MONDAY, 20 ELUL

Law of Redemption: Wood Offering

There are nine days each year celebrated by Kohanim of specific families who in the days of Ezra had undertaken to supply vast quantities of firewood for the Altar. Each of these families received a date to bring wood and they would offer a special sacrifice and treat the day as a personal Yom Tov. The twentieth of Elul is celebrated by the descendants of Adin ben Yehudah. According to Rabbi Yehudah, these are descendants of Dovid Hamelech, from the tribe of Yehudah. According to Rabbi Meir, these are descendants of Yoav ben Tzeruyah.¹⁷

TUESDAY, 21 ELUL

Today is the anniversary of the chanukas habayis (inauguration) of 770, the central shul and beis midrash of Lubavitch (referred to as Lubavitch sheb'Lubavitch), which occurred in the year 5700 (1940).

In 5750, in honor of the (then) fiftieth anniversary of the inauguration, the Rebbe ¹⁵ They are listed in the back of Tehillim Ohel Yosef Yitzchak.

¹⁶ Some are stringent not to use maaser in this manner, and allow it only for the difference added to the first bid for that particular kibbud. Practically, maaser may be used if it was purchased only because of maaser money available to the winner, or the original (outbidded) bidder planned to use maaser himself. See also #1143.

had a special booklet published, entitled, Kuntres Chof-Alef Elul Tof-Shin-Nun. It included a maamar (Al Shloshah Devarim 5714).¹⁸

In that discourse, the Rebbe explains an earlier maamar (with the identical title) that was delivered by the Frieddiker Rebbe during the actual inauguration of 770.¹⁹

THURSDAY, 23 ELUL

Today is the yahrtzeit of the Rebbe's maternal grandfather—"My grandfather, the Rav, Gaon, and Chassid, Rabbi Meir Shlomo Halevi Yanovsky, one of the close disciples of the Rebbe Maharash and the Rav of Nikolayev."²⁰

FRIDAY, 24 ELUL

Erev Shabbos Parshas Nitzavim-Vayelech

Shulchan Aruch states that although a person hears the entire Torah read in shul on Shabbos morning, he also needs to read it himself every week. We recite shnayim mikra v'echad targum, i.e., we read each verse of the parshah twice and the commentary of Onkelos once. It is customary to do this on Friday after chatzos (midday). If someone is unable to do it on Friday, the best way to fulfill this obligation is to finish it before eating the Shabbos day meal, and even better if completed before Shacharis. Today, we read shnayim mikra for Parshas Nitzavim-Vayelech.

Candle lighting is at 6:25 pm.

SHABBOS PARSHAS NITZAVIM-VAYELECH, 25 ELUL

Shabbos Selichos

This day has been established as the yahrtzeit of Reb Dov Ber Schneerson, the Rebbe's brother, who was murdered by the Nazis toward the end of 5701. May Hashem avenge his blood!

18) The maamar is printed in Sefer Hamaamorim Melukat, vol. 4, p. 383.

19) In Sichas Rosh Chodesh 5710, while discussing mortgage payments for 770, the Rebbe described the Frieddiker Rebbe's initial entry into the newly acquired 770, which occurred on a Sunday, 19 Elul, 5700:

"When my holy father-in-law, the (Frieddiker) Rebbe, entered his home for the first time, he entered the Beis Knesses and Beis Midrash, and he proclaimed (see Sefer Hasichos Kayitz 5700, p. 175): 'Yehi ratzon az der tefilos zol zein mit ah penimius un es zol zich davenen mit dem emes avodah penimiusdiker geshmak!' (May it be Hashem's will that the prayers be recited with innermost sincerity and [that the attendees] should pray with delight inspired by truth, inner toil in Divine worship, and inner sincerity!) We might wonder at the association of prayers with the purchase of a new home. The explanation is that this house was to serve as a bayis klali, an inclusive home, for the entire Jewish nation! The one entering the building at that very moment was a neshamah klalis, an inclusive soul. Such a soul is occupied with tefillah, meaning 'connection' (as in hatofel), whose goal was to connect all Jews with their Father in Heaven."

20) Sefer Hasichos 5749, vol. 2, p. 713, fn. 83. See also Shabbos Parshas Nitzavim-Vayelech (23 Elul) 5746 & 5749.

DAY ONE

On this day, the world was created. Chassidim of early generations would study the first portion of Bereishis on this day, the second portion on 26 Elul, and so forth. The intention behind this practice is as follows: the creation of the world—described in the abovementioned text—was an uninitiated isarusa dil'eila (awakening from Above), spurred solely by Divine desire. We study these portions in order to achieve the unique advantage of avodah, man's effort from below (which is far greater in many ways than what is accomplished from Above). This isarusa dil'sata (awakening from below) on days which represent isarusa dil'eila effect a fusion between these two methods of relationship which the Jewish people have with their Creator.²¹

SPECIAL SHABBOS

The Shabbos that precedes the beginning of the Selichos prayers prior to Rosh Hashanah is called Shabbos Selichos.²²

The Frierdiker Rebbe recalls²³: Every day brought you nearer to the Shabbos before Selichos. The Chassidus that was delivered that Shabbos was listened to with a special degree of concentration. On that Friday night, people slept less than usual. Quite spontaneously, you woke up early, a little restless, and went to the mikveh before dawn.

Arriving there, you found quite a number who had come before you, and all of them seemed to be in a hurry. You could see it on their faces: this Shabbos was different from all others. This was the Shabbos before Selichos!

All kinds of ideas are running around in your own head, too. One thought that suddenly presents itself is a clarion call: Lecha Hashem hatzedakah—“Righteousness belongs to You.” But more insistently than that, you are now reminded of the continuation of that verse: ...vilanu boshes hapanim—“And we are marked by shamefacedness.” With a contrite heart, you immerse in the mikveh, asking yourself meanwhile whether this tevilah is a real immersion of teshuvah, accompanied by remorse over the past and a resolve for the future, or whether it is perhaps (G-d forbid) an instance of tovel vishretz biyado—one who immerses in the mikveh, but while still grasping (an impure) critter in their hand.

...The way people read their Tehillim on this Shabbos was also different from the way they read Tehillim throughout the year...

At the table of my father, the Rebbe, the midday meal of the Shabbos preceding Selichos was much shorter than that of any other Shabbos.

21) Likkutei Sichos, vol. 16, p. 488, fn. 54.

22) The significance of the name “Shabbos Selichos” is explained in Likkutei Sichos, vol. 24, p. 647, as well as in the sichos delivered on Shabbos Selichos in the years 5728, 5734, 5745, 5748, and elsewhere.

23) Sichah of Pesach 5694 [1934], Warsaw. This is an excerpt from the English version of Likkutei Dibburim (p. 244).

MORNING TEHILLIM

Recite the entire Tehillim in the morning before Shacharis.²⁴

The latest time for reciting Shema is 9:45 am.

Shacharis: We read from Parshas Nitzavim-Vayelech. For the Kohen's aliyah, the final verse, Hanistaros ("The hidden things are for Hashem our G-d, and the revealed things are for us and our children forever to perform all the words of this Torah."), is read in a louder voice.

The Haftorah beginning Sos asis is read; it is the seventh and final Haftorah offering comfort and consolation for the Beis Hamikdash, in which Hashem promises to bring the final and ultimate Redemption.

Do not recite Birchas Hachodesh, as Hashem personally blesses the month of Tishrei.²⁵

The molad (new moon) will occur on Friday morning, 3:21 am, 13/18 of a minute.

Recite Av Harachamim before Musaf.

HEIGHT OF HAPPINESS

"There is a wonderous quality (to this Shabbos)," the Rebbe says, "apparent in the parshah, (though many may be unaware). On Simchas Torah we celebrate the end of the yearly Torah cycle—this concept is also connected with Parshas Veyelech, the Torah portion that narrates the completion of the Torah.

"So, now, in Parshas Vayelech we can already sample the simchah of Simchas Torah—which is the ultimate joy of all of the Yom Tov called 'the Time of our Rejoicing', higher than the joy that permeates all seven days of Sukkos (representing the weekly, world-focused cycle), ostensibly even higher than the joy of Shemini Atzeres (greater than the cyclical seven)—a joy that is greater than all limitations and metrics."

(In a footnote, the Rebbe indicates that we may, in fact, experience an even more intense simchah this Shabbos than Simchas Torah itself—in a spiritual sense. For while Simchas Torah is the time that we practically finish the Torah, this Shabbos is associated with the source for it in Torah, which is much higher than the physical reality.)

Minchah: The first passage is read from Parshas Haazinu. Recite Tzidkascha.

24) The Rebbe explains this practice—despite the fact that we do not actually bless the new month—as well as the custom to farbreng on this Shabbos, in Kovetz Michtavim (published at the back of the Tehillim) fn. 5, as well as in Likkutei Sichos (vol. 4, p. 184, fn. 8), and elsewhere.

25) Hayom Yom, entry for Elul 25. This insight was given by the Alter Rebbe, who heard it from the Maggid, who received it from the Baal Shem Tov. For elaboration, see Likkutei Sichos, vol. 4, p. 1139; Ibid., vol. 9, p. 184; Ibid., vol. 29, p. 173, as well as many sichos delivered on this Shabbos. It is also not recited in order to confuse the Satan, who will be left unaware of the approach of Rosh Hashanah. (See Likkutei Sichos, vol. 24, p. 222.)

Study Chapters 5 and 6 of Pirkei Avos following Minchah. This completes the fourth—and final—cycle of Pirkei Avos for the year 5784.

The traditional Shabbos Shuvah drashah will be held a week earlier, today, at 6:45 pm.

MOTZOEI SHABBOS

Shabbos ends at 7:23 pm.

Do not recite Vih no'am and Ve'atah Kadosh following Maariv.

A melaveh malka (“the meal of Dovid, King Moshiach”) is held as usual.

SELICHOS

PARDONING DUES

“What is even more special about the time of Selichos over the rest of the month of Elul,” the Rebbe says,²⁶ “is as the Baal Shem Tov explains: In this month, Hashem gives all the good things to every one of us ‘on credit’, and throughout the year we must ‘pay’ through our Torah learning, teshuvah, and good deeds. But what happens if the year passes, and we have not ‘paid up’ all that we owe? So Elul arrives, the time when we focus on the service of teshuvah, and we thus ‘settle our debt’. But what if our teshuvah is not perfect? So the days of Selichos arrive, and Hashem sees how sincere we are in working to balance our account, and he forgives us for whatever is left in the red. This is what Selichos is all about—that Hashem should forgive our debt in total.

“This is an idea alluded to in the Midrash, and also brought in the Tur (regarding the custom to fast on erev Rosh Hashanah). It concerns a parable of a region that owes the royal tax—the king pardons one third on erev Rosh Hashanah and another third during Aseres Yemei Teshuvah. Although the source references a practice related only to erev Rosh Hashanah, it also talks about fasting in the four days prior to ‘make up’ for the two days of Rosh Hashanah and the following Shabbos—so it follows that the days during which we say Selichos are also a time for the remission of debts, and not only erev Rosh Hashanah itself.

“While there is a tradition of the Ge'onim with regard to saying Selichos only during Aseres Yemei Teshuvah—mentioned there in the Tur in the name of Rav Hai Gaon—nowadays most congregations say Selichos before Rosh Hashanah as well. This can be understood in the context of what the Alter Rebbe says with regard to prayer in general, how in the time of Beis Hamikdash, the concept of tefillah included only the Shema and other short liturgy, and the time to make preparations for davening were also scarce. Not so today, we must prepare for tefillah at length. Why? In the Temple days, people were generally on a higher spiritual level without the need for a protracted warm-up in order to be ready to face Hashem, or lengthy prayers to connect with Him. But today, when the generations have become weaker in holiness, we are in need of greater conditioning to be able to properly daven. The same applies to saying Selichos—unlike in the days of the Ge'onim when the Aseres Yemei Teshuvah sufficed to accomplish all that was needed, subsequent generations have become less and less spiritually inclined. Hashem sees how we are incapable of such intense avodah, and therefore we say Selichos before Rosh Hashanah as well, as a spiritual preparation for Rosh Hashanah.

However, in these times, even when we make small efforts, we have greater effect and draw (G-dly blessing) even more readily than in previous generations. So we actually have two (opposing) points here: On the one hand, we are needy of more intensive mindfulness before Rosh Hashanah, unlike in the days of Ge'onim; on the other hand—and to the contrary—through saying Selichos before Rosh Hashanah, we are able to cancel our debt—obtaining forgiveness even before the Day of Judgment. So although in the past, there was a more concentrated 10-day period in which a spiritual pardon was sustained (eight days post-Rosh Hashanah following Rosh Hashanah itself), today we have the advantage of securing a clean slate in the days of Selichos before Rosh Hashanah even begins.

HOW TO PREPARE

The Rebbe recounts²⁷ that the Chassidim “once arrived to recite Selichos—vakeldikerheit (wobbling unsteadily).” He explains that “since a Chassidische farbrengen was held that Shabbos, at which the Chassidim drank mashkeh, it had an effect on their heads, which in turn had an effect on their feet, and so off they went to Selichos—vakeldik!”²⁸

During Shabbos Selichos,²⁹ the Rebbe declared: “It would be beneficial to combine the recital of Selichos—which is a prayer service—with Torah study. Since public study would delay the congregation unnecessarily if it were conducted after Selichos, it would be better to study before Selichos. The same is true of giving tzedakah. Some refrain from giving tzedakah at night, but after chatzos (halachic midnight, tonight at 12:46 am) it is unquestionably permissible. In fact, it is possible to delay the beginning of Selichos by a few minutes past chatzos so the congregants can give tzedakah beforehand. Torah study, obviously, can be studied before midnight.

The Rebbe goes on: “The association of Selichos with both Torah study and tzedakah should continue throughout the week of Selichos. The topics chosen for study should conclude with practical laws, lending the superiority of having just studied Halachah to the Selichos service.

“At the beginning of the book of Selichos, there is a maamar of the Alter Rebbe entitled Lecha Hashem Hatzedakah. That discourse includes teachings from both

27) Shabbos Parshas Nitzavim-Vayelech 5743

28) On Chai Elul 5741, the Rebbe identified an alternative catalyst—“since they heard a maamar of Chassidus from the Rebbe that Shabbos...” On Shabbos Parshas Nitzavim-Vayelech 5742, the Rebbe referred to yet another cause—the nature of the Shabbos preceding Rosh Hashanah, when the Haftarah beginning Sos asis (“I will greatly rejoice in Hashem...”) is read, and a joy similar to Zman Simchaseinu prevails. (For a source for this in Gemara, see Sichas Chai Elul 5741. See also below, entries for the night of erev Rosh Hashanah.)

the Written and Oral Torah, as well as a practical halachic conclusion.

“It is worthwhile to publicize in every possible location that before Selichos, everyone should learn Torah and give tzedakah. And it is therefore worth studying that maamar, or at least its start and conclusion.

“In short, practical terms: Before Selichos, study a halachic topic. The learning should be preceded by tzedakah so as to enhance the understanding of the Torah as well as the prayers that will follow. This sequence will enhance the requests for forgiveness (selichos) as well as that which is elicited as a result.”

RECITATION OF SELICHOS

Selichos begins soon after midnight for one of the hymns begins with the words b'motzoei menuchah—“at the termination of [the Day of] Rest,” but Selichos and the Yud-Gimmel Middos (Thirteen Attributes) are not recited before midnight.

If pressing circumstances do not allow for the post-chatzos recital of Selichos, they may be said after “the tenth hour from (daytime) chatzos”, but without Vidui and Tachanun.³⁰

In 770, Selichos is called for 1:00 am.

The one who leads the Selichos service wears a tallis, but he does not recite a blessing over the tallis. If a bachur serves as chazzan, he should nevertheless wear a tallis on this occasion, because Selichos is centered on the recital of the Yud-Gimmel Middos Harachamim, and the Gemara states that Hashem wrapped Himself in a tallis like a chazzan when teaching Moshe to recite these attributes for forgiveness.

It is customary to say Selichos tonight while still wearing Shabbos clothing.

It is appropriate to review the Selichos liturgy in advance, so as to understand the meaning of its less familiar sections and poetic paragraphs.

If reciting Selichos at a measured pace does not enable you to keep up with the congregation, you should interrupt your own recital whenever the minyán reaches the Yud-Gimmel Middos Harachamim (i.e., Hashem, Hashem, Keil Rachum Vechanun, etc.), even if you are in the middle of a paragraph. Join the congregation in this recital and then resume Selichos from the point of interruption.³¹

If reciting Selichos without a minyán, omit the Yud-Gimmel Middos Harachamim.

Preferably, you should stand when reciting Selichos. If this is difficult, ensure to stand at least while reciting Keil Melech yoshev, the Yud-Gimmel Middos Harachamim, and when saying Vidui.

The Open Aron: When the aron is open for special prayers, but the sifrei Torah remain in place, it is not an essential requirement to stand, though this is the common practice in order to give extra respect, and there are opinions that are machmir, and state it is necessary for those who can view the Torahs at this time. Practically, someone who feels weak, or the elderly, can be lenient here.³²

SUNDAY, 26 ELUL

MONDAY, 27 ELUL

From today onward, Selichos are recited early in the morning, though they may be recited at night following chatzos. When reciting Selichos earlier than the time of misheyakir (“when one recognizes”; shortly after daybreak today at 6:03 am), the chazzan dons a borrowed tallis without a brachah.

Selichos in 770 from today on is at 7:00 am. In a written reply to Rabbi S.Z. Gurary, the Rebbe decried the practice of those who “recite Selichos close to the latest time for reciting Shema.”

It is important to remember to recite the morning Brachos, and at least birchas hatorah, before starting Selichos.

SELICHOS DAYS

The Frierdiker Rebbe relates: “I personally remember that when, as an eight-year-old, I experienced such Elul farbrengens, it affected me to improve my conduct during my childhood days. As the Selichos days approached, the atmosphere of sincerity strengthened and the awe-inspiring days began to move in.”³³

THREE PREPARATORY DAYS

The Shelah states³⁴ that the one leading the prayers and blowing the shofar on Rosh Hashanah must separate themselves from all matters that lead to impurity three days in advance, and they should study the kavonos (intentions) behind the prayers and the sounding of the shofar. This directive is based on the Zohar.

Study the festival prayer service in advance in order to familiarize yourself with the nusach and the meaning of the words. It is critical for a chazzan to know the translation of the prayers, particularly on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. He must know all of the prayers, including the many liturgical poems that are difficult to understand without prior study because they are based on midrashim and similar sources. The Rebbeim have instructed that every chazzan should know at least the literal meaning of what he recites, and that he should review the material afresh each year before leading the congregation in prayer.

MONDAY NIGHT, 28 ELUL

3rd Day of Selichos

DAY THREE

The Rebbe writes the following in a public letter³⁵:

Concerning the third day of Selichos, my revered father-in-law, the (Frieddiker) Rebbe once recounted that this day was “the day set aside by the Alter Rebbe (and likewise for his successors) for the private delivery of a maamar in the presence of his illustrious son, the Mittlerer Rebbe (and when my great-great-grandfather, the Tzemach Tzedek, was about ten years old, he delivered it for him, too), with the instruction that no one was to know of it. On the third day of Selichos, the Tzemach Tzedek used to deliver a maamar of the Alter Rebbe in the presence of the Rebbe Maharash, with the instruction that no one was to know of it. On the third day of Selichos, the Rebbe Maharash used to deliver a maamar in the presence of my father, the Rebbe (Rashab), and on the third day of Selichos, 5655 [1895], my father delivered this maamar for me, instructing me to keep this a secret until he told me otherwise.”

...For many years, the significance of both Chai Elul and the third day of Selichos were hidden away. Now permission has been granted by the (Frieddiker) Rebbe, who has made them known in all corners of the earth. One might well ask, “But is this generation worthy?!” The response will be that for this very reason, these things should be made public, because there is such increasing obscurity of spiritual light in this generation (that can hear the approaching) footsteps of Moshiach, so even the store-houses of precious treasures that (until now) were hidden and locked away from all eyes are opened up.

Learn the Maamorim

The Frieddiker Rebbe revealed many deep concepts in Chassidus in maamorim that were delivered on the third day of Selichos, many of which were published and widely distributed, as the Rebbe relates.³⁶ “The practical implication of speaking about the multitude and scope of these maamorim is that each individual should take the time during these days to learn from these maamorim, each according to his ability and his particular interests.”

Farbreng

The Rebbe continues: “Certainly it will be decided that tonight, already, a shturemdike farbrengen should be held, with unique joy but with limitations, since it is not actually Purim.... Nonetheless, Purim is connected with Yom Kippur which concludes the Ten Days of Repentance, and therefore is associated also with its beginning—Rosh Hashanah—including the days when Selichos are recited.”

³⁵) dated 13 Elul 5710. Translation is excerpted from Proceeding Together pp. 147 ff. by Sichos in English

In another sichah on the third day of Selichos, the Rebbe says³⁷: “The unique significance of the third day of Selichos was explained by the (Friediker) Rebbe. On that day, he also recited a maamar and asked that it be printed and publicized. Significantly, the (Friediker) Rebbe did not reveal this concept until the later years, after moving to America.

“Since the (Friediker) Rebbe did not provide an explanation for the significance of this day, we can each try to understand its meaning according to our individual capacity.” (On another occasion, the Rebbe suggests³⁸ that the significance of this day is associated with the number three itself.) Whether or not we discover the true reasons that made the third day of Selichos unique, the main point is that each of us further increases in Torah, in proper conduct and the like. For every addition in Torah, mitzvos and Chassidus is in itself the ultimate truth.

TUESDAY, 28 ELUL

Minchah: On the afternoon prior to erev Rosh Hashanah, Tachanun is recited.

TUESDAY NIGHT, EVE OF ROSH HASHANAH

Day of “Zechor Bris”

Today is often referred to as Zechor Bris, after the opening words of today’s Selichos. Nevertheless, it is not Chabad custom to recite this particular section of Selichos.³⁹

Today marks the anniversary of the birth of the Tzemach Tzedek in 5549 (1789)—erev Rosh Hashanah 5550.

HIGHEST RETURN

“As a result, the service of teshuvah that is required from us at present is not for the sake of achieving atonement—meaning that not a hint of an undesirable matter is raised on the Day of Judgment—for that would be stating the obvious. No, the novelty of teshuvah is not merely to spare a Jew from concern regarding a day of judgment! Especially after all that the Jewish people have gone through, and on the heels of their (accumulated) deeds and Divine service performed over thousands of years, and after—and this is the main factor—the diligent study of Chassidus, there is absolutely no novelty in the fact that a Jew is no longer associated with judgment, and not even a hint of it. Rather, the service of teshuvah that is required from us now and for which we recite Selichos is teshuvah ila'ah, the higher form of teshuvah—and the loftiest form of teshuvah ila'ah itself. ...Furthermore, since teshuvah ila'ah is performed with tremendous joy, our current Divine service must be done with great joy!

“The message for each and every Jew is as follows: There is no point in thinking about judgment, or even a hint of it, since you already received a kesivah vachasimah tovah (to be inscribed and sealed for the good) from Rosh Chodesh Elul—and even earlier, from Shabbos Mevorchim Elul, and even from the 15th of Av, regarding which our Sages state, ‘The Jewish people had no greater festivals than the 15th of Av and Yom Kippur.’ That date is compared to Yom Kippur, the most unique date in the annual calendar. The Divine service of Yom Kippur is the innermost form of teshuvah and teshuvah ila'ah. Within teshuvah ila'ah itself, Yom Kippur is the time for the pnimiyus of the pnimiyus, the deepest dimension of the innermost form of supernal teshuvah...

“The main point is that today’s Divine service of selichos and teshuvah, meaning, teshuvah ila'ah, must be carried out with the very greatest joy, in the spirit of kiflayim lesoshiyah, a redoubled joy that outranks even the joy of Purim that is referred to as ad d’lo yada (beyond all reasoning).

“You may wonder how any joy can supersede the already transcendent joy of ad d’lo yada, but that’s what a Jew is all about! They have the power and ability to ascend from the state of ad d’lo yada to an even higher state of ad d’lo yada, just as the joy of Purim in the year of Tinaseh (תניסה)—be uplifted and exalted, corresponding to the year 5751) was even greater than the joy of Purim, shnas Nissim (an acronym for תשנ”ג—the year of miracles, i.e. 5750), in the spirit of ma’alin bakodesh, a constant ascent in all matters of sanctity. ... Not only that, but because a Jew is given control of the occurrence of time itself, they cause the kesivah and gmar chasimah tovah and piska tova (good note from Above) to be accomplished immediately, right now. In fact, they immediately celebrate Simchas Torah, including its preceding celebrations of Simchas Beis Hasho’eivah—‘And you shall draw waters with joy from the wellsprings of the salvation!’ Moreover, they experience these with greater intensity because the result of celebrating these occasions outside of their usual timing is that the joy is also infinitely greater than at their regular times.⁴¹

A SLEEPLESS NIGHT

The Frieddiker Rebbe says: “The night preceding the eve of Rosh Hashanah was a vach nacht—a night to remain awake. Since my sixth year of life, I do not recall sleeping on this night as on usual nights. Each person according to their level prepared for the approaching Rosh Hashanah and the following days of judgment.”⁴²

“Chassidim would dance even on the first night of Rosh Hashanah, but primarily at their private accommodations. The same happened after Selichos. It once happened, that as they approached Selichos on the eve of Rosh Hashanah, they were tottering on their feet (after farbrenging the entire night!)”⁴³

AND A BIG SEUDAH

The Rebbe states⁴⁴ that “a great seudah (festive meal) is held on erev Rosh Hashanah, and this was undoubtedly done on this erev Rosh Hashanah as well—at least on the preceding night or during the twenty-four hour period.” As a basis for this, the Rebbe refers to the halachic ruling of the Tur,⁴⁵ who in turn quotes the Midrash [which we will quote in full further below]: “...not so the Jewish people! They don white clothing and enwrap themselves in (more) white ... and they eat and drink and rejoice ... for they know that the Holy One blessed be He will perform a miracle for them!” Earlier the Rebbe says⁴⁶ that our preparation for the eating and drinking on Rosh Hashanah itself takes place on erev Rosh Hashanah.

WEDNESDAY, 29 ELUL, EREV ROSH HASHANAH

MORNING PRAYERS

Recite the lengthy Selichos service for erev Rosh Hashanah. Include Tachanun (Vayomer Dovid el Gad) even if the sky has already grown light.

During Shacharis, however, do not recite Tachanun, Lamnatze'ach ya'anacha, or Tefillah l'Dovid.

No Shofar: Do not blow the shofar. This applies throughout the entire day.⁴⁷

The Pri Chadash records⁴⁸ a personal custom of sending gifts of food to poor people on erev Rosh Hashanah.

HATARAS NEDARIM

Recite Hataras Nedarim (prayer for annulment of vows) before chatzos (12:44 pm). According to the letter of the law, this must be done in the presence of three men. However, the custom is to do it with a minyan. If the Hebrew text is not understood by the one reciting it, it must be said in a language that he understands.

An individual may be matir many vows with one petition, and a number of people may be matir together. But performing Hataras Nedarim with the entire congregation (where everyone says the liturgy and all answer at once) in order to save time is not allowed.

It is not a widely accepted custom for a child to recite Hataras Nedarim, even one who is old and mature enough for his vows to be binding.⁴⁹

Women also do not perform Hataras Nedarim. It has never been a custom for wives to appoint their husbands as their emissaries to seek annulment of vows on their behalf. Rather, they rely on the proclamation to annul vows that is recited in Kol Nidrei.⁵⁰

It is customary that the one requesting the annulment of their vows stands, while everyone else sits.

Hataras Nedarim recited on erev Rosh Hashanah only annuls vows that you no longer recall having made (because there is no other option in nullifying them). Similarly, the concluding statement regarding any future vows is valid for only extremely pressing circumstances.

SAY BLI NEDER

In general, if you make a vow at any point in the year and still recall its existence; if you observe a positive practice and intend to continue observing it forever; or even if you observed a positive practice three times without specifying that you are not binding yourself to continue observing it forever, then you are fully obligated to fulfill your vow or continue observing that practice. It is therefore crucial, when making a decision or performing an action, to state that it should not assume the force of a vow. Always remember to specify that you are performing an action bli neder.

If you realize that you have made a vow that you cannot keep, or if you find yourself unable to maintain a positive practice that you took upon yourself, you must visit a Beis Din whose members are fluent in the laws of vows. You will need to tell the Rav your vow and explain the circumstances under which it was made. He will then ask two men to join him in formally annulling the vow (any two men can join the Rav for this purpose).

If circumstances did not allow an individual to perform Hataras Nedarim on

49) This is because the biblical prohibition against breaking his word does not yet apply to him (Rambam Hilchos Nedarim, 11:4), and according to many opinions, his vows cannot be undone. He is not afforded the opportunity of reciting Hataras Nedarim in order to discourage him from making vows in the first place. (See Rema, Yoreh De'ah 233:1. See Sha'alos Uteshuvos Divrei Moshe, 66.)

50) This can be understood according to a number of halachic factors, which are beyond the scope of this publication.

erev Rosh Hashanah, they should do so during Aseres Yemei Teshuvah (or even afterward, when the opportunity arises).⁵¹

EREV YOM TOV

Bloodwork: Try to avoid blood tests. This restriction stems from the statement of Chazal that bloodletting performed on erev Shavuot has an element of danger. (In former times, this practice was a standard form of improving the body's health.) They therefore forbade bloodletting procedures, and on erev Pesach and erev Sukkos as well, as a precaution, and many apply it to every erev Yom Tov.⁵²

PIDYON NEFESH

Write a pan to the Rebbe on your behalf and on behalf of your entire household. Pay a visit to the cemetery, recite many supplications there, and give tzedakah to the poor. It is customary for those who are within a reachable distance to pay a visit to the Ohel. Do not eat before visiting the cemetery, but you should drink.

Law of Redemption: Maaser of Animals

We do not separate maaser beheimah (the animal tithe) one year from animals born in a different year. All those born between 1 Tishrei and 29 Elul in a particular year may be combined, and we separate maaser from these for those.

The Sages established three dates annually for tithing animals. Once such a date arrives, no animal may be sold or slaughtered before maaser has been taken. These dates are referred to as the “harvest time” of maaser beheimah. (If an animal was slaughtered despite maaser not having been taken, it is still permissible.) One of these dates is fifteen days before Sukkos, i.e. the final day of Elul. All three dates precede the major festivals so that many animals will be made available at that time to the advantage of the Jews who ascend to Yerushalayim for the three festivals.

Terumas Halishkah

At the start of Tishrei, before or after Rosh Hashanah, silver coins are removed from three giant coffers that sit in one of the side chambers of the Beis Hamikdash. The money is placed into smaller containers so that it is accessible for the Kohanim to purchase sacrifices as necessary, until the next scheduled date for removing the next enormous sum from the three giant coffers. The Sages deliberately timed this removal at the start of Tishrei, well in advance of Sukkos, so that it would receive much public attention. This way, those who live at a distance from Yerushalayim will hear about it, and they will make certain to bring their contributions with them when they travel to Yerushalayim and deliver them to the Beis Hamikdash before Sukkos.

⁵¹) see #1291

⁵²) Regarding bloodletting on erev Rosh Hashanah and erev Yom Kippur, see Sha'alos Uteshuvos Rivavos Efraim, vol. 1, 340 in the name of my grandfather ז"ל. I found the same concept explicitly mentioned in Noheig Katzon Yosef, p. 262.

YOM TOV PREP

Launder your clothes, take haircuts, clip your fingernails, shower, and immerse in a mikveh. Then dress in Shabbos clothes to indicate trust that Hashem will vindicate us in judgment.

IN A CELEBRATING MOOD

The Rebbe's sichos are replete with the following halachic statement of the Tur⁵³:

“We wash ourselves and take haircuts, in accordance with the following teaching of the Midrash,⁵⁴ ‘It is stated, “For what great nation is there that has Hashem so near to it...?”⁵⁵ Indeed, which nation is like this (Jewish) nation that is familiar with the ways of Hashem, meaning, His customs and His judgments! For according to natural proceedings, one who has a court case cannot know in advance how he will fare in the final judgment. Not so the Jewish people! They don white clothing, and so on, and they eat and drink and rejoice on Rosh Hashanah, for they know that the Holy One blessed be He will perform a miracle for them!’ (“And that He will decide the judgment in their favor and He will shred (negative) decrees against them”).⁵⁶ It is therefore customary to take haircuts and to launder clothes on erev Rosh Hashanah, and to send gifts for Rosh Hashanah.”

Law of Redemption: Ritually Pure

Rambam states⁵⁷: “All Jews are cautioned to be ritually pure at each regel (festival) so that they are ready to enter the Beis Hamikdash and partake of the sacred offerings.” This refers specifically to Pesach, Shavuos and Sukkos, when there is an obligation to ascend to the Beis Hamikdash. For how this also applies to Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, see references in footnote.⁵⁸

FOODSTUFFS

Bake or buy round challahs for Rosh Hashanah. Assemble sweet apples, honey, pomegranates, fish, a head of ram (or head of another creature such as a lamb or a fish) and a new fruit to be used for Shehechyanu over Yom Tov. Any seasonal fruit (a fruit which grows only at a certain time every year or twice a year) which has not been eaten yet this season qualifies as a “new fruit.”

Honey: Take care to buy filtered honey, since unfiltered varieties can have bee segments mixed in, which are unkosher. In general, purchase bottled honey only with a reliable hechsher, since the bottling process itself may cause kashrus concerns (if they are heated for sealing in a non-kosher facility). Avoid these nonhechshered honey products in particular: Forest honey, beechtree honey—and other tree varieties like pine, spruce and oak—as well as royal jelly and bee pollen (products made from actual bee parts).

AVOIDANCES

Refrain from using vinegar when preparing food for Rosh Hashanah. Other ingredients that give the food a particularly bitter or sour taste, such as when lemon is used as a primary flavor, should similarly be avoided. The minhag is to avoid hot and spicy foods as well. However, there is no concern with using garlic.

We also avoid walnuts, pecans, hazelnuts and almonds in all our Rosh Hashanah dishes (even those that will be eaten when davening has concluded).⁵⁹

There are those who have the custom to continue these restrictions throughout the Aseres Yemei Teshuvah; others, merely on erev Yom Kippur; and some do so all the way until Hoshana Rabbah.⁶⁰

SPIRITUAL PREP

Resolve to pay greater attention to specific aspects of your observance during the coming year.

Shofar: If a new shofar bears a sticker from the manufacturer, it should be removed before Yom Tov—a shofar must be inspected for cracks and a sticker may cover an imperfection. As well, anything layered over the shofar body can affect its pure sound.⁶¹

EIRUV TAVSHILIN

An eiruv becomes necessary when Yom Tov occurs on Thursday and Friday.

Don't forget! Many overlook this important requirement, causing themselves great difficulties. It is highly recommended to schedule a personal electronic reminder via cell phone, email, or other method.

Prepare an eiruv tavshilin as described below.

Even if you do not intend to cook food for Shabbos during Yom Tov you must nevertheless prepare an eiruv tavshilin and recite the appropriate blessing over it in order to be permitted to light Shabbos candles while it is still Yom Tov.⁶² Without an eiruv tavshilin, you may not light candles during Yom Tov for the sake of the approaching Shabbos.

59) There is room for leniency regarding finely ground almonds (or butters/pastes) that are not discernable. For more details, see www.asktherav.com #1080; #1154; #5659; #5686.

60) see www.asktherav.com #5673

61) See www.asktherav.com #5524. Regarding shellac finishes on a shofar, see ibid. #5474.

62) All authorities concur with this law, as stated by Magen Avraham and the Alter Rebbe.

All members of the household who partake of food together may use a single eiruv for all cooking and Shabbos prep matters. However, anyone who will be preparing food for themselves, or having someone not part of the household prepare it for them (even if they take the raw ingredients from the house), needs their own eiruv tavshilin.

A guest who partakes of the host's food regularly is considered as a household member and is yotzeh with their eiruv. However, if the guest only eats Shabbos or Yom Tov meals there (and even if they add in a random meal today), it is questionable whether they are automatically included. The host should therefore act as a shliach for the guest, and he should grant him a portion of the eiruv by having someone pick it up on the guest's behalf.

How do I establish an eiruv?

On erev Yom Tov, take in your right hand⁶³: (1) a challah roll or matzah (the size of kebeitzah, the volume that would fit into two small matchboxes), that is being set aside for Shabbos, and (2) a choshuv (presentable) prepared food such as fish or meat⁶⁴ (the size of kezayis, the volume that would fit into a small matchbox), and hand them both over to a second person, who will accept the food with their right hand on behalf of the entire community.

It is better that the second person not be a member of your own household. Even a non-family member who eats meals with you and is considered part of the family is preferable to an actual family member. You can also use your adult married son or daughter for this purpose, even if they still eat meals with your family. If no one but family members are available, you may designate your wife or an adult son or daughter who eats his or her meals at home with you.

When handing over the items, announce, "I hereby grant a share in this eiruv to whoever wishes to participate and depend on it."

אני מזכה לכול-מי שרוצה לזכות ולסמוך על ערוב זה.

The second person acquires the food by raising it at least one tefach (3 to 3.5 inches) higher than where it was sitting, using their right hand. They then return it to you, and you recite the following:

ברוך אתה א-דני א-להינו מלך העולם, אשר קדשנו במצותיו, וצונו על מצות ערוב (1)

63) A lefty uses their left hand throughout.

64) It must be a cooked food, not a raw one, that most people eat with bread as part of a meal. (This does not include, for example, lokshen kugel or other pasta dishes.) Even if it is the type of dish that is usually eaten during a bread-meal, but in your particular area, the local population does not—you may not use it for the eiruv. If you did make an eiruv with one of these foods, you are not yotzeh even after the fact, and must redo the eiruv.

Some use an egg for this purpose, as it is a food that has a long shelf life. This tradition is actually brought in halachic sources. But nowadays, with the advent of refrigeration, it is appropriate to use fish or meat, which are fancier.

Blessed ... Who has sanctified us with His commandments and commanded us concerning the mitzvah of eiruv.

(2) Through this, it shall be permissible for us to bake, cook, preserve the heat of a container of food, kindle a light, prepare and do all that is necessary on the holiday for Shabbos, for us and for all the Jews who dwell in this city.”

Those who understand Aramaic, recite in the original:

בְּדִין יְהִי שְׂרָא לָנָא לְאַפְוִי וְלְבִשּׁוּלֵי וְלְאַטְמוּנֵי וְלְאַדְלוּקֵי שְׂרָנָא וְלְתַקְנָא וְלְמַעֲבַד כָּל-צְרָכָנָא
מִיּוֹמָא טָבָא לְשַׁבְּתָא לָנָא וְלְכָל-יִשְׂרָאֵל הַדְרִים בְּעִיר הַזֹּאת.

The challah and cooked food are then set aside to be used as part of Seudas Shabbos; the eiruv must be kept, and not consumed, until all other Shabbos preparations have been made on Friday. Put it away in an inaccessible place (the cooked food in the fridge, so it doesn't spoil). If the eiruv is lost, eaten, or spoiled while it is still erev Yom Tov, you must make a new eiruv with a brachah.

Eiruv Issues

If you forget to make an eiruv tavshilin, you must ask your local Rav what to do.⁶⁵

If you remember about the eiruv tavshilin once Yom Tov has already begun, there are certain loopholes that may be employed so you can still cook for Shabbos—ask your Rav a sha'alah concerning this situation. It must be noted that Rosh Hashanah is stricter than other Yomim Tovim in this regard, since a popular loophole to make an eiruv tavshilin on the first day of Yom Tov through a tenai (stipulation) doesn't apply, as both days of Rosh Hashanah are considered to be of equal status (see below on the entry for the second night of Rosh Hashanah, concerning yoma arichta).

Bear in mind, as well, that lighting candles for Shabbos while it is still Yom Tov will pose a challenge,⁶⁶ especially since in the modern age, candle lighting is an action expressly for the benefit of Shabbos as we rely primarily on electrical fixtures to provide illumination.

EREV YOM TOV AFTERNOON

From approximately an hour before Minchah until the conclusion of Rosh Hashanah, use every available moment of the day and night to recite Tehillim. Avoid mundane conversation to the extreme, trim your sleeping hours and increase your concentration in prayer from the depths of your heart and soul.

65) Although the Rav of the city makes an eiruv with the express intention of providing a backup for those who failed to make one due to extenuating circumstances (or made one and lost it), it also explicitly states that this loophole does not provide for someone who was intentionally lax in making one, and in this case, forgetfulness may be considered willful neglect (see the Alter Rebbe's Shulchan Aruch 527:14). You must ask your own Rav if their eiruv would cover for you under these circumstances.

66) See ibid., sec. 29

THE ACCOUNTING

The Frieddiker Rebbe enjoins us⁶⁷ to prepare for Minchah of erev Rosh Hashanah by taking a spiritual accounting of the past year's endeavors in positive and negative mitzvos, character improvement and yiras Hashem, and all matters of our relationship with both Hashem and our fellows. This reckoning should be acutely personal and truthful, without exaggerating or minimizing our actions. Thus analyzing our spiritual service vis-a-vis our life circumstances will reveal the excess of Hashem's kindnesses to us and our families that are not at all proportionate to our efforts. With further introspection into our past, we come to recognize Hashem's direct guidance in our lives, rousing our conscience to reject our pettiness, and indifference toward mitzvos, attending minyanim and all holy matters ...this lengthy meditation of our sins during this last prayer of the year will awaken a deep regret for the past so we may return and reconnect to accept Hashem's Kingship. this Rosh Hashanah.

MINCHAH TIME

Spend extra time and concentration while praying the final Minchah service of the year 5784.

The Rebbeim would make a point of conversing with their wives on erev Rosh Hashanah, close to the onset of the festival. In his sichos, the Rebbe directs every husband to adopt this practice.

Provide the needy with ample Yom Tov supplies.

Give tzedakah in advance for both days of Yom Tov, and Shabbos that follows, and donate to the Keren Hashanah fund⁶⁸ in multiples of 355 (the number of days in 5785). This year has marked 70 years since the founding of this fund in 5714.

BEFORE LIGHTING CANDLES

It is forbidden to generate a new flame on Yom Tov because creating something new is akin to performing a melachah (prohibited activity), and since you could have easily prepared a flame in advance of Yom Tov, you are forbidden to do so during Yom Tov itself.⁶⁹ You must prepare a flame today that will remain lit long enough to provide fire for candle lighting on the second night of Yom Tov and for the following Shabbos. You may keep a gas burner lit for this purpose.

Someone who observes a yahrtzeit on Yom Tov or the Shabbos that follows, and those who would like to light an extra candle in honor of Shabbos Shuvah (called a teshuvah licht) as was the custom of the Rebbeim,⁷⁰ must do so on erev Yom Tov

67) Sefer Hamaamrim 5703

68) Keren Hashanah is a project whereby tzedakah is given every day on behalf of all participants. Participants usually contribute according to the days of the year; this way, we are assured of the merit of giving tzedakah every day of the year. This is a practice that the Rebbe strongly encouraged.

69) Alter Rebbe's Shulchan Aruch 502:1

70) See Sichas Shabbos Shuvah 5721 for the Rebbe's directive to the public regarding this practice. In Sichas Vav using a 72-hour candle, since it is forbidden to prepare on Friday for Shabbos outside of matters related to food preparation.⁷¹

A word of caution: Fire safety organizations recommend that if you leave a gas burner lit over Yom Tov, make sure that a nearby window is open at least four inches, and another window is open on the other side of the house, to allow proper ventilation. Also, make sure that smoke detectors and a carbon monoxide detector are present and in order.

If you use Neironim wax candles that are inserted into glass holders, it is advisable to place a little water or oil into the glass before inserting the candle. Do this today, on erev Yom Tov, so that the metal tab that supports the wick will not stick to the bottom of the glass, which would cause a halachic issue on the second night of Yom Tov and for Shabbos. (See details below in the entry for the second night of Rosh Hashanah.)

If you use floating wicks with disks that need to be punctured by the wick, preassemble all you need for both days on erev Yom Tov and for Shabbos, so you do not create a hole on Yom Tov.

Those who regularly make use of Shabbos timers should plan ahead for both days of Yom Tov and for Shabbos when setting their timers.

Check your pockets before sunset to avoid carrying any muktzah.

CANDLE LIGHTING

Candle lighting is at 6:17 pm, eighteen minutes before sunset.

Two blessings are recited on the candles: (1) lehadlik ner shel yom hazikaron and (2) Shehechyanu. If a man lights the candles, he should reserve the blessing of Shehechyanu for the Kiddush he will recite later tonight.

If you accidentally did not recite the appropriate brachah or if you forgot to recite Shehechyanu, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

If someone is running late, they may light the candles after Yom Tov has begun provided that the fire is taken from a pre-existing flame. Someone who forgot to light the gas burner or the like before the start of Yom Tov is permitted to ask a non-Jew to light it now.

5785 STATS

This year's siman (mnemonic for the calendar's setup) is hay-shin-aleph (ה"שח), indicating that Rosh Hashanah begins on Thursday (represented by hey for the fifth day of the week); the year is shleimah (shin), "full," i.e., the months of (6th) Tishrei 5742, the Rebbe states that it is the Chabad custom to kindle three teshuvah lights.

71) If this was not done in advance, or the light went out, there is room to be lenient to do so on Friday, if it is lit together with the Shabbos candles in the area where the meal will be eaten.

Cheshvan and Kislev consist of 30 days each⁷²; and that Rosh Chodesh Nissan will occur on Sunday (aleph, the first day).

This year's calendar setup is relatively unusual, and last occurred in 5754. Before that, it occurred in 5734. For further information on this year's calendar, see footnote.⁷³

This year is an ordinary year (not a leap year) containing 355 days and 51 Shabbosim. It is the third year into the current Shemita cycle. The ma'asros for this year are: Ma'aser Rishon and Ani.

In Nissan this year, the seventeenth year of the machzor gadol (the twenty-eight-year cycle of the sun) begins. It is the ninth year of the machzor katan (the nineteen-year-cycle of the moon).

It is 3336 years from the redemption from Mitzrayim and the giving of the Torah at Har Sinai and 1956 years since the destruction of the second Beis Hamikdash.

On legal documents, we count 2336 years.

MILESTONE DATES THIS YEAR:

60 years from the passing of Rebbetzin Chana AH Scheerson, mother of royalty, on 6 Tishrei, 5725

75 years from the Frierdiker Rebbe's passing and the Rebbe's subsequent de facto leadership of Chabad on 10 Shvat, 5710 (1950).

150 years from the wedding of the Rebbe Rashab to Rebbetzin Shterna Sara, on 11 Elul, 5635

280 years since the birth of the Alter Rebbe on 18 Elul, 5505—the Frierdiker Rebbe records the Baal Shem Tov's reaction to the event⁷⁴: "A new neshamah has descended that will light up the world with the revealed Torah and with Chassidus; it will enact actual self-sacrifice for the ways of Chassidus, granting it success until the coming of Moshiach."

WEDNESDAY NIGHT, 1ST NIGHT OF ROSH HASHANAH

Don't Smoke! Even if you are accustomed to smoking during Yom Tov, refrain ⁷² Ten months of the year have fixed lengths; only Cheshvan and Kislev fluctuate.

⁷³ This year's calendar setup ensures that Rosh Chodesh will coincide with Shabbos three times—for the months of Cheshvan, Adar, and Menachem-Av.

In addition, the following notable dates will occur on erev Shabbos: (1) The fast of the tenth of Teves, which will be celebrated as a festival, when the fast day is transformed to rejoicing, with the coming of the immediate redemption; (2) Purim. The residents of Yerushalayim and other "walled" cities will celebrate Purim Meshulash, a three-fold Purim, meaning: Mikra Megillah and matanos la'evyonim are observed on Friday (Adar 14); Al Hanisim is recited on Shabbos (Adar 15); and seudas Purim and mishlo'ach manos are observed on Sunday (Adar 16).

Erev Pesach will fall on Shabbos.

⁷⁴ Likkutei Dibburim, vol. 3, p. 960f.

from doing so throughout Rosh Hashanah, even in private. Try your best to influence others to refrain from smoking during Rosh Hashanah as well.

Recite Tehillim before Maariv. It is common practice to sing the niggun of Avinu Malkeinu before Maariv (as is done most years in the Rebbe's shul).

MAARIV

It has been the custom of the Rebbeim to daven this Maariv at length. On some level, at least, this practice is applicable to all Chassidim.

TO PRAY & TO BOW

The Frierdiker Rebbe describes⁷⁵ our status on the first night of Rosh Hashanah by way of explaining the meaning of our petition from the davening: we ask that Hashem forgive us, “either as children or as servants.” A child who fails in honoring his parents and later expresses regret and resolves to do better immediately receives his father’s merciful forgiveness. In contrast, a servant who is foolishly rebellious will not only ask forgiveness from his master, but must bow down and beg at his feet that he be allowed to resume serving him. So, as in the liturgy, the act of “turning our eyes to [the Master]” is accomplished by this tefillah on the eve of Rosh Hashanah, when we implore Hashem with tears and supplication from the depths of our hearts that He take us as His servants today to fulfill His Torah and mitzvos via our ardent acceptance of Hashem’s kingship in a way that moves us to the very core of our being.

Remember to include the numerous additions to the Amidah for the Yamim Noraim and Aseres Yemei Teshuvah. These are: (1) Zachreinu; (2) Mi chamocho (on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur: l'dor vador); (3) Hamelech hakadosh; (4) Ukesov; (5) Uv'sefer; (6) Oseh hashalom (remember this one in Kaddish as well).

If you made—or think you may have made—a mistake in reciting these phrases, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

The congregation recites L'Dovid mizmor with deep concentration following the Amidah of Maariv. This is an aid to merit an adequate supply of livelihood throughout the coming year and serves as a keili (tool) to receive blessings for material needs for the entire year. This is followed by Kaddish Shalem and Aleinu.

AFTER MAARIV

We wish each other L'shanah tovah tikaseiv veseichaseim—using the Hebrew singular. Women and girls greet each other with the feminine, singular form of the blessing: L'shanah tovah tikaseivi vesechaseimi.

We also wish each other, “Gut Yom Tov!”

CARRYING ON YOM TOV

Someone who will not be using a particular item (such as a machzor) at home during Yom Tov may nevertheless carry it from shul on Yom Tov, if the purpose in doing so is to prevent its theft or misplacement. However, if they own a shul locker or have an established location in shul where to keep such items, they may not bring it home unnecessarily. Naturally, if they intend to use it at home, they may certainly bring it home.

According to some authorities, an individual would be required to remove the keys that are not needed during Yom Tov before carrying a keyring on Yom Tov.

KIDDUSH

For Kiddush, recite (1) borei pri hagafen (2) mekadesh Yisrael veyom hazikaron (3) Shehechyanu. If the pomegranate that is customarily eaten at the start of the meal is considered a new fruit for you, have it in mind while reciting this blessing of Shehechyanu.

A woman who recites Kiddush does not repeat the blessing of Shehechyanu, since she recited it earlier over the candles.

If you made a mistake in Kiddush, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

CHALLAH IN HONEY

The eiruv tavshilin challah is used for lechem mishneh only on Shabbos, not during the meals of Yom Tov that precede it.

Dip your slice of challah into honey. This custom carries on from Rosh Hashanah until Hoshana Rabbah.⁷⁶

It is stated in numerous sources that salt should be present on the table in addition to honey. In fact, the Rebbe's custom is to actually dip the challah in salt as well.⁷⁷

APPLE IN HONEY

After eating a *kezayis*⁷⁸ of the challah, take a piece of a sweet apple, dip it in honey, recite (1) borei pri ha'eitz and (2) Yehi ratzon milfanecha shetichadeish aleinu shanah tovah umesukah—and then eat it.⁷⁹

If you recited borei pri ha'eitz on the apple, but you failed to bear in mind the pomegranate that was already placed on the table, then you should not recite the same blessing again over the pomegranate. However, if the pomegranate was not on the table, and you failed to have it in mind, then you should indeed recite borei pri ha'eitz when you later eat the pomegranate.

⁷⁷ However, see Sefer Hasichos referenced in the previous footnote.

⁷⁸ This is the volume of challah that would fit into a small matchbox.

⁷⁹ For insight into this custom, see Igros Kodesh, vol. 3, p. 146.

A guest, however, does not make an additional brachah on the pomegranate—even if it was not before them nor did they have it specifically in mind when making borei pri ha'eitz. They are considered to have had intent to eat whatever is served.

Regarding the brachah recited over dessert (if the dessert would normally require borei pri ha'eitz), the Rebbe would leave some of the apple for the end of the meal. In this way, he would have in mind when originally reciting borei pri ha'eitz at the start of the meal that this brachah includes the dessert eaten at the end of the meal. That way, the same blessing is not recited twice.⁸⁰

IT'S ALL ABOUT THE TIMING

“We have a minhag to eat a pomegranate on the first night of Yom Tov,” says the Rebbe.⁸¹ “In order to avoid the halachic questions with regard to making a brachah on the pomegranate before eating it, as well as an after-brachah if eating a full portion (and who would not? It is Rosh Hashanah, when we are meant to eat delicacies!)—so to circumvent all possible issues, it should be consumed according to the guidelines stated by the (Frieddiker) Rebbe with regard to the sweet, honey-dipped apple: In the siddur, it says to eat the apple at ‘the beginning of the meal’. We have no choice but to interpret that time as the point where we have already consumed Hamotzi (after, of course, its associated netilas yadayim—which now also allows us to avoid any issue of eating a wet fruit), in which circumstances we make a brachah of Ha'eitz on the fruit, but the after-brachah would be a non-issue, as everything within the meal is included in Birchas Hamazon. We have already spoken many times about the halachic back-and-forth on this matter.”

SEUDAH & SIMANIM

It is a mitzvah to eat, drink and rejoice on Rosh Hashanah.

It is customary to eat fish, symbolic of the blessing for offspring.

We also eat a pomegranate, which has a wealth of seeds that is symbolic of a multiplicity of merits, as well as the head of a ram to recall akeidas Yitzchak. If that is not an option, the head of a lamb can be used. If that is similarly unavailable, the head of another creature—fish heads are common—is used as a symbol that “we should be at the head and not the tail” during the coming year. In any case, we do not recite a Yehi ratzon over these items.

Regarding the foods to avoid throughout Rosh Hashanah, see the entry above for erev Yom Tov food preparations.

The Rebbe gave a directive concerning saying L'chaim on spirits during the meals of Rosh Hashanah. (See footnote.)⁸²

⁸⁰) This directive appears in many places. However, see Sefer Haminhagim, p. 56—the significance which is unclear and subject to much debate; note that the source of that quote discusses the new fruit eaten on the second night of Rosh Hashanah.

⁸¹) Sichah of 25 Elul, 5751; transcribed from audio.

⁸²) It is recorded in the notes on what occurred during the second night of Rosh Hashanah, 5731: The Chassidim

During Birchas Hamazon, add Ya'aleh veyavo, Harachaman for Yom Tov as well as Harachaman hu yechadesh...hashanah hazos... Oseh shalom is said, not hashalom.

If you forgot either addition to Birchas Hamazon, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

BLESSINGS OUT LOUD

At a meal on the second day of Rosh Hashanah 5716 (1956), the Rebbe recited Harachaman for Rosh Hashanah aloud, and after bentching commented: “When we were printing the (Tehillas Hashem-Kehos) siddur, I asked the (Friediker) Rebbe whether to include the Harachaman on Rosh Hashanah, because the Shaar Hakollel brings proofs that it should not be said. The Rebbe answered (in the affirmative), ‘We usually say it quietly.’ In the end, the printer used large lettering⁸³ for this line, whether it was because he did not have a smaller type set or some other reason, so from then on (the practice was altered)...may it be ‘a good and sweet year, meritorious and blessed.’”

CLEAN UP

May garbage be put out to the curb on Yom Tov? A full bag of kitchen trash is generally not considered muktzah (on account of it being offensive and ruining the simchah of Yom Tov if left around). Nonetheless, there are those who are halachically stringent on account of carrying on Yom Tov,⁸⁴ given that there are generally ways to store the trash until after Yom Tov in a hygienic manner, and the purpose in taking it out is primarily to remove it from your property. Practically, if the stench in any way inhibits your Yom Tov, or if there is insufficient storage for all the garbage that accumulates, it may be put to the curb. However, if it is already in bins out in the yard (assuming you don’t establish your dwelling place in the yard, i.e., it isn’t a lived-in space) and you merely want to take it out to the street to be collected, it is forbidden to do so on Yom Tov.⁸⁵ present asked the Rebbe to say L’chaim. The Rebbe replied that he will do so at the farbrengen, but concerning the present time, “This is the table of my father-in-law (the Friediker Rebbe), and I do not want to veer from his custom of not saying L’chaim on Rosh Hashanah. (On the second day of Pesach, 5730, the Rebbe mentioned this custom too, and specified that his father-in-law wouldn’t say L’chaim on the first night of Rosh Hashanah). Subsequently, on motzoei Yom Kippur, 5731, the Rebbe asked to say L’chaim to ‘make up’ for Rosh Hashanah. At the meal of the second day of Rosh Hashanah, 5727, (the Rebbe allowed for L’chaim and) stated, “In this regard, we are already past the major judgment.” On the first day of Rosh Hashanah, 5729, one of the participants at the Rebbe’s meal made a sort-of L’chaim, explaining that while he wouldn’t do so explicitly, we might take some liberties after blowing the shofar, when the more lenient form of judgment has already been passed. The Rebbe responded, “It says in Shulchan Aruch that on Rosh Hashanah we act in a way that is explicit, avoiding any ambiguity.”

The communal form of L’chaim regularly occurred at farbrengens on Rosh Hashanah. See also Likkutei Sichos, vol. 19, pp.283 ff. It is recorded that the Rebbe said, at the farbrengen of Rosh Hashanah 5746, “Everyone should say L’chaim with joy and good feeling, and sing a happy song—a niggun appropriate for Simchas Torah!”

THURSDAY, 1 TISHREI, 1ST DAY OF ROSH HASHANAH

Rise early in the morning. Neitz hachamah (sunrise), is at approximately 6:55 am.

Poskim write that we must take care to rise early, before dawn, or at least before sunrise. Practically, this means waking much earlier than usual.⁸⁶ Children above the age of chinuch should also be encouraged to wake earlier than they usually do.

It was an ancient tradition that on Rosh Hashanah morning, the shamesh of the shul would come around calling while it was still dark—an hour or so before dawn—so that once it turned light, everyone would already be in shul.

The latter-day poskim give all sorts of justifications as to why this minhag is no longer popular, pointing out that our body constitution has become weaker, and the like, and a person should sleep as many hours as needed to be able to daven properly (instead, they encourage people to stay awake and avoid napping later in the day, as will be discussed). However, at whatever time you do awake, you should certainly get up immediately from bed (“Conquer [your yetzer] and rise like a lion”, as the Shulchan Aruch directs) and not fall back asleep.

Shema can be recited until 9:47 am.

Individuals in good health should not eat before hearing the shofar. Strictly according to the letter of the law, snacking on non-mezonos foods (or less than a *k'beitzah*⁸⁷ of mezonos) is allowed if there is a pressing need. Many practice leniency with regard to drinking. Many women are lenient as they are not formally obligated to hear shofar.

Do not blow the shofar or recite Musaf privately during the first three hours of the day (i.e., before the final time to recite Shema) unless it will be impossible for you to do so later in the day.⁸⁸

The one who blows the shofar for the congregation (or on mitvzoim) prepares in the morning by studying the maamar entitled L'havin Inyan Teki'as Shofar that is printed in the Siddur im Dach (and now also printed in many machzorim). Needless to say, he must also have familiarized himself with all of the laws of shofar blowing.

Before Shacharis, the congregation sings Avinu Malkeinu.

During Shacharis, add Shir hama'alos mima'amakim. If you forgot the Shir hama'alos, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

⁸⁶) Someone who is prone to headaches or other maladies from lack of sleep should still wake early and then find time to rest in the afternoon.

⁸⁷) The size of the k'beitzah is the volume of an egg, or two kezzeisim (olives)—each kezayis is the amount of food that fits into a small matchbox.

⁸⁸) Under the most pressing circumstances, it is permissible to blow shofar from alos hashachar (dawn)—if it would be impossible to blow after sunrise. See #17141

When opening the Aron in a crowded shul in the midst of the chazzan's repetition, the prohibition of crossing within four amos (about 6 feet) of any individual who is yet davening the Amidah, and thus possibly breaking his concentration, remains in force. Some permit passing or standing alongside them, but not to the point that you are standing face to face. The Zohar states that even passing alongside within four amos is prohibited. It is better to forgo opening the Aron at the appropriate times than to pass alongside a davener.⁸⁹

While the aron is open, it is proper to stand out of respect. If it is difficult to remain standing, however, you may be lenient when the sifrei Torah remain inside. (See the entry for Selichos earlier for more details.)

After chazaras hashatz, recite Avinu Malkeinu. This is continued throughout Aseres Yemei Teshuvah.

While reciting Avinu Malkeinu, take care to recite ro'agezar ("evil [aspect] of the decree") in one breath.

Hallel is not recited on Rosh Hashanah. Some authorities state that in the Era of Redemption, Hallel will indeed be recited on Rosh Hashanah.⁹⁰

Upon the opening of the Aron Hakodesh, recite Hashem, Hashem, Keil Rachum etc. three times, followed by Ribono shel olam.

Two sifrei Torah are used today. In the first, the story of Yitzchok's birth is read, since it begins with Hashem remembering Sarah on Rosh Hashanah. In the second Torah, Maftir is read from Parshas Pinchas (Uvachodesh hashevi'i). The Haftorah is from the start of the book of Shmuel (until veyaraim keren meshicho) because Chana's inability to conceive was similarly remedied on Rosh Hashanah. The honor of reading the Haftorah is granted to a person worthy of reverence.

In the blessings that follow the Haftorah, Yom Hazikaron is mentioned. If the one reading errs, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

SHOFAR PREPARATIONS

Before the shofar is blown, prepare yourself spiritually, mentally and emotionally; consciously intend to fulfill the obligation of hearing the shofar.

Prepare yourself during this time to serve Hashem throughout the entire coming year. This intention is an overall readiness to fulfill Hashem's will rather than the thought of specific acts.⁹¹

⁸⁹) However, it is standing practice to do this during chazaras hashatz even as the chazzan continues to pray regardless of whether the Aron is within his space or doing so necessitates passing right in front of him. There is halachic discourse that justifies this. See Hebrew footnotes.

⁹⁰) see Hebrew section for references.

⁹¹) See at length, Likkutei Sichos, vol. 39, pp. 43 ff.

ON YOUR MIND

The Baal Shem Tov once wrote the following instruction to his talmid, the Maggid of Mezritch: “During both of the sacred days of Rosh Hashanah, prior to sounding the shofar, you should picture my image in your mind, as well as the sacred image of my famed teacher (Achyiah Hashiloni) whom you once merited to see.”

SOUNDING THE SHOFAR

Do not respond Baruch hu uvaruch shemo to the blessings recited by the shofar blower.

At a minimum, listen to thirty complete blasts of the shofar.

A child who has reached the age of chinuch is obligated to hear the shofar.

It is customary to bring children to hear the sounding of the shofar. Do not bring young children to the men’s section of the shul if they might disturb the adults around them during the blowing of the shofar.

Those who require hearing aids may not use them to listen to the shofar. They should remove the hearing aids prior to the blowing of the shofar and move as close to the shofar-blower as possible, or have the shofar blown privately, and loud enough, to hear it without the use of hearing aids.

If it is not possible to hear the shofar even with the above, they should blow the shofar on their own. If they can hear their own blowing unassisted by electronic aids, they should say the brachos. If they cannot, they should still blow, but not say the brachos.

Someone with cochlear implants should likewise blow the shofar for themselves without a brachah.

The shevarim-teruah combinations in the first batch of thirty sounds (this set is referred to as tekiyos meyushav) are sounded in one breath, but with a slight pause between them. Chabad minhag calls for three-and-a-half shevarim.

Do not speak until the conclusion of all one hundred blasts (towards the end of Musaf), unless it is critical to the prayers or the blowing of the shofar.

SILENT EXCHANGE

“During the sounding of the shofar, teshuvah wells from the very depths of the heart,” the Frierdiker Rebbe says.⁹² “The pause between the sets of blasts, at which point one is instructed to engage in vidui b’lachash (silent confession),⁹³ is the stage at which one experiences an internal change from their present state of 92) Sefer Hasichos 5704, pp. 31, 41. See more sources in the Hebrew section.

93) It is implied from the Alter Rebbe’s Shulchan Aruch (584:2) that the instruction regarding silent confession applies only to the one sounding the shofar. For more on the debate regarding this issue, see Roshei Devarim of Yom Alef D’Rosh Hashanah 5729, and Leil Beis D’Rosh Hashanah 5731 (see there for another debate: whether the confession is to be verbalized or to remain in one’s thoughts). See Sichas Shabbos Parshas Ha’azinu 5733.

being to become something entirely different. Those who are unable to achieve this alone, through their own efforts in Divine service, should beg Hashem to make the change occur in them.

“The silent confession is the b’chein, the tangible results of the entire Divine service of teshuvah that began on Rosh Chodesh Elul and which led to an elaborate system of advance in teshuvah, stage after stage ... That is what the vidui b’lachash is all about. It is a highly advanced stage of teshuvah that expresses itself in desperate yearning, akin to that experienced by a child towards a parent for whom they desperately long. The non-silent form of teshuvah that is expressed in a tumult is the regret over the not-positive things that a person has done. But the silent confession is an innermost yearning for our Father.”

It is a long-established minhag that the shofar-blower shores up all his energy to extend the last blast, the big tekiah as long as possible, to his utmost limit.

Look at the individual blowing shofar after he concludes blowing.

MUSAF

Once the shofar blowing has concluded, we recite the verses of Ashrei ha’am, B’shimcha y’gilun, Ki sif’eres—followed by Ashrei yoshvei veisechah and Yehallelu, and then return the Torahs to the Aron.

During Musaf, recite Mi chamocho av harachamim and not harachaman. This follows the opinion of the Arizal and applies to every Musaf of Aseres Yemei Teshuvah, as well as Minchah of Shabbos and Ne’ilah.

See the chart at the back of the booklet for the laws that apply if you err in the Amidah.

Law of Redemption: Today’s Sacrifices

The following are the musaf offerings in the Beis Hamikdash in honor of Rosh Chodesh: two bulls, one ram, seven lambs as burnt-offerings, and one goat for a sin-offering, and the following in honor of Rosh Hashanah: one bull, one ram, seven lambs as burnt-offerings, and one goat for a sin-offering.

SHOFAR OF MUSAF

During Musaf, we sound another seventy blasts of the shofar, bringing the total to one hundred. These additional blasts are sounded during the silent Amidah (30), during the chazzan’s repetition (30) and during the Kaddish shaleim that follows (10).

During these additional seventy blasts (referred to as tekiyos me’umad), we sound the shevarim and teru’ah in two separate breaths.

Law of Redemption: New Order

In the Era of Redemption, we will no longer follow the current order of sounding the shofar, which calls for a set of blasts to be sounded after reciting verses that express malchiyos, Hashem’s kingship, and then again after zichronos, Hashem’s acts of remembrance, and finally, after shofros, verses that mention the sounding of the shofar. Rather, we will recite shofros alone.⁹⁴ (There may be other differences, see footnote.⁹⁵)

CHAZARAS HASHATZ

We bow on the floor in the recital of Aleinu during the chazzan’s repetition. If the floor is made of stone or stone tiles, place a cloth or something similar on the floor before bowing on it.

The Rebbe points out, “it is customary that when the chazzan reaches the words Teka b’shofar gadol l’cheiroseinu (‘Sound the great shofar for our freedom’), which refers to the great shofar of the Redemption, he raises his voice with particular effort—beyond the raised pitch at which he recites the blessings of Malchiyos and Zichronos, and even beyond the way he read the blessings of Shofros until reaching this verse.”⁹⁶

BIRCHAS KOHANIM

The Kohanim recite Birchas Kohanim. Listen with intention, and only say “Amein” once all the Kohanim have concluded each brachah.⁹⁷ You must face the duchan (stage or area where the Kohanim stand)—do not turn sideways or back. Someone who stands behind the duchan is not included in their blessing. While they recite it, the congregation should move their heads in the following sequence: Yivarechaha—head erect, Hashem—lean head to the right, v’yishmerecha—head erect; Ya’eir—lean head to left, and so on until shalom when the head is erect.

Recite the Ribono shel olam prayer only while the Kohanim are singing, but not when they pronounce the actual words. At that point, you must remain silent and listen carefully. The prayer is split into three parts: While the Kohanim sing before v’yaseim, recite from Ribono until hatzaddik. While they sing before lecha, recite from Ve’im until Elisha. While they sing before shalom, recite from Uk’sheim until l’tovah. Then, as they pronounce shalom, recite the three final words v’sishmereini, etc. Once the Kohanim conclude shalom, say “amein” followed by Adir bamarom, while still covered by the tallis.

94) Likkutei Torah

95) The shofar sounding itself may also be carried out rather differently. It could well be that since we will clarify the precise sounds that are required by Torah law, we will be able to dispense with the vast majority of the blasts we sound nowadays, which are done only out of doubt. However, the Zohar and the mekubalim state that, in fact, all of the sounds are necessary. Also, the trumpet blasts will then be sounded as well. For other differences, as well as references and a range of views on this topic, see the footnote in the Hebrew section.

96) Sichas Yom Beis D’Rosh Hashanah 5752.

97) The continuity of the singing accounts for inclusion of each Kohen’s blessing in your “amein” in this case. However, if a single Kohen is singing beyond the others’ conclusion, do not wait for him, but say “amein” immediately.

Those who have the custom of saying “Yasher koach” to the Kohanim should not do so until the end of the Kaddish tiskabel following Birchas Kohanim. Where this custom is prevalent, the Kohanim should not step down from the duchan until Kaddish is concluded, so they can properly respond.

CONCLUDING DAVENING

After the prayers have concluded, it is our custom to sound another thirty shofar blasts to “confuse the Satan.”

Sheish Zechiros (the daily Six Remembrances) are recited.

SEUDAH

For daytime Kiddush recite: (1) Tiku bachodesh... ki chok hu... and (2) Savri maranan... borei pri hagafen. We do not recite Askinu seudasa.

If you forgot to recite Shehechyanu last night during Kiddush, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

It is a mitzvah to eat, drink, and rejoice on Rosh Hashanah, nevertheless, we should not eat until complete satiation to avoid lightheadedness and to preserve our awe of Hashem throughout the day. In fact, the Friediker Rebbe cautions “to reduce the quantity of food and drink.”⁹⁸

On Rosh Hashanah, it is the Jewish custom to eat a large meal including meat, because at the beginning of the year it is a good omen to eat a large meal.⁹⁹

If you forgot to recite Retzei or Ya’aleh veyavo during Birchas Hamazon for the daytime seudah, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

ROSH HASHANAH AFTERNOON

It is customary to refrain from napping throughout the day. Idling time is equivalent to napping.

It is an ancient custom, on each Rosh Chodesh, to study one verse of the chapter of Tehillim that corresponds with the current years of a person’s life. The verse should be studied with the commentary of Rashi, and additional commentaries may be added as well. If the current chapter contains less than twelve verses, or in a leap year, when there are more than twelve months, verses that have been studied on a previous Rosh Chodesh should be studied a second time. Similarly, if the current chapter contains many verses, then two or three verses should be studied at once on each Rosh Chodesh of the year.

⁹⁸) The Friediker Rebbe’s Igros Kodesh, vol. 4, p. 416.

⁹⁹) As stated in halachic sources: “...for on this day we cannot do without meat, and everyone purchases it in honor of Yom Tov”; “Therefore, the Sages relied on the original law of the Torah on erev Yom Tov, that by paying the money one legally acquires the meat, without needing to take physical possession”; and “someone who sells an animal to another on erev Yom Tov must inform him if he has sold its mother or its child to be slaughtered (so that the second animal will not be slaughtered the same day).”

Regarding the above directive and Rosh Hashanah: On the one hand, it is a Rosh Chodesh custom, whereas we pointedly refrain from referring to Rosh Hashanah as a Rosh Chodesh and do not mention Rosh Chodesh in the prayers of the day. On the other hand, it would appear that Rosh Hashanah is included in this monthly study, since the custom speaks of twelve verses to be divided between every month of the year. There does not appear to be an explicit directive in this regard.

MIVTZA SHOFAR

We reach out to Jews who have not had the opportunity to hear the shofar. Preferably, the listener—who is fulfilling their obligation—should make the brachos, not the one who is blowing (who already heard the shofar earlier). If there is a group of people, one participant should make the brachos for all of them. If the listener does not know how to make the brachah, the one blowing can make the brachos, provided that there is at least one man who needs to hear the shofar. A man blowing should not make the brachos solely for women.

Regarding bochurim going on mitvzoim and sounding the shofar: It is preferable to be stringent and to not allow a boy who is not an adult according to Torah law (by having sprouted two pubic hairs) to perform this mitzvah on behalf of others.¹⁰⁰

On each occasion that we blow shofar for a fellow Jew, we must sound a complete set of thirty blasts, even if by doing so, extra time is spent that could potentially be used to seek out others. These are:

Tekiah; shevarim-teruah; tekiah

tekiah; shevarim-teruah; tekiah

tekiah; shevarim-teruah; tekiah.

Tekiah; shevarim; tekiah

tekiah; shevarim; tekiah

tekiah; shevarim; tekiah.

Tekiah; teruah; tekiah

tekiah; teruah; tekiah gedolah.

It is entirely unacceptable to merely sound tekiah, shevarim-teruah, tekiah three times, with the stipulation that whichever notes are not required according to the strict letter of the law will be considered mere musical entertainment. This is not satisfactory for a large variety of reasons.¹⁰¹

¹⁰⁰) Mateh Efraim, 589:7. Whether a child younger than that, but over bar mitzvah, could sound the shofar on behalf of others on the second day of Rosh Hashanah, when the requirement of shofar is Rabbinical in nature, is a matter of debate.

¹⁰¹) See the Hebrew section of this publication for detailed references.

If it is absolutely impossible to sound thirty blasts in a particular instance, ten blasts may be sounded, but without reciting a blessing. These are:

Tekiah; shevarim-teruah; tekiah.

tekiah; teruah; tekiah gedolah.

The mitzvah of sounding the shofar is fulfilled at any time during the day, from sunrise (neitz hachamah) until nightfall (tzeis hakochavim). However, someone who does so after sunset (shki'ah) should not recite the blessings.

MINCHAH & TASHLICH

We recite Korbanos; Ashrei and Uva l'Tziyon; Amidah for Rosh Hashanah; Aveinu Malkeinu; L'Dovid Hashem Ori; and Aleinu. Information on when and how to rectify any errors during davening can be found in the chart at the end of the booklet.

After Minchah—but before sunset—go to a spring or other natural source of water that contains live fish in order to recite Tashlich. The fish should be visible. Following Tashlich, shake the corners of your tallis katan.

A number of halachic authorities caution that women should not perform Tashlich where men are assembled.

UP & OUT

On the first day of Rosh Hashanah in the year 5507 (1746), the Baal Shem Tov experienced an ascent of soul into the highest Heavenly realms. He entered the palace of Moshiach and asked him, “When will the Master come?!” King Moshiach replied, “When your teachings will become known and revealed throughout the world; when your wellsprings, what I have taught you and you have understood, will have spread outward.”

LATE AFTERNOON

It is forbidden to prepare anything on the first day of Rosh Hashanah for the second day of Rosh Hashanah until nightfall—at 7:15 pm. According to the Alter Rebbe, we may not request a non-Jew to perform such activities either.¹⁰²

Cooked meat or other foods should not be removed from the freezer today for the sake of having them defrost in time to use on the second day of Rosh Hashanah.¹⁰³ If cooking for today, ensure that the food is ready for consumption before shki'ah (6:34 pm).

If an animal was milked or an egg was laid on the first day of Rosh Hashanah, the ¹⁰² See Hebrew halachos for extensive references on this topic.

¹⁰³ It is permitted to remove it from the freezer early enough in the day that it will have time to defrost and could technically be used that same day.

milk or egg cannot be consumed on Rosh Hashanah—neither on the first nor on the second day of the holiday.

THURSDAY NIGHT, 2ND NIGHT OF ROSH HASHANAH

Today is the yahrtzeit of Rebbetzin Sheina Horenstein, daughter of the Frierdiker Rebbe, who was led to the gas chambers in Treblinka on this day in 5703 (1942). The Rebbe would say Kaddish for her on this day.

CONTINUOUS DAY

The two days of Rosh Hashanah are considered yoma arichta—“one long day” and are uniform in holiness, unlike other two-day yomim tovim.¹⁰⁴ This has halachic consequence: An egg that was laid on the first day—likewise vegetation detached from its root or an animal that has become entrapped—is equally prohibited on the second day as the first by the law of nolad (something that is muktzah on account of having come into being or changed in function on Yom Tov).¹⁰⁵

Chassidic sources explain that the nighttime of Rosh Hashanah also takes on the character of the “long day” in a manner of “night is illuminated like daytime” and darkness and concealment are altogether purged. This is similar to the circumstances of the first Rosh Hashanah, the day that Adam Harishon was created, after which the world remained bright for thirty-six hours (until motzoei Shabbos).¹⁰⁶ This is why it is the custom to sleep less than usual on Rosh Hashanah.

“One long day” also manifests in the way Rosh Hashanah introduces a force that is higher than time and its fluctuations by taking the continuance of two and making it one. This creates a reality that supersedes time while still existing within time. A parallel aspect, Chassidus explains, is found in Rosh Hashanah’s quality as a quantitatively short span (just forty-eight hours) of what is truly a much greater scope (for Rosh Hashanah contains the potential for the entire year). This expresses itself also superficially, that Rosh Hashanah expands temporally into one long day. This demonstrates the great value we must put into every moment of Rosh Hashanah.

“Rosh Hashanah is a whole year long,” the Frierdiker Rebbe says.¹⁰⁷ “We must utilize this ‘prolonged day’ of the two days of Rosh Hashanah to be completely 104) For an explanation of why it is still forbidden to cook on the first day for the second, see the Hebrew footnote.

105) Roshei Devarim of Sichas Yom Beis D'Rosh Hashanah 5712: Rosh Hashanah is the “rosh” (head) of the year for it gives life to all its days as a whole. However, each day has its explicit lifeforce, and in this count, Rosh Hashanah’s two days are included (as the head is also its own organ); it is in this aspect that the second day of Rosh Hashanah has its distinct identity as an independent day. When we awake that morning, we say the morning brachos as on any day—we don’t consider the sleep of the first night as a “nap” in the middle of “one long day”.

106) At which time “light and dark existed in a muddle”, so that we can contain both affirmative and negative emotions simultaneously: love/awe; joy/bitterness etc. This is because Rosh Hashanah reveals our character on its deepest, most essential level where the divisive qualities of distinct traits do not exist.

107) Sefer Hasichos 5701, p. 26 occupied with tefillah and the words of Torah. The avodah of the forty-eight hours of Rosh Hashanah nullify the evil Cham (חמ—‘hot’, numerically 48) and transposes the passion of kelipah and a person’s natural excitement into a fervor for Torah, davening, and good character.”

MAARIV

We recite Tehillim before Maariv. It is common to sing the niggun of Avinu Malkeinu before Maariv, as has been the usual practice in 770 over the years.

“Perhaps we should wish each other l’shanah tovah tikaseiv v’seichaseim on the second night of Rosh Hashanah as well,” the Rebbe has said.¹⁰⁸

CANDLE LIGHTING

Light the Yom Tov candles after—not before—7:15 pm, taking a flame from a fire source that was lit before the onset of Rosh Hashanah.

Note that tonight (unlike the second day of a regular Yom Tov) candles should be lit immediately before Kiddush, so the new fruit can be eaten as close as possible to the recitation of Shehecheyanu.

PREPARING TO LIGHT

When setting up candles on Yom Tov, do not warm the base of a candle to stick it in its holder. This is prohibited as a precaution, so that you will not come to directly smooth out or straighten the bottom of the wax candle, transgressing the prohibition of memareach (spreading). Similarly, do not trim the bottom of a candle to insert it more easily into its holder. This would violate the prohibition of mechateich (cutting to shape or size). However, you may firmly press a candle into its position in the holder, even if this will cause its base to erode somewhat to fit the holder—this action is not considered mechateich.

Technically, you may clean out a used candle holder on Yom Tov without fear of violating the prohibition of mesken kli (fixing an article) on Yom Tov. Similarly, if using Neironim, you may clean a used glass holder from the metal tab that held the used wick in order to insert a new candle in its place. There is an issue, however, of muktzah with the remnants of used wax, charred wicks, or spent tabs.¹⁰⁹

The solution, if you are using wax candles, is to suspend the holder over to the garbage (since the glass holder is not *muktzah*¹¹⁰), and shake it out so that the

108) Sefer Hasichos 5751

109) This is especially an issue nowadays, when such items are considered disposable and will not be reused. Even in pre-modern times, when such materials were indeed reused, moving them was somewhat problematic. As the Alter Rebbe explains, “Although according to the strict letter of the law these items are not muktzah, it is appropriate to be careful not to move them unless for great need.” It is prohibited to move them even for the sake of food preparation.

110) for reasons beyond the scope of this publication.

remnants of wax and wick fall directly into the garbage can. If it cannot be removed through shaking, or if the spent tab has become stuck to the base of the glass holder so that it cannot be removed without prying it out with a pointy object, you may not do so during Yom Tov. There is no difference in this case between using a knife and using your fingers—the issue of muktzah remains. You may however remove it with a shinui (change), using an item which is not normally used in this way. The preferred solution is to think ahead (as mentioned earlier) and pour a small quantity of water or oil into the holder on erev Yom Tov, which will prevent the tab from sticking to the glass in the first place. This would enable you to take the holder to the garbage can during Yom Tov and to empty its contents directly into the garbage.

NO PRE-EXISTING FLAME?

Someone who forgot to light the gas burner or a long-lasting candle before the start of Yom Tov is permitted to ask a non-Jew to light it now.

If obtaining a flame for lighting from a neighbor, these precautions apply: Carry burning liquid paraffin (or an oil lamp) in a steady hand and walk slowly to prevent it from lashing out. Do not carry any open flame outdoors, since a sudden breeze can put it out; protect the flame by placing the candle in an appropriate vessel with tall sides and enough air circulation for it to remain lit in transport.¹¹¹

Some are careful to avoid using a Yom Tov candle to light the gas burner or another flame that is not specifically for Yom Tov.

If using a match to light from the pre-existing flame, be sure to lay it down where it can burn out safely on its own; remember not to extinguish it on Yom Tov.

Recite two blessings over the candles: (1) I'hadlik ner shel yom hazikaron and (2) Shehechyanu.

If you accidentally did not recite the appropriate brachah or if you forgot to recite Shehechyanu, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

During the recitation of Shehechyanu, either wear a new garment or gaze at a new fruit that will be eaten immediately after Kiddush. If neither of these are available, Shehechyanu is nevertheless recited.

KIDDUSH

Recite the same Kiddush as last night of Rosh Hashanah, including Shehechyanu.

During the recital of Shehechyanu, gaze at a new fruit. Shehechyanu is recited even if no such fruit is present.

¹¹¹) See more (in Hebrew): www.asktherav.com #28604.

Immediately after Kiddush, before washing your hands for Hamotzi, eat the new fruit. Remember to recite ha'eitz before eating the fruit. Eat enough to recite the brachah acharonah for the fruit (but do not recite the brachah acharonah on the wine of Kiddush).

Women and girls who already recited Shehechyanu during candle lighting should not repeat the blessing now over the new fruit. This is true only if they intended to include the new fruit while reciting Shehechyanu during candle lighting and that the new fruit was actually present before them at the time of that blessing. If these two conditions were not met, they should recite Shehechyanu again now over the new fruit.

It is a universal practice that those who listen to someone reciting Kiddush on their behalf do not rely on that person's recital of Shehechyanu during Kiddush as far as the new fruit is concerned. Rather, each individual recites their own Shehechyanu over the new fruit (along with the appropriate blessing for that species). This is done as a good siman (sign) for the new year.

Bentching: Birchas Hamazon is recited as on the first day of Rosh Hashanah.

FRIDAY, 2 TISHREI, 2ND DAY OF ROSH HASHANAH

Shema can be recited until 9:47 am.

EREV SHABBOS

Today is Rosh Hashanah, but it is also erev Shabbos. Halachic sources state that a person should rise earlier in the morning on erev Shabbos to toil for and prepare their Shabbos needs. Then despite having made these early preps, it is an additional mitzvah to add even more later in the day toward evening, before going to shul to daven. This halachah applies to everyone; even those wealthy enough to hire out all household work, or those with prestigious positions in the community who normally do not run errands or do chores, should do something in preparation for the holy day.

DAVENING

Shacharis is the same as that of the first day of Rosh Hashanah, but today we have the obligation not to tarry so we have time to prepare for Shabbos—though not to the extent of davening hurriedly.

If you made any errors in any of the tefillos, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

The Torah portion of the Akeidah is read in order to invoke its merit in our favor. Today's Maftir is identical to yesterday's. The Haftorah is from Yirmiyahu (Ko amar... habein yakir...), due to the obligation to recite verses of remembrances today (in this case: "Is Ephraim not My beloved son ... whenever I speak of him, I recall him even more....").

The minhag of our Rebbeim is to silently and discreetly recite Yizkor on the second day of Rosh Hashanah. Each person can decide for themselves whether to follow suit.

To the Shofar Blower: Ideally, the one blowing (and reciting Shehecheyanu) should wear a new garment.¹¹²

Musaf is the same as that of the first day of Rosh Hashanah.

YOM TOV AFTERNOON

Kiddush, the meal, and Birchas Hamazon is the same as on the first day of Rosh Hashanah.

If you forgot to recite Shehecheyanu last night during Kiddush, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

Mivtza Shofar: We reach out to Jews who have not had the opportunity to hear the shofar. See the details regarding how to recite the brachos and which sounds to blow in the entry for the afternoon of the first day of Rosh Hashanah.

It is forbidden to blow the shofar needlessly on Rosh Hashanah.

Make sure not to carry the shofar in a public domain once Shabbos starts. It is best to put away your shofar before Shabbos, as it is muktzah.

Review Parshas Haazinu with shnayim mikra v'echad targum in the afternoon, together with the Haftorah for Shabbos Shuvah. Some have the custom of reading the Haftorah for Parshas Haazinu that begins Vayedaber Dovid.

PERSONAL HYGIENE ON YOM TOV

Halachic sources prohibit the use of hot water to wash any part of your body in a bathhouse. Nowadays, this would apply to using the shower at home. You are permitted, however, to heat a small amount of water in order to wash your face, hands, or feet on Yom Tov outside the shower, or to wash those parts with cold water.¹¹³

112) Even a new tallis katan suffices—see #23564 for discussion and sources.

113) If you heated up water to wash your extremities (or heated it prior to Yom Tov, or on Yom Tov for food prep)—and you have left over, you may use it for other parts of the body—but you may not wash your entire body at once, and, as stated above, should not do so in the shower. You may not wash in a public arena—like the men's mikveh—with hot or cold water at all.

114) A number of halachic sources consider even the water sitting in the boiler to be “water heated on Yom Tov”. Since water is constantly being fed to the boiler on Yom Tov itself as the water sitting there from erev Yom Tov is depleted, many modern authorities deem all water in the boiler to be considered as such, and are strict with regard to turning on the hot water tap to shower the entire body, even limb by limb. This serves also as a precaution against using water actually heated on Yom Tov. In extreme situations, where an individual is under the weather and showering is necessary to alleviate pain, they may use water preheated

It is the widespread practice to avoid utilizing even cold water to shower on Shabbos and also Yom Tov. You may however do so in a manner where you are washing just your extremities or limb by limb—but not all at once. If you do so, make sure to avoid squeezing water from your hair. A person who is truly suffering from the lack of a shower, such as someone who sweats profusely, or is susceptible to heat rash, can wash even their entire body in cold water (or warm water that was heated before Yom Tov as long as it is slightly cooler than normal), being careful not to squeeze water from their hair.

When washing in the permitted manner, you may not use bar soap. Liquid soap may be used,¹¹⁵ but not on hair as you may inadvertently squeeze it out.

MINCHAH

Pasach Eliyahu and Yedid Nefesh are recited before Minchah, but not Hodu. This is followed by Korbonos, Ashrei, Uva l'tziyon, and the Amidah for Rosh Hashanah.

Avinu Malkeinu is not said; Le'dovid Hashem Ori and Aleinu are recited.

SHABBOS PREP

All foods cooked for Shabbos must be completed well in advance of Shabbos, so that they could be eaten today if necessary—on erev Shabbos. Otherwise, it is forbidden to prepare for Shabbos during Yom Tov. Although half-cooked food may also be considered fully cooked for this purpose, it is preferable not to rely on this leniency. Indeed, the Alter Rebbe records an ancient custom of praying Maariv uncharacteristically early when Yom Tov occurs on erev Shabbos, in order to force the conclusion of food preparation with enough time for the meal to be cooked before the onset of Shabbos.

Once cooked, be sure to set up the food on the blech or platta, add water to the kettle (if permitted), and perform any other necessary food-preparation tasks that are yet allowed on Yom Tov, but forbidden on Shabbos.

The eiruv tavshilin only facilitates food preparation, including washing dishes and the like, and even lighting the candles. But it does not allow other preparations such as folding a tallis or preparing a sefer Torah on Yom Tov for Shabbos.

Immersing in a mikveh on Yom Tov for the sake of the approaching Shabbos is a matter of much debate.¹¹⁶

CANDLE LIGHTING

To prepare the Shabbos candles in a manner permitted on Yom Tov, see erev Yom Tov to wash their entire body outside the shower. See #23190; also #376

115) Some are stringent to add water before Yom Tov. This is not necessary if the soap is non-viscous (runny, i.e., flows quickly). See #4116.

116) Note the statement in Hemshech Tof-Reish-Samech-Vav: “Similarly, immersion in a mikveh is necessary to proceed from the sanctity of Yom Tov to the sanctity of Shabbos, as is recorded in the writings of the Arizal.”

instructions earlier in the entry right before the second night of Rosh Hashanah.

Those who have the custom to light a teshuvah light on the eve of Shabbos Shuvah should ideally have lit a long-lasting candle on erev Yom Tov. If you neglected to do so, you may light one today only in the place where your Shabbos candles are already being lit (and will therefore provide the added benefit of enhancing the atmosphere of the Shabbos table).

Light candles today at 6:13 pm (18 minutes before sunset) from the fire or long-lasting candle kindled on erev Yom Tov. If the flame has been extinguished since, see the entry for the second night of Rosh Hashanah for solutions.

DRAWN IN

The Rebbe writes: “My revered father-in-law, the (Friediker) Rebbe, once related the following: ‘On the second day of Rosh Hashanah, my father (the Rebbe Rashab) would continue delivering his maamar until it was night. The reason: he wanted to draw down into the material world, represented by the onset of motzoei Yom Tov, all [the influx of spiritual light] that had been brought down during the forty-eight hours of Rosh Hashanah—so that the light of Chassidus should illuminate the world in all its aspects, and be perceptible within it.’

“And I, for my part, would like to suggest that each and every individual should do likewise, fusing the hours of Rosh Hashanah with the following weekday hours through the study of Chassidus. Then, by virtue of—and through—the path that our Rebbeim have paved for us, the light of Chassidus will be drawn down for us, too, all the way down into the most material of our activities.”

It is customary to join the final moments of Rosh Hashanah and the initial moments of motzoei Rosh Hashanah in the study of Chassidus.

Law of Redemption: Preparations Start Now

Towards evening (according to some opinions—the following morning), the Kohen Gadol leaves his house and does not return until after completing his Yom Kippur service. From this point on, he remains in the Lishkas Parhedrin in the Beis Hamikdash, undertaking haza'ah (sprinkling) ceremonies associated with his purity process on the third and seventh days of his isolation.

It is a mitzvah to check your pockets before Shabbos to make sure that you will not inadvertently carry in the public domain on Shabbos. This is especially important when you have been wearing your Shabbos clothing during Rosh Hashanah, when carrying was permitted.

LAW OF REDEMPTION: SHOFAR AGAIN

During the times of the Beis Hamikdash, today, the shofar is blown toward the end of the day—to announce the advent of Shabbos. The usual havdalah signaling the end of Yom Tov is not recited due to the onset of Shabbos.

FRIDAY NIGHT, SHABBOS SHUVAH (TESHUVAH), 3 TISHREI

Parshas Haazinu

Today is the yahrtzeit of Rebbetzin Devorah Leah, daughter of the Alter Rebbe, mother of the Tzemach Tzedek. She passed away in the year 5553 (1792).

ONE WEEK, A YEAR

In numerous sichos, the Rebbe mentions that each of the seven days between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur directly correspond to the seven days of every week. In other words, these seven days function as the most opportune time to correct and/or complete that which demands repair or requires improvement from each of the seven days of the week of the outgoing year. It is simultaneously the time to prepare for every one of the seven days of the week of the year that has just begun.

HEAD A-HEAD

What is so special about this Shabbos? There are many sources explaining the unique qualities of this first Shabbos of the year. The days between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur comprise a full week, and we learn that each specific day has the potential to atone for the past year's day and to affect all the days of the coming year. When it comes to Shabbos, which in itself is cumulative of the week past (as it says in the possuk: Veyechulu—and it was completed) and a boon for the week ahead ('from Shabbos, all the days are blessed', the Zohar says), it is a day that can influence the entire year! In other words: This is the "head" Shabbos of all the Shabbosim of the year, and every Shabbos is the head of the week, so today is the "head's head"!

Shabbos Shuvah, in fact, has an advantage over the High Holidays. For if Shabbos blesses the entire past week and the coming week as well, Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur are included in that sphere of influence. Even the potential for teshuvah on the holiest day of the year is sourced in the teshuvah of Shabbos Shuvah!

SOLID TESHUVAH

You might say, Yom Kippur is called Shabbos Shabbason—the utmost perfection of Shabbos. How can today be greater? Chassidus explains that the light of Hashem that shines on Yom Kippur is sourced in the inner dimension of Atik. This manifests in the attribute of Ta'anug—pleasure, so Yom Kippur is p'nimius hata'anug (the inner aspect of pleasure). Now, in the halachic sense, only Shabbos is connected in any way to pleasure, as it says, "you shall call Shabbos oneg"—but despite its seeming elevated hierarchy, the same is not said about Yom Kippur. In fact, it is Purim, deemed higher than Yom Kippur itself (it is named Yom Hakippurim—"the day that is like Purim"), when it is the ultimate mitzvah to partake in "feasting and joy" and all sorts of physical enjoyment ("you are required to become inebriated on Purim..."). Yom Kippur is the direct opposite—a Jew stands higher than physicality, expressly denying themselves food and drink and pleasures of the flesh.

It is this difference—the actual partaking of physical delights that elevates the teshuvah of Shabbos Shuvah even over Yom Kippur. On Yom Kippur, we are compared to the Heavenly angels, far removed from the vicissitudes of the corporeal, and on Shabbos Shuvah we are engaged with the pleasures of the physical world in all the forms that are forbidden on Yom Kippur. Even during the rest of Aseres Yemei Teshuvah, there are those who fast. On Rosh Hashanah, though we are forbidden from fasting, there is a specific way that it is permitted to fast (during the day, only eating at night). But on Shabbos, we are commanded to take pleasure with rich meat and vintage wines! So on Shabbos Shuvah, unlike Yom Kippur, Rosh Hashanah, or even the rest of the days in between them, we are able to extend our avodah of teshuvah to all aspects of the physical world.

Shabbos, in general, is described as a time of teshuvah ila'ah—not mere repentance for wrongdoing, connected with our character and actions—but even absent any sin, we are motivated to “return” and have our soul become closer to our G-dly source. So another aspect of the advantage of Shabbos Shuvah is that it is the source from which we obtain the potential to practice teshuvah ila'ah on every other Shabbos of the year. More specifically: although the entire period of Aseres Yemei Teshuvah is connected with this lofty level of teshuvah ila'ah, the weekdays primarily deal with weekdays of the past year and the new year, and therefore this is not the true and complete expression of teshuvah ila'ah. For the epitome of the soul-level teshuvah, we must tap into the energy of the Shabbos within Aseres Yemei Teshuvah—Shabbos Shuvah.

MAARIV

We begin Maariv with mizmor le'David. In lecha dodi...bo'i beshalom, the word “b'simcha” is not said.

Remember to include the additions for Aseres Yemei Teshuvah in the Amidah.

Hamelech Hakadosh is recited in the blessing of Magen avos that is recited after the Maariv Amidah.

If any errors were made during Maariv (including the chazzan's brachah) see the chart at the end of the booklet.

It is best to wait until one of the Shabbos meals to eat the challah used in the eiruv tavshilin, because it is appropriate to reuse an item used for a mitzvah to perform another mitzvah. Some wait until the third meal of Shabbos. (This is the basis for the custom to farbreng at specifically that time in this calendar setup—see more details below.) They use the challah as lechem mishneh for the first two meals of Shabbos. It is obvious that the same would apply to the cooked food used in the eiruv.

SHACHARIS & MUSAF

Avinu Malkeinu is not recited because requests for personal needs are forbidden on Shabbos.

It is reported that when the sefer Torah was removed from the Aron Hakodesh during Shacharis on Shabbos Shuvah, the Rebbe would recite the Yamim Nora'im phrase of “Kadosh Venora Shemo.”

The breaks in the aliyos in this parshah has a mnemonic to follow called haziv lach (הזי"ו ל"ך), each letter indicating the letter that begins each of the seven parts.

Some make a point of only calling an esteemed individual to Maftir on this Shabbos.

Recite Av harachamim following the reading of the Torah.

During Musaf, recite Mi chamocha av harachamim and not harachaman. This follows the opinion of the Arizal and applies in Minchah of Shabbos as well.

SHABBOS AFTERNOON

If you forgot Retzei in bentching, or made any other errors in today's tefillos, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

FARBRENG TWICE

“It has become customary,” the Rebbe said in 5748, when the calendar setup mirrored this year's, “that when Shabbos Shuvah immediately follows Rosh Hashanah, two farbrengens are held: One is for Shabbos Shuvah, (held at its regular time), and the second (at the end of the day), as a continuation of the farbrengen of Rosh Hashanah, where we can draw further enlightenment on all the subjects associated with Rosh Hashanah.

LAW OF REDEMPTION: SEVEN PREPARATORY DAYS

For seven days (starting today), the Kohen Gadol is personally involved in sprinkling the blood of the daily karbanos, offering incense, trimming the lamps and burning the parts of the daily tamid offerings in order to become accustomed to the Yom Kippur service. Each day, the elders of Beis Din read to him and teach him the order of the Yom Kippur service. They would say to him: “Read yourself with your own mouth; perhaps you have forgotten.”

During Minchah, the Torah portion of Vezos Habrachah is read. Recite Tzidkascha following the Amidah of Minchah.

Beginning this week, Pirkei Avos is no longer said.

TRIPLES

In a public letter dated 6 Tishrei, 5751 (with the same calendar setup as this year), it says: This year, the parshah of Vezos habrachah asher berach Moshe is learned and reviewed three times (throughout three weeks), which demonstrates a very great increase in the brachos that are being especially given for this year.¹¹⁷

¹¹⁷ In the footnote there it adds: Perhaps we can say that the number 3 represents three holinesses—the constant holiness of the Jewish people, that of Shabbos, and of Yom Tov (called ‘holy’). And more specifically,

3RD MEAL

The Rebbe explains¹¹⁸ the connection of the eiruv tavshilin and seudah shlishis, the meal at which many have the custom to partake of the eiruv. And further,¹¹⁹ this is why the Shabbos farbrengen that evolves as a continuation of Yom Tov (at those times when one immediately follows the other) is arranged for the time when seudah shlishis is eaten.

On Shabbos Shuvah, 5748, when the calendar setup was identical to this year's, the Rebbe explained at length that when the Shabbos after Rosh Hashanah follows Yom Tov without a break, it is to be considered a steady delineation—and actually at one—with Rosh Hashanah itself, inasmuch as all three days form a continuous timespan and represent one essential point. The Rebbe expounds there on this theme and also how it expresses itself in practical Halachah.

FARBRENGEN & SEUDAH

It is recorded in Sefer Haminhagim: “Before nightfall on the second day of Rosh Hashanah, it is the custom of the Rebbe shlita to wash his hands for a meal, in the course of which he delivers a maamar. This is followed by Birchas Hamazon, Maariv, Havdalah, and the distribution of wine to all those present from kos shel brachah, the cup over which the blessings of Birchas Hamazon were recited.”

In a setup like this year, the farbrengen and seudah are rescheduled for today, Shabbos Shuvah, and held directly after Minchah.

At the farbrengen, the niggunim of all the Rebbeim are sung—making mention of each of them before singing their respective niggun.

It is customary to wash for bread before shki'ah today, eating a meal that includes at least a k'beitzah of bread. It is worthy to do so on two loaves (following the stricter halachic opinion requiring lechem mishneh on Shabbos, regardless of how many times you eat a meal). If you do not have two, make the brachah on at least one complete loaf or roll.

Birchas Hamazon for a meal that extends into night time (even by many hours) on motzoei Shabbos includes the recital of Retzei, for the status of the seudah depends on when it began, not when it ends. However, if you said Shema or Havdalah (in Maariv or on a cup of wine), you may not recite it. If you forgot to mention Shabbos in bentching in this unique circumstance, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

there are 20 days until Simchas Torah, and including the reading of Vezos habrachah at Minchah of the previous Shabbos, it is 21 days—numerically equivalent to the word ach (אך)—and then refers to where it states in a previous note about the 3 letters of the name Chana (חנה) and its association with the word ach. See also Sefer Hasichos 5751, vol. 2, p. 833, where it connects this idea with the fact that the theme of the whole year is related to the number 3. See also ibid., vol. 1, p. 25, where it mentions the 3rd of Tishrei in this connection.

118) Likkutei Sichos, vol. 16, p. 191 in the margin

119) At the second sichah of the farbrengen of Shabbos Bereishis (immediately following Simchas Torah) 5718

As previously disseminated in a public announcement by the Badatz, the farbrengen should not be digitally recorded (audio, video or photos) until after Maariv is recited.

MOTZOEI SHABBOS SHUVAH

Shabbos ends at 7:11 pm.

In Maariv, the additions for the Aseres Yemei Teshuvah are said, as well as Atah chonantanu and (for the first time) hamelech hamishpat. For the laws about someone who forgets these additions, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

Vih no'am and Ve'atah Kadosh are recited on this motzoei Shabbos.

Recite Havdalah over wine, spices, and a flame, followed by Veyiten lecha.

Even if you usually make do with fruit or other light refreshment on motzoei Shabbos, you should nevertheless spread a tablecloth and eat at least a kezayis of bread for melaveh malka tonight. This should indeed be done every motzoei Shabbos but especially during Aseres Yemei Teshuvah, a time to put extra effort into each mitzvah.

Before any fast day when we are permitted to eat on the night preceding the fast, such as tonight—the eve of Tzom Gedaliah—an individual may eat and drink all the way until the crack of dawn, as long as they have not retired for the night (even if they do take a brief nap). Someone who wishes to go to sleep for the night and then rise before dawn to eat or drink must make that condition before retiring. However, anyone who usually follows such a schedule on an ordinary day—rising before dawn to eat or drink—does not need to stipulate before going to sleep tonight.

WAIVED!

On the eve of the 10th of Teves 5752, the Rebbe explains that the suspension of the fast until morning symbolizes the power that is granted to reverse the negative events that the fast day commemorates. It is an auspicious time for teshuvah that will bring the Redemption, and a night of opportunity to forever nullify the fast before it ever begins. The Rebbe pointed out that the night stretches for a number of hours, which offers ample time for teshuvah.

ASERES YEMEI TESHUVAH

Throughout the Aseres Yemei Teshuvah, every person scrutinizes their conduct over the past year and amends their ways in the spirit of teshuvah. When privately recounting our actions, we can learn from the laws of the relative value of sacrifices¹²⁰: “the suspicion of sin requires more teshuvah than a definite sin.”

¹²⁰ The cost of an asham tolui (offered when a person is not certain of having sinned) is double that of a

During this time, we should be punctilious to observe extra stringencies, even if these stringencies are not observed throughout the year, being especially careful regarding kashrus.

Someone who has not arranged for the annulment of his vows on erev Rosh Hashanah should do so during these days.

LULAV & ESROG

Those who are eager to perform mitzvos use this earliest opportunity to purchase their set of arba minim—unless they are able to acquire better quality minim by waiting until after Yom Kippur.

Make certain that the minim you buy are entirely kosher and also mehudar; buy an esrog that has not been grafted, without a doubt. Buy your minim only from reputable vendors who are known to be scrupulous in their observance of mitzvos. The minim to be used on the first day of Sukkos, including aravos, may not be purchased from a minor.¹²¹ See the entry for Sukkos Prep in Part Two of the guide.

FASTING SHAALOS

If you are unsure whether you are obligated in the Yom Kippur fast (due to illness, giving birth, or any other reason) ask a Rav well in advance.

As a matter of principle, a person who is weak and cannot fast the entire day unless they remain in bed throughout Yom Kippur, should not attempt to attend the Yom Kippur services in shul, or even to pray at home, if this will result in needing to eat or drink (even if eating or drinking shiurim, very small amounts at a time, as prescribed for patients who must break the fast due to danger). What Hashem asks of them is to lay in bed and fast! Indeed, Hashem prefers that an individual spend Yom Kippur at home in an air-conditioned room and in a comfortable bed and to fast the entire day, rather than push themselves to attend shul, thereby exhausting themselves and increasing hunger to a medically harmful degree that requires food or drink to correct (even once and in a minimal quantity). Attending shul and praying with a minyan is secondary to the mitzva min hatorah (biblical commandment) to fast for the full duration of Yom Kippur.

A new mother: A woman within the first three days of giving birth need not fast on Yom Kippur. Within seven days of birth, a Rav must be consulted. After this period, a woman must fast as normal, even though she is particularly likely to be severely weak.

An expectant or nursing mother is only exempt from fasting under life-threatening conditions. In a low-risk pregnancy, fast as normal unless it starts to regular sin-offering.

¹²¹ The detailed laws are recorded in the Alter Rebbe's Shulchan Aruch (645-9).

cause intense headaches, dehydration, extreme dizziness or the like. Great care should be taken to avoid situations where the fast may need to be broken, even to the extent of staying in bed all day at the expense of davening or other holy pursuits. A husband should stay home from shul to assist his wife, should this practically make a difference to her ability to consummate her fast. If, even with all these precautions, a woman feels her health has deteriorated to the point of danger—and certainly if she may faint from lack of fluids or nutrition—she breaks her fast (making the assessment of her well-being on her own in the moment, without consulting a Rav) by using shiurim—minute quantities of food and drink imbibed at prescribed intervals (see details below in the footnote at the beginning of the Yom Kippur section).

A woman in active labor may eat and drink, if allowed to do so by her doctor. All expectant women should consult their health practitioners ahead of the fast for guidance concerning potential issues.

If you require daily medication, it is advisable to schedule your dosages in the days leading up to Yom Kippur in such a manner that will allow you to ingest a dose immediately before the onset of the fast—and to then take the next dose immediately after the conclusion of the fast.

If this cannot be done and you must take the medication on the actual day of Yom Kippur, consult a Rav ahead of time as to the appropriate method.

SUNDAY, 4 TISHREI, TZOM GEDALIAH (NIDCHEH)

Day of Rejoicing-to-Be

The third of Tishrei is Tzom Gedaliah, a fast day marking the assassination of Gedaliah ben Achikam. Chazal consider his assassination a tragedy equal to the destruction of the Beis Hamikdash.

Due to Shabbos, the fast is delayed this year to Sunday, 4 Tishrei.

The Rebbe explains that when the third of Tishrei falls on Shabbos and the fast is nidcheh (delayed), it is different than a normal year on many levels: it is more serious, because a day of fasting follows three days of rest and pleasure; it also is greater, due to its added connection to Yom Kippur (see the sichah inside at length); and it is better revealed how it will be pushed off completely when Moshiach comes, since Tzom Gedaliah is already a nidcheh (Gedaliah's assassination was on the second day of Rosh Hashanah), and this year is a double nidcheh.¹²²

The nevi'im established fasts on the days that tragedies occurred to our nation. Poskim write that these fast days require each person to examine their (negative) deeds and repent—for the purpose of the fast is to sensitize our hearts and lead to teshuvah, and not the mere act of fasting alone. Taking trips or wiling away the fast day in frivolous activity misses the point, for it prioritizes a minor aspect over the true meaning of the day (though to engage in teshuvah and skip the fast is also not sanctioned, as fasting is a positive command of divrei nevi'im, as mentioned).

The Rambam says that a fast day should not be accompanied by self-indulgence or light-heartedness but by a feeling of distress and mourning, as the possuk (in Eichah) says, “What does a living man have to complain? For his own sins...” The Shaloh adds: Someone who does not follow this path (and fasts gratuitously) is pointlessly torturing themselves. Fasting is meant as a vehicle to sublimate the physical and heighten the power of the mind. It is a model of the World to Come, where we will not eat nor drink, but will only take pleasure in the radiance of the Shechinah. Today too, your enjoyment should come from spending the day in your bond with Hashem, with teshuvah, tefillah, and tzedakah—and the study of Torah, which is equal to them all.

FASTING EXEMPTIONS

Those who are ill, and pregnant or nursing women for whom fasting causes pain, do not need to fast.

A chosson and kallah during their sheva yemei mishteh, the week following their wedding, do fast today.

When a bris takes place on Tzom Gedaliah, the father, the Mohel and Sandek still fast. A minor child is given the wine to drink and the seudah takes place that night.

Someone who is exempt from fasting should refrain from eating delicacies and should suffice with only as much food as is necessary; when they eat, it should do so away from the public eye.

LAW OF REDEMPTION: A MATTER OF LAW

All of the fast days (except Yom Kippur) will be canceled in the era of Moshiach. In fact, they will become “yomim tovim and days of feasting and gladness.”¹²³

The conclusion of the laws of fasting in Shulchan Aruch states: “Hashem will transform these days to feasting and gladness.” In Likkutei Sichos, the Rebbe explains¹²⁴ that since this statement appears in a compendium of life-rules, it has a practical application even today: our acts of teshuvah today are on a level that they can be so effective as to actually cause the transformation of the fast day to a day of rejoicing.

MOST TRANSFORMATIVE

In 5751, the Rebbe says¹²⁵: Tzom Gedaliah was established in the first place as a

123) This is further discussed in Likkutei Sichos, vol. 15, p. 412. [For the concept of holding a festive meal in the era of Redemption, see Magen Avraham, Tisha b'Av, 552:11 and Sichas Beis d'Rosh Hashanah 5752.]

124) vol. 15, p. 416. See fn. 38 there.

deferred fast.¹²⁶ This fact lends itself to an even more powerful impetus to have the fast uprooted forever—in the days of Moshiach all fasts will be transformed to days of rejoicing and festivals. In our times, there is an additional attribute in this day that applies, Tzom Gedaliah having been established within the time period that is already in the festive season, as the days of Aseres Yemei Teshuvah are referred to as “mo’ed”.

In fact, particular details of Gedaliah’s tragedy, for which the fast was originally established, also contain a transformative concept that relates to the permanent deferment that will occur in the days of Moshiach. Gedaliah ben Achikom was assassinated by Yishmael ben Netanya, a descendent of the House of King David—a detail that is emphasized in the original telling of the story. This, in fact, was the motivation in this nefarious act, as he felt that he was more worthy of the leadership than Gedaliah, who he thought¹²⁷ lacked royal blood.

Now, the assassination of a righteous leader of Bnei Yisrael is a true calamity (and accomplished nothing positive), especially considering that his passing snuffed out the last embers of Jewish settlement under the authority of Malchus Beis Dovid during the Babylonian Exile. Nevertheless, the catalyst for this (negative) event, Yishmael’s jealousy and self-righteousness in deserving the governor’s role over Gedaliah contains within it the most deeply-seated inkling of positivity—a desire for not only a Davidic settlement in the Holy Land, but the reinstatement of the kingship of Beis Dovid with a leader who is of the Davidic line.

In this point, Tzom Gedaliah emphasizes the transformative power of a fast day—the desire for a leader of the House of David for the remnants of settlers (the very reason for the fast). This should have the opposite effect than the historical one (Gedaliah’s assassination) as an injection of Gedaliah’s life, represented by the immortal quality of the Jewish people, especially as will be expressed in the descendent of Dovid (in a powerful manner, as indicated by the name “Gedaliah” [containing the word “great”]). May it take place now, with the actual arrival of the complete and final Redemption through Melech Hamoshiach, who (as the Rambam states), “will arise and reinstate the kingdom of Dovid...and will build the Beis Hamikdash, and gather in the forsaken of Israel.”

FASTING

The fast begins at the break of dawn (alos hashachar), at 5:37 am.

Someone who travels to a different time zone during the fast continues to fast until nightfall (tzeis hakochovim) of the place that they are at that time.¹²⁸

We do not rinse our mouths on a fast day.

¹²⁶ It commemorates the assassination of the Jewish leader, Gedaliah, whose actual passing occurred on Rosh Hashanah.

EATING BY MISTAKE

Someone who accidentally eats today is nevertheless obligated to complete the fast. In such a case, there is no obligation to compensate by fasting on a subsequent day. Nevertheless, they may choose to do so as an atonement for breaking a fast.

If only a small amount of food was eaten accidentally (less than the size of *koseves*¹²⁹, eaten within the time frame of *k'dei achilas pras*¹³⁰), or a small quantity of liquid was drunk (less than a *revi'is*¹³¹), it is still considered fasting and the Aneinu prayer in the Amidah of Minchah may be recited. If, however, these limits were exceeded, the Aneinu text should be amended to read: Aneinu b'yom tzom hata'anis hazeh (“Answer us on this fast day”), rather than ta'aniseinu (“our fasting”).

Someone who is not fasting should not be given an aliyah. However, after the fact, a non-faster¹³² who was called up to the Torah and is embarrassed (and concerned of chillul Hashem) to decline, may continue with the aliyah.

TZEDAKAH

It is customary to give an abundance of tzedakah on public fasts. Calculate the cost of the food that you would have eaten were it not a fast day—and give that amount to the poor during the evening of the fast.

SELICHOS

Our custom is to say Selichos only on Tzom Gedaliah (on account of the fast), but not throughout Aseres Yemei Teshuvah.

In 5750, the Rebbe mentions¹³³ a saying of the Frierdiker Rebbe, who repeated in the name of the Tzemach Tzedek the reason it is the Chabad minhag to say Selichos before Rosh Hashanah but not during Aseres Yemei Teshuvah (though many Jewish communities do so then): “Up to that point (until Rosh Hashanah), it is a mitzvah to say, but from now on, it is the mitzvah to do.”

ALREADY PARDONED

The minhag regarding the timing of our Selichos prayers—in Elul, but not now, in Aseres Yemei Teshuvah, hearkens to the previous discussion,¹³⁴ which compares the practices of modern generations to the days of the Ge'onim. While we make smaller

The Tzemach Tzedek's wording is as follows: “There is a time when we have to say, and a time when we have to do.” [See also the Roshei Devarim of the seudah of motzoei Yom Kippur 5730, an alternate quoting the Tzemach Tzedek's words: Until Rosh Hashanah, the avodah is in speech, and from Rosh Hashanah to Yom Kippur, the avodah is in thought.”

efforts and require more lead-up, we yield greater results—by saying Selichos prior to Rosh Hashanah instead of during Aseres Yemei Teshuvah, we enact a pardon for our spiritual debts even before the Day of Judgment arrives.

SHACHARIS

Only the chazzan says Aneinu, and only during the repetition of the Amidah. In both Shacharis and Minchah, Aneinu is said between the blessings of go'al Yisrael and Refa'einu. If a chazzan mistakenly omits Aneinu, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

Selichos (found in the book of Selichos) are recited as part of Shacharis, not earlier. The order for Shacharis is as follows: The chazzan's repetition is followed by Tachanun and nefilas apayim; Selichos, the long Avinu Malkeinu and then Va'anachnu lo nedah; half-Kaddish, Keil erech apayim. Then the sefer Torah is brought out and three aliyos are read from the section Vayechal Moshe.

According to Chabad custom, when Selichos is recited after the Amidah as part of the Shacharis service, and not as a pre-Shacharis prayer service of its own, then the following introductory sections are omitted from Selichos: Ashrei, Kaddish, Lecha Hashem, Shomei'a tefillah, and Selach lanu. The section that begins Az terem, intended as an introduction to the main body of Selichos, is also omitted, along with Keil Erech Apayim, and the vidui of Ashamnu following Shema koleinu (for Tachanun has already been recited immediately after the Amidah).

Therefore, Selichos begins today with Dirshu. We also skip the paragraphs Vayomer Dovid and Rachum Vechanun towards the end of Selichos.¹³⁵

It is appropriate to review the Selichos liturgy in advance, so as to understand the meaning of its less familiar sections and poetic paragraphs.

Preferably, you should stand when reciting Selichos. If this is difficult, ensure to stand at least while reciting Keil Melech yoshev, the Yud-Gimmel Middos Harachamim.

If reciting Selichos at a measured pace does not enable you to keep up with the congregation, you should interrupt your own recital whenever the minyan reaches the Yud-Gimmel Middos Harachamim (i.e., Hashem, Hashem, Keil Rachum Vechanun, etc.), even if you are in the middle of a paragraph. Join the congregation in this recital and then resume Selichos from the point of interruption.¹³⁶

If reciting Selichos without a minyan, omit the Yud-Gimmel Middos Harachamim. While the aron is open, it is proper to stand out of respect. If it is difficult to remain standing, however, you may be lenient when the sifrei Torah remain inside. (See the entry for Selichos earlier for more details.)

¹³⁵) See Yoman Tzom Gedaliah 575l.

¹³⁶) See more details and sources concerning when and how to join the minyan in its recital while saying Selichos at a different pace at #23657

After Selichos, the lengthy Avinu Malkeinu is recited, We recite the nusach for Aseres Yemei Teshuvah (i.e., Avinu Malkeinu kasveinu) followed by chatzi-Kaddish, and not full Kaddish.

The minhag in 770 is that when there is a chosson, a bris was held, or the like, the congregation (aside for the chosson or the baby's father) say Selichos, but omit Tachanun, nefilas apayim and Avinu Malkeinu. In this situation, the full Selichos are said, starting with Selach lanu and continuing without omitting anything—vidui of Ashamnu is said.

This week, the Chumash/Rashi studied daily as part of Chitas is for Parashas Vezos Habrachah, for the first time.¹³⁷

Today, those who learn three chapters of Rambam daily to complete a yearly cycle of Mishneh Torah celebrate a siyum on Sefer Korbanos.

Havdalah: If you forgot to recite Havdalah on motzoei Shabbos, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

MINCHAH

Daven Minchah earlier so that it does not run into bein hashmoshos (twilight); finish davening before shki'ah (6:28 pm).

The Torah reading of Shacharis is repeated for Minchah with the addition of Maftir for a fast day: Dirshu Hashem.

During the Amidah, Aneinu is recited by all (fasting) congregants during the blessing of Shema Koleinu. If it is mistakenly omitted, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

The chazzan recites Aneinu following the blessing of go'el Yisrael. The chazzan also adds the nusach of Birchas Kohanim as he regularly does during Shacharis.

The order for Minchah is as follows: (1) Vayedaber (Korbanos for Minchah) (2) Ashrei (3) half-Kaddish (4) Vayehi binsoa and Krias Hatorah, then Maftir and its blessings (5) Yehalelu (6) half-Kaddish (7) Amidah (including Anienu) and the chazzan's repetition (8) Tachanun, the long Avinu Malkeinu (the Aseres Yemei Teshuvah version), (9) Kaddish tiskabel (10) L'Dovid Hashem Ori (11) Aleinu and mourner's Kaddish.

Following Minchah, it is traditional to attend a lecture aimed at inspiring us to improve ourselves and enhance our mitzvah observance.

Law of Redemption: Maftir for Moshiach

"Today may be the day Moshiach arrives," the Rebbe said on a fast day.¹³⁸ "In that case we won't be saying the fast-day liturgy in Minchah, but adding happy remarks, for in the middle of the brachah of Shema Koleinu we are permitted to add any personal tefillos.”

¹³⁸ 18 Tammuz (17 Tammuz Nidcheh), 5751

During that same sichah, the Rebbe added, “When Moshiach comes today, Minchah will be prayed without a Torah reading!”¹³⁹

The end of the fast, and the time for Maariv, is 6:56 pm.

There are various methods of calculating the time of nightfall (called tzeis hakochavim, when three stars are observable). Following the Alter Rebbe's opinion to account for “smaller stars”, we generally wait some minutes after this time to say the nighttime Shema. But for the purpose of the fast, you may daven earlier, at the time detailed above, and then repeat the Shema sometime later.

MONDAY, 5 TISHREI

Tekufas Tishrei, the Autumn (or Fall) season in the Jewish calendar (marked by the vernal equinox) begins this morning, at 3:00 am.¹⁴⁰

LAW OF REDEMPTION: DAY 3 TO PURITY

The Kohen Gadol is sprinkled with the ashes of the Red Heifer on the third day of his isolation.

TUESDAY, 6 TISHREI

Today marks the 60th yahrtzeit of Rebbetzin Chanah, the mother of the Rebbe, who passed away in 5725 (1964).

Today, those who learn one chapter of Rambam daily to complete a cycle of Mishneh Torah in three years celebrate a siyum on Sefer Avodah.

SEVENFUL

“The 7th of Tishrei,” the Rebbe says on this day in 5751,¹⁴¹ “is the seventh consecutive day from Rosh Hashanah (and a full week into the new year). Having experienced each day of the week, which corresponds to and encapsulates that day of the week for the entire year (Sunday for all Sundays, etc.), we have reached a pinnacle of the weekly cycle and are receptacles for even greater brachos from Hashem.”

139) And not Shacharis? Perhaps the Rebbe spoke thus because it was Minchah time. Would we still read the Torah at Shacharis if we are no longer fasting? See Hebrew footnotes for a comprehensive discussion on these topics.

140) The tefukos-seasons are mentioned in the introduction to the calendar in Hayom Yom and in Luach Colel Chabad. For detailed laws, See Beis Yosef, Orach Chayim, 455 (end); Rema, ibid., par. 1; (Alter Rebbe's Shulchan Aruch, ibid., par. 15-16, and in 206:14); Yoreh De'ah, 116:5; and many other places. See Likkutei Sichos, vol. 16, p. 98, fn. 33; vol. 21, p. 233, fn. 33; vol. 16, p. 577.

141) Sefer Hasichos 5751, vol. 1, p. 31

Yom Kippur Preparations: The chazzan must isolate himself from any possible source of tumah three days prior to Yom Kippur. He should spend this time learning about the meaning of the davening.

THURSDAY, 8 TISHREI

Today, the 8th of Tishrei, began the Chanukas Habayis (dedication) of the first Beis Hamikdash.¹⁴²

Today marks the yahrtzeit of the tzaddik Reb Baruch, the father of the Alter Rebbe, in 5552 (1791).

Whoever was unable to perform Tashlich on Rosh Hashanah should do so on this day, which is referred to as “the day of the Thirteen Attributes of Mercy”.

FRIDAY, 9 TISHREI, EREV YOM KIPPUR

From the 9th of Tishrei until the second day of Rosh Chodesh Cheshvan, do not recite Tachanun, Lamnatze’ach ya’ancha, or Tefillah l’Dovid. This includes krias Shema on the night of erev Yom Kippur.

KAPPOROS

WHEN SHOULD I DO KAPPOROS?

We shecht the kapporos chickens at the break of dawn, after approximately 3:00 am. (The significance of this is explained in the siddur.)

The most opportune time to do Kapporos is ashmores haboker (the last quarter of the night hours) of erev Yom Kippur.¹⁴³ The second period that is preferred is the early morning hours of erev Yom Kippur. This was the Rebbe’s minhag many years (at times, even after sunrise).

If Kapporos cannot be done then, you may do so any other time during the night or day of erev Yom Kippur.

If these times are not practical, any time on the 8th of Tishrei is optimal, though it may actually be performed at any time during Aseres Yemei Teshuvah—the closer to Yom Kippur the better.¹⁴⁴

WHAT SHOULD I USE FOR KAPPOROS?

A chicken is the best way to practice Kapporos. Kapporos on a chicken earlier in Aseres Yemei Teshuvah is a preferable option than waiting for erev Yom Kippur and using money.

¹⁴²) See Hebrew footnote for sources. The Rebbe speaks of the lessons for this particular occasion in the sichah of Shabbos Parshas Haazinu, 5737. See also Sefer Hasichos, 5750, vol. 1, pg. 20, fn. 56.

¹⁴³) see #5817

¹⁴⁴) see #16850

We use one fowl per household member: a hen for a female and a rooster for a male.

A pregnant woman (starting from forty days after conception) uses two hens and one rooster. She uses the plural form to refer to all the fowl at once. (See footnote on the next paragraph for the exact wording.)

HOW DO I DO KAPPOROS?

The order of the Kapporos liturgy and rotations are as follows: Say the entire paragraph of B'nei adam, then swing the chicken three times as you say “Zeh...”.¹⁴⁵ Say B'nei adam again and then swing another three times. Then repeat the sequence once more for a total of three recitals and nine rotations.

Do not say the pessukim above (nor the brachah on covering the blood during the slaughter) where it reeks from the livestock present. Stand at least four amos (six feet) further than the area affected by the offensive smell and face the opposite direction.

HOW SHOULD I HANDLE THE CHICKEN?

Carry the chicken gently, and avoid grabbing it by its wings, as it may cause damage to the bones or joints, which would render it treif. If the chicken falls while you are holding it, let the shochet know, so it can be checked carefully.

If a line forms while waiting to have your chicken slaughtered, stand back and position yourself so the shochet is not in the (live) chicken's line of sight—it is possible that such trauma can cause damage to its lungs, which would render the chicken unkosher. This is all in addition to the general prohibition of tzaar baalei chaim—causing pain to a living creature.

HOW IS KISUI HADAM PERFORMED?

It is a hiddur to personally cover the blood of the kapporos chicken after it has been shechted and to recite the blessing of al kisui hadam b'afar. However, the primary obligation to fulfill this mitzvah is on the shochet—who, in turn, may share the honor with a Torah scholar.¹⁴⁶

It is proper to compensate the shochet for this honor.¹⁴⁷

Before saying the brachah, wash netilas yadayim. You do not say Shehechyanu, 145) Women say: Zos chalifasi, zos timurasi, zos kaparasi, zos hatarnigoles telech l'misah, va'ani eilech l'chaim tovim aruchim ul'shalom.

An expectant mother using two hens and one rooster says: Eilu chalifaseinu, eilu temuraseinu, eilu kaparaseinu, eilu hatarnegolim yeilchu l'misah, va'anachnu neiliech l'chaim tovim aruchim ul'shalom.

A woman who is niddah and is being assisted by her husband should be careful that he swing the chicken to the side or very high above her head, so that it should not inadvertently touch her.

146) A woman may be given this honor as well, and any male who is bar mitzvah and showing signs of puberty. However, the mitzvah may not be transferred to a child.

147) though it is forbidden for the shochet to actually charge money for a mitzvah.

even if it is the first time ever that you are performing this mitzvah. The mitzvah is to cover “the lifeblood”, so do not cover the first few drops, but of the blood that spurts afterward. Prepare dry dirt (sawdust is generally used) beneath the spot where the blood lands. Cover the blood from above using your right hand [—no gloves] or with tools but not with your foot—while standing. Cover at least one blood splatter completely so it is no longer visible (though not all the pooled blood needs to be covered). If there is a lineup of shochtim, make sure that you are covering the blood from your own chicken, and not your neighbor’s, or another chicken upon which the mitzvah was already performed, so as not to make a brachah in vain.¹⁴⁸

WHY DO WE DO KAPPOROS?

The word kapporos means “atonements”, but it is not the swinging action, the liturgical utterances, or even the slaughter of the chicken that redress our wrongdoings. The inner purpose of this act is to awaken our hearts to teshuvah; to recognize our sole accountability to Hashem; to contemplate the fate of the chicken and, comparable to the korbanos we will bring again in the Beis Hamikdash, its death atones for the fact that through our sins we may be chayav misah (worthy of the death penalty) ourselves. We must then repent for our wrongdoing, return to Hashem with our full hearts, and ask the Merciful G-d to accept our teshuvah.

We donate the monetary equivalent of the kapporos to the poor, for the true kapparah is by giving up what is ours to another.

WHAT IF I CAN'T GET A CHICKEN?

If there are no chickens available, use another living creature, such as a fish. If this is not an option, use money, and adapt the formula to read: eilu hama'os teilachnah litzedakah. Alternatively, you can request that someone who does have a chicken available to perform kapporos on your behalf.

EREV YOM KIPPUR CUSTOMS

It is forbidden to fast today.

It is a mitzvah to increase the number of meals eaten on this day so that we eat the equivalent of two days' worth of meals. According to some opinions, the obligation to eat more than usual begins the night before.

TWO-HANDED!

“There is an exceptional spiritual quality to the act of eating and drinking on erev Yom Kippur!” the Rebbe once exclaimed during his annual erev Yom Kippur

¹⁴⁸) This might even apply to a newly slaughtered chicken's blood that is spilled on top of blood upon which the mitzvah was already performed.

blessing.¹⁴⁹ “To the extent that it has been observed that those exalted individuals who are careful throughout the year to use only one hand while eating, now—at the festive meal on erev Yom Kippur—deliberately use both of their hands to eat. I personally witnessed this in my own father’s conduct. The reason he expressed for this change was that ‘this is the meal of erev Yom Kippur, the ninth of the month!’”

Many are accustomed to wearing Yom Tov clothing on erev Yom Kippur. The Rebbeim wore silk garments (as on Shabbos and Yom Tov) in the morning following Kapporos.

Immerse in a mikveh before Shacharis.

Do not spend a great time in prayer during Shacharis. Do not recite Mizmor l’sodah, Tachanun, Avinu Malkeinu (even though Yom Kippur falls on Shabbos this year), Lamnatze’ach, and Tefillah l’Dovid.

LEKACH

Request a piece of lekach (honey cake) from another person and partake from what you receive.

“On erev Yom Kippur, the Rebbe is accustomed to distribute lekach while wearing his silk Shabbos kapota and his gartel. He wishes each individual shannah tovah umesukah, ‘a good and sweet year.’”

LAW OF REDEMPTION: DAY 7 TO PURITY

The Kohen Gadol is sprinkled with the ashes of the Red Heifer on the seventh day of his isolation. The Kohen Gadol stands in the Eastern Gate of the Beis Hamikdash. We parade bulls, rams, and lambs in front of the Kohen Gadol so that he is familiar with them for the sake of the following day’s service.

In the daily morning prayers, when discussing how the incense was prepared, we mention as follows: “and the other three manim from which the Kohen Gadol took two handfuls [into the Holy of Holies] on Yom Kippur. These [three manim] were put back into the mortar on the day before Yom Kippur and ground again very thoroughly so as to make the incense extremely fine.”

THE FIRST MEAL

Eat the erev Yom Kippur meal before chatzos (midday) today at 12:42 pm. Dip challah in honey, and eat fish.

Even for breakfast, you should only eat foods that are easily digestible, such as fish and fowl. Do not eat sesame seeds. Men should avoid foods that cause the body to produce sperm, such as garlic and eggs. Restrict milk products to the morning meal; they should not be eaten during the final meal before the fast.

¹⁴⁹ in 5745. See Likkutei Sichos, vol. 29, p. 319.

SECOND HALF, WHOLLY DIFFERENT

“Erev Yom Kippur...in Lubavitch..” the Frieddiker Rebbe recalls.¹⁵⁰ “In one and the same day you experienced a huge shift in atmosphere from the first half of the day to the second. Chatzos split the two with such a divide, it was as if the parts of the day were from two completely separate times of year. Right after the morning meal, the cheerful mood changed; minutes after twelve o’clock, Father would already start making his hachanos for davening Minchah...those few hours from chatzos until after Kol Nidrei, there existed a heightened level of anguish—erev Yom Kippur’s first half was a joyful Yom Tov, and the second, a time of melancholy, filled with avodah and distinct awe.”¹⁵¹

Erev Yom Kippur is the time to regret our past actions. On Yom Kippur itself, we make good resolutions for the future.

BEFORE MINCHAH

Before immersing in a mikveh and praying Minchah, ask someone to administer thirty-nine malkos (lashes) to your back while you are bent over, facing north. They should strike lightly, preferably with a leather strip or belt, although any kind of material can be used. Begin with one strike to the right shoulder, a second to the left shoulder and a third slightly lower, in the center of the back. This counter-clockwise pattern is repeated thirteen times for a total of thirty-nine. Both you and the one administering the lashes should together recite the verse Vehu Rachum yechaper avon...—one word per strike.

Following the lashes, immerse in a mikveh to achieve purity and teshuvah. Immerse three times. Be careful to avoid any adhering substance that could be considered a chatzitzah.

Give a lot of tzedakah. It is our custom to drop many coins into tzedakah boxes and plates as we make our way to Minchah.

HOLY CLINKING

The Baal Shem Tov taught that the sound of clanging coins in the plates (or tzedakah boxes) causes the forces of kelipah to be splintered apart!

RECITING VIDUI

Recite Vidui and Al cheit during Minchah, following the first Yiheyu l’ratzon (if Hashem commands us to make a joyous Yom Tov of the first half of erev Yom Kippur and then the second half we must daven Minchah, reciting Al cheit and immersing ourselves in teshuvah.” The Frieddiker Rebbe says there, “My father was very happy with Reb Zalman’s remarks.” See also Sefer Hasichos 5689, p. 26: “Reb Zalman’s words were simple, but choice, ones that we repeated for years after. (There, Reb Zalman’s words read: “A Jew is a soldier, whatever he is told to do, he does. He is ordered to be joyous, he is happy. He is charged with crying, he weeps. Now (in the morning of erev Yom Kippur) it is Yom Tov, so we imbibe a bit of drink. In around three or four hours will be Minchah, and rachmanah litzlan, “the world has turned dark for him” [from Maseches Beitzah]).

you forgot, see the chart at the end of the booklet). Pray at length, with profound feelings of teshuvah from the depths of your heart and soul. Do not recite Avinu Malkeinu.

Recite Vidui while standing upright; do not lean heavily on anything. It is preferable to bow slightly during Vidui, as when reciting Modim. Lightly strike your chest with your fist while saying Ashamnu, etc., as well as Al cheit shechatanu, and V'al chata'im she'anu chayavim and selach lanu, etc. (All the above is also true for each time that Vidui is recited.)

If you are reciting Vidui during the silent Amidah and the chazzan begins the repetition, you should respond amein after the chazzan's recital of Hamelech Hakadosh and shomei'a tefillah. If the chazzan begins Kedushah, you may respond for Kadosh, Baruch and Yimloch. When the chazzan reaches Modim, bow and recite only the three words 'Modim anachnu lach.' You may also answer amein yehei shmei rabba and amein after d'amiran b'alma.

ASKING FORGIVENESS

Yom Kippur does not atone for wrongs done to others, unless the wronged parties express their forgiveness. We should each make an effort to appease whomever we wronged—even if it was “only” a matter of spoken words. When requesting forgiveness, specify the wrong that you performed unless it would embarrass the injured person. The wronged party should forgive immediately. The laws of forgiveness are detailed in Shulchan Aruch.¹⁵²

Law of Redemption: Special Accomodation

The elders of Beis Din hand the Kohen Gadol over to the elders of the priesthood and they in turn would take him up to the upper chamber of the house of Avtinas to teach him the particulars of scooping the incense. An oath is administered to him that he does not alter the service.

FINAL MEAL

For the seudah hamafsekes, wash your hands for Hamotzi and eat at least a kebeitzah, dipping the challah in honey. Avoid salt in foods during this meal. Avoid fish and dairy products, sharp spices and any food that causes the body temperature to rise.

“It is stated¹⁵³ that we should eat soup three times on erev Yom Kippur.” the Rebbe tells.¹⁵⁴ “My father-in-law the (Friediker) Rebbe never had sufficient time on erev Yom Kippur to eat soup three times. He would take a spoonful and they would pour a little more soup into his bowl. This was considered a second plate. He ate a second spoonful of soup. Then they added more soup; this was considered a third plate...”

153) Sefer Hasichos 5697, end of p. 156

154) Sichas Shabbos Parshas Kedoshim 5717

On erev Yom Kippur, is it customary to eat kreplach (pastry pockets filled with meat¹⁵⁵ or chicken and boiled in soup). For insight into this practice, see Sefer Haminhagim Chabad.

If you intend to eat after reciting Birchas Hamazon at the conclusion of the seudah hamafsekes, state so explicitly before concluding your meal. If you did not, you may still eat.

BEFORE YOM TOV

Some are accustomed to immersing in the mikveh following the seudah hamafsekes in proximity to the onset of Yom Kippur. Only do so if there is ample time to conclude before sunset.

Wear clean clothes in honor of Yom Kippur. Spread a tablecloth as you do for Shabbos and Yom Tov.

Nowadays, universal custom prohibits preparing food on Yom Kippur that is to be eaten after the fast, even though there is room for halachic leniency on a weekday because of agmas nefesh. On Shabbos, though, it is expressly forbidden by gezairah and extra care should be taken that all preparations should be done before the fast. Therefore, extra care should be taken that all preparations should be completed before the fast.

We are stringent to avoid hatmanah, setting up food today to be kept warm throughout Yom Kippur to be used after the fast, unless it is needed by those who are weak.

Each married man should light a lebidike licht, a candle for the living in shul. A ner neshamah (yahrtzeit candle) is lit for departed parents at home.

Prepare a candle that will be used on motzoei Yom Kippur at home, besides the ner neshamah (see below in connection to Havdalah).

CANDLE LIGHTING

Candle lighting is at 6:02 pm. Recite two blessings: (1) l'hadlik ner shel shabbos v'shel yom hakippurim and (2) Shehechyanu. For the laws that apply in case of error, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

The candles should burn long enough so that they are still lit when you return home from shul after Maariv, unless you stay home and enjoy the candles immediately.

Married couples should also leave a light on in the bedroom. An electric lamp is sufficient for this purpose.

¹⁵⁵ This is a matter of debate, since we generally avoid beef on erev Yom Kippur, choosing lighter fare like fish or fowl over red meat. However, some permit meat kreplach, which contain only a small amount of beef, similar to the dispensation for wine-soaked bread or caffelatte, despite an avoidance of alcoholic drink and milk, respectively. See Hebrew halachos for sources.

SHKI'AH TIME

Men should stop eating and observe the other restrictions of Yom Kippur in advance, no later than 6:20 pm. Women accept Yom Kippur at candle-lighting time.

Married men wear a kittel, unless they are in their first year of marriage and wore a kittel for their chuppah. Do not enter a bathroom while wearing a kittel.

Put on your tallis with a blessing before sunset (shki'ah). If you only did so after sunset, do not recite the blessing.

Check your pockets in advance of nightfall—you have been wearing your Shabbos clothes today and may not remember that you are carrying something.

Bless your children with birchas habanim before leaving your home for Kol Nidrei. It is customary to recite the text of Birchas Kohanim.

EVE OF YOM KIPPUR

“There are no greater festivals for the Jewish people than ... Yom Kippur.¹⁵⁶”

FIVE INUYIM

It is a Torah obligation (d'oraisa) to commence Yom Kippur a little early, to add from the mundane and to sanctify it—at least from the time of visible sunset, 6:21 pm.

There are five Yom Kippur restrictions:

(1) No eating or drinking even the slightest quantity, although food may be handled. Children from the age of nine or ten are trained to fast an age-appropriate number of hours. Children under that age must not be allowed to fast even if they so desire.¹⁵⁷

Someone suffering from a life-threatening illness eats and drinks; if medically permissible, they should restrict themselves to shiurim (specific quantities with prescribed intervals). See details in the footnote.¹⁵⁸ Obviously, this should be

¹⁵⁶ Taanis 5:8

¹⁵⁷ There is halachic discussion whether it is permissible to give children sweets and desserts today. The general consensus is that we are lenient and may do so. See Hebrew footnote for more details and references.

Practically, drink only half of one mouthful at once. Measure this amount before Yom Kippur by filling under the direct guidance of a Rav, as mentioned earlier. Those who break their fast do not recite Kiddush, nor do they use lechem mishneh. If they will be eating bread, they should wash their hands first; if they eat shiurim, they do not recite the blessing of al netilas yadayim. If they eat a kezayis in the amount of time known as k'dei achilas pras (four minutes) they must recite Birchas Hamazon including Retzei and ya'aleh veyavo with the phrase: b'yom hakippurim hazeh, b'yom selichas he'avon hazeh, b'yom mikra kodesh hazeh. They should also recite the Harachaman for Shabbos.

(2) Any washing of the body is forbidden, whether in cold or hot, even to immerse your finger in water, and even to remove sweat. For the morning netilas yadayim, wash until the end of your knuckles. Once you dry your hands on the towel you can use it to wipe your eyes. (If eyes are crusty, and you usually rinse to remove the buildup, you may do so, sparingly, today.) Rinsing the mouth is prohibited.

If a person becomes sullied with dirt or excrement, wash the sullied area only. If you touch a part of the body that is normally kept covered, wash your fingers until the knuckles. When visiting the bathroom, touch the normally-covered area of the body in such a way that you can wash your hands as described.¹⁵⁹ If you are about to pray, wash your hands in this manner even if you did not touch a covered area. An ill person washes in their ordinary manner.

(3) It is forbidden to place oils or lotions on the skin even in the tiniest amount and even for the sake of removing sweat. But it is permissible to anoint for medical reasons, though you must keep in mind the limitations for melachah on Yom Tov by not smearing into the skin.

(4) It is forbidden to wear leather footwear, even if only the outer layer is made of leather. It is preferable not to use wooden footwear either. Chabad minhag does not follow the opinion that bans rubber galoshes and the like.

A woman within thirty days of childbirth, someone who is ill or with a foot injury—and one who finds cold floors particularly uncomfortable—are permitted to wear regular footwear. However, they still should invite some discomfort such as switching the right shoe for the left, if feasible. Nowadays, non-leather shoes are very commonplace and comfortable, and a person should not seek to be lenient in this regard.

your mouth to the limit (using all available cheek space) and emptying it into a measuring cup, then divide the volume in half. If food is necessary, up to 30cc (cubic centimeters; this is about 1 fluid ounce) may be eaten at a time. This is the volume of food that would fill a small matchbox.

Ideally, these quantities should be consumed with at least a nine-minute wait between morsels. However, if that is not feasible, you can be lenient with intervals as short as seven, six, or even four minutes. If circumstances require eating or drinking even more often, one may be lenient.

Eating and drinking can be simultaneous.

¹⁵⁹ If you entered the bathroom without actually using the facilities, and left with clean hands, you should not wash them. You can rub them off on some surface (like a stone or wall), even if you are usually stringent about washing.

Backless slippers may be worn outdoors, even where there is no eiruv, provided that they are secure and don't slip off the soles of the feet. As well, walking around with broken clog straps that hang off only one side of the shoe collar is not considered carrying on Yom Kippur, as long as the strap will not be reused, either by reattaching it or for another purpose altogether.¹⁶⁰

(5) Married couples must observe all of the harchakos by night and by day.

It is forbidden to dress children in leather shoes, even if they are under the age of chinuch. They should not be bathed, and creams or oils should not be applied on them. If they do so of their own accord, their father need not stop them. Once they reach the age of chinuch and they are fasting an appropriate number of hours, it is forbidden to give them food and drink during that time; if they take it themselves, their father must stop them.

Some refrain from wearing gold jewelry on Yom Kippur.¹⁶¹

LAST LICKS

“Toward the evening of Yom Kippur, many feel trembling and tearful,” says Kesser Shem Tov. “This is on account of the close of Aseres Yemei Teshuvah. On Yom Kippur itself, the Satan has no permission to act, so in these last moments before it begins, he comes with his greatest powers to attempt to besmear each person. Each individual can sense this intense effort, and men, women, and children are all affected.”

In Machzor Vitri it is recorded: “I have heard that the Satan has no power over a person on Yom Kippur, unlike every other day. The name HaSatan (השטן) has a numeric value of 364, indicating that there is this one day of the solar year that is free of his influence. This is what is stated in the Navi,¹⁶² that Hashem invites the Satan to “visit the judgment”, for Yom Kippur has arrived, and he can see us all dressed in white and standing without shoes like angels, winged and draped (in taleisim) and he is given no permission to speak.”

FREED

The Shita Mekubetzes writes that Kol Nidrei was established to avoid a common pitfall where some people make vows and then forget those promises and neglect to annul them before the Rav, and consequently, transgress inadvertently. Now, at the start of Yom Kippur, this public annulment of vows will aid those of us who tend to be forgetful to remember.

As the Zohar states: On this day of Yom Kippur which is called kadosh—holy, “the living tree” is dominant; it is completely dissociated with the power of the Satan and his harmful ways. From this perspective, there is only good, no evil, which is why

160) However, if you plan to fix the slipper after Yom Tov, you may not leave the hanging strap while walking in an eiruv-less area, despite the fact that this is common, and some halachic sources excuse the practice.

161) See #11282.

162) Yirmiyahu 21:12

it is the time, in the year of Yovel, that all slaves are set free. It is also the time that those who are sentenced with the power of promises and vows are vindicated, as is indicated by the institution to recite then the Kol Nidrei prayer, listing all types of nedarim and the varied ways in which they are nullified.

In Likkutei Torah it explains how it is Hashem Who is the true annuler of vows, just as a father annuls his daughter's vows, for it is the all-consuming love of our Father that overrides all bonds and entanglements in which we Yidden are caught. "He who is bound cannot untie himself". So it is the overwhelming love from the Divine Father that must free us. From what are we freed? It is the general state of weakness in which the neshamah finds herself when tied up in the materialism, bodily constraints, and animalistic instincts we encounter every day. These bonds, which are called sirchos, surround the soul to the point that it cannot escape. But then, with the cancellation of vows that we read on Yom Kippur, and our sincere teshuvah, we are able to arouse the "annulment" and with it the soul's true freedom through the revelation of Hashem's all-consuming love within our neshamos.

In the act of annulling vows, Ohr Hatorah states, we transform the negative aspects of klipah to positivity and light. This is why the act of hataras nedarim generally requires the presence of a Chachom, who is able to awaken the higher levels of G-dly emanation—through a revelation of Kesser (representing Ratzon, the Divine Will) that is higher than Chochmah, we turn transgressions into merits and dark into light. What is this process? Unfulfilled vows (and by extension, all transgressions) emanate from a person's power of speech. Therefore to cancel this negative aspect, it necessitates a course of correction from an attribute higher than speech, which is a faculty of a "chocham" and the parallel Divine attribute for the source of speech on High. But this is not enough, as mentioned. The person who takes a vow must regret it—which, essentially means that he is changing his ratzon (a desire he has had), and only then, the chocham can come and set him free.

The parallel process occurs Above in the spiritual realm. All things that are forbidden are a result of the Torah's words (speech), thus: "Speak to the Children of Israel," etc. So, when, on the level of Hashem's Chochmah, we have transgressed, we must reach higher to Kesser and Ratzon, levels that remain completely unaffected. How? Here comes the holy day of Yom Kippur, a day which enables us to reach a higher level where we can be forgiven for those transgressions initiated by our power of speech. Of course, this requires that the person who has transgressed regret their actions (as is required in the case of annulling an actual vow), but once we have achieved true remorse and do teshuvah, our sins are transformed to merits through a revelation of Divine Light higher than the source of speech, and even loftier than the Torah. In this manner, the opening prayer of Yom Kippur, Kol Nidrei, epitomizes our process of forgiveness through the means of vow annulment, where ratzon overpowers speech.

YOM KIPPUR NIGHT

Before Kol Nidrei, Avinu Malkeinu is not sung as it is Shabbos. Recite Chapters 115 to 123 of Tehillim, open the aron, and recite Kol Nidrei followed by the blessing of Shehechianu.

The congregation recites Shehechyanu quietly, making a point of concluding before the chazzan so that they can respond “Amein” to his blessing. It is a mitzvah to publicize that whoever recited Shehechyanu earlier over the candles should not do so now.

We begin Kabbalas Shabbos from mizmor l’David. In Lecha dodi...bo’i beshalom, the word “b’simcha” is not said.

During the Shema of Maariv, recite “baruch shem...” in a loud voice.

A HIGHER PLANE

In a maamar,¹⁶³ the Rebbe explains that the verse, “Baruch shem...” alludes to the three worlds of Beriah, Yetzirah, and Asiyah (which are that spiritual worlds that are given to being expressed), and throughout the year we want our meditation on the words of Shema Yisrael (Hashem’s unity with us and our physical world) to have a direct effect on our intention of Ve’ahavta (invoke our love for Hashem) so we utter this verse quietly so it should not serve as an interruption. However, on Yom Kippur a special light shines, and reveals how within those spiritual worlds are contained three “heads of heads” that is above even the ephemeral world of Atzilus. On this day, we say “Baruch shem...” out loud.

MAARIV

In the Amidah, be sure to mention Shabbos where it is included in the nusach. (This applies to all tefillos of Yom Kippur this year).

If you erred in the Amidah, or omitted any of the additions for Shabbos, Yom Kippur or Aseres Yemei Teshuvah, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

Vayechulu is recited after the Amidah. In Magen avos, the chazzan says hamelech hakodosh, and ends simply with mikadesh hashabbos. We then continue with the Yom Kippur night liturgy starting with Ya’aleh.

Avinu Malkeinu is not recited.

The order of the end of Maariv is as follows: (1) L’David mizmor, (2) Kaddish Shalem, (3) Mizmor l’David Hashem ro’i, (4) chatzi Kaddish, (5) Barchu, (6) Aleinu, (7) Kaddish Yasom.

After Aleinu and Kaddish Yasom, recite Chapters 1 to 4 of Tehillim, followed by another Kaddish Yasom. Then read the entire book of Tehillim, b’tzibur, starting from the first kapitel.

Recite Krias shema she’al hamitah as on every Shabbos and Yom Tov. Recite Baruch shem out loud. Do not recite Tachanun or Al cheit. Before going to sleep, recite Chapters 124 to 132 of Tehillim. Do not wrap snugly in blankets and covers; at the very least, leave your feet uncovered.

¹⁶³ Beha’aloscha 5748

MORNING

Rise early in the morning. Wash your fingers until your knuckles only. Do not intend to derive personal pleasure from the washing. Kohanim wash in the morning upon rising, and again before Birchas Kohanim, in the regular manner—until the wrist. Dry your hands and pass the damp towel over your eyes in order to remove the sleep from your eyes. If your eyes are sullied, you may clean them. Do not rinse your mouth.

Do not recite the morning brachah of she'asah li kol tzarki at all on Yom Kippur.

Morning Shema can be recited until 9:51 am.

The verse of Baruch shem kevod malchuso le'olam va'ed is recited aloud when reading the Shema as a private individual in the morning, and again while reciting Shema together with the congregation during Shacharis.

SHACHARIS

On Yom Kippur, the tallis is worn for all tefillos. If you remove your tallis for a few hours during the course of the day, you must repeat the blessing on the tallis whenever you put it back on. If you removed it with the intention to leave it off for a few hours, but then changed your mind and put it on immediately (i.e. before a few hours elapsed), you do not repeat the blessing on the tallis, provided you are wearing a tallis katan.

Since it is Shabbos, we say the paragraphs Hakol yoducha, Kel Adon, and Lakel asher shovas before the Shema of Shacharis.

Avinu Malkeinu zechor Rachamecha is recited during each tefillah of Yom Kippur daytime, despite it being Shabbos.

While the aron is open during the chazzan's repetition, it is proper to stand out of respect. If it is difficult to remain standing, however, you may be lenient when the sifrei Torah remain inside. (See the entry for Selichos earlier for more details.)

Because Yom Kippur is on Shabbos, Avinu Malkeinu is not recited after the chazzan's repetition in Shacharis.

Upon opening the Aron Hakodesh, recite Hashem, Hashem Keil Rachum etc. three times, followed by Ribono shel olam despite it being Shabbos.

Two sifrei Torah are removed. In the first, seven aliyos in Parshas Acharei Mos are read, from its start until vaya'as ka'asher tzivah Hashem. For Maftir, the second Torah is used to read Uv'asor lachodesh (from Parshas Pinchas). The Haftorah is from Yeshayahu (from Solu solu, until ki pi Hashem diber), a selection that discusses teshuvah and fasting.

In order to complete the daily quota of one hundred brachos, concentrate on the blessings that are recited over the aliyos and Maftir. If possible, recite a brachah over spices. You may recite the blessing upon smelling spices repeatedly throughout the day, as long as you focused your attention on something else and forgot about the spices in the interim.

Even on Shabbos, we recite the Mi sheberach for those who are not well.

Remember that the one reading the Haftorah must mention Shabbos at the end of the brachos. If they forget, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

YIZKOR

After Krias Hatorah and Haftorah, Ye'kum purkan is recited, followed by Yizkor. A person praying alone without a minyan may nevertheless recite Yizkor.

The handles of the sifrei Torah should be held when reciting Yizkor.¹⁶⁴

It is customary to pledge tzedakah while saying Yizkor, whether as a general pledge or actually specifying the amount—both are legitimate practices.¹⁶⁵

This pledge, with specific intention to be a merit for the soul of the departed, is especially relevant on Yom Kippur. This day acts as an atonement even for those no longer among the living,¹⁶⁶ a process that is aided by the act of tzedakah on their behalf—that Hashem will surely recognize (as He is aware of all intentions) that they would have given it themselves, if possible.

Anyone who has two living parents must exit the shul and close the door during Yizkor. During the year of mourning, the mourner remains inside the shul, but does not recite Yizkor.

During Yizkor the name of the departed is mentioned with their mother's name.¹⁶⁷

DOUBLE BENEFIT

“We say Yizkor even for those (lofty) neshamos that are not needy of any rectification,” the Rebbe says.¹⁶⁸ “We can derive this from the well-known custom of Chassidim to mention my father-in-law, the (Friediker) Rebbe, and also the previous Rebbeim they were personally connected to. So this Yizkor has an effect on the one reciting it. However, we must say that the holy neshamah mentioned is also uplifted, as the liturgy of Yizkor states clearly.”

Recite Av harachamim.

¹⁶⁴) though we are not meticulous that each person who is reciting Yizkor should have received an aliyah that day.

¹⁶⁵) See Roshei Devarim of the sichah of the second day of Shavuot, 5748 ¹⁶⁶) This is one meaning of the name Yom Hakippurim, in the plural—atonements for both the living and the departed.

¹⁶⁷) This is the instruction in the Alter Rebbe's siddur and many other more recent sources. See Hebrew footnotes for a comprehensive list.

¹⁶⁸) Roshei Devarim of Sichas Acharon shel Pesach 5726

“Whether those who are not saying Yizkor should say Av harachamim: they should do as they wish. This is a public hazkaras neshamos, and so it is omitted on days when Tachanun is not said; but on Yom Kippur, when we say individual hazkaras neshamos, we may also include this tefillah.”

MUSAF & AVODAH

Kneel¹⁶⁹ on the floor four times during Musaf—during Aleinu and the Avodah—even today, on Shabbos. While reciting Vidui as part of the account of the Avodah, strike your chest in the usual manner.

The Kohanim recite Birchas Kohanim. While they do so, the congregation should move their heads in the following sequence: Yivarechaha—head erect, Hashem—lean head to the right, v’yishmerecha—head erect; Ya’eir—lean head to left, and so on until shalom when the head is erect.

Recite the Ribono shel olam prayer only while the Kohanim are singing, but not when they pronounce the actual words. At that point, you must remain silent and listen carefully. The prayer is split into three parts: While the Kohanim sing before v’yaseim, recite from Ribono until hatzaddik. While they sing before lecha, recite from Ve’im until Elisha. While they sing before shalom, recite from Ukesheim until l’tovah. Then, as they pronounce shalom, recite the three final words v’sishmereini, etc. Once the kohanim conclude shalom, say amein followed by Adir bamarom, while still covered by the tallis.

Do not say Ein K’Elokeinu. It is postponed until after the conclusion of Ne’ilah.

Recite the daily portion of Tehillim followed by Chapters 133 to 141 and Kaddish Yasom.

Velakachta soles is recited, since it is Shabbos,¹⁷⁰ followed by Sheish Zechiros.

There is a break between Musaf and Minchah. If possible, it should last at least three-quarters of an hour.

Law of Redemption: All the Korbanos

We offer two lambs as temidim, as we do each day of the year (in addition to the musaf offering for Shabbos—two lambs for the olah). For the musaf offering (described in Parshas Pinchas): an ox, a ram (also known as the communal ram), and seven lambs as burnt-offerings, and a goat for a sin-offering (performed outside and eaten in the evening). For the Yom Kippur service (described in Parshas Acharai): the Kohen Gadol’s ox and ram, as well as a sin-offering goat offered “for Hashem” (performed in the Temple building and burnt). This brings us to a total of fifteen sacrifices, in addition to the goat dispatched “to azazel.” The Yom Kippur Temple service is described in all its details in the Avodah section in the machzor.

All the above offerings and korbanos are offered specifically by the Kohen Gadol. When

Yom Kippur is on Shabbos, the korban musaf of Shabbos is also brought by the Kohen Gadol.

FOOD PREP

With the passage of time, all Jewry have adopted the practice of prohibiting the preparation of food on Yom Kippur that will be eaten at the conclusion of the fast. However, since it is Shabbos, this prohibition assumes extra weight by Rabbinic decree, as a precaution against it causing a laxity on any other Shabbos of the year in preparing what is not needed on Shabbos itself.

Someone for whom fasting is extremely taxing, and they get weak, may prepare food before the fast to keep hot over Yom Kippur (even if wrapped in ways that are not usually permitted on Shabbos). If they neglected to heat it before the fast began, they may prepare food for a child or sick person who is eating on Yom Kippur in a way that is permitted on Shabbos, and leave the leftovers for themselves.

MINCHAH

Recite Vayedaber and Ketores before Minchah as usual. Do not recite Ashrei, Uva l'tzion, nor Va'ani tefillasi—even when Yom Kippur falls on Shabbos. Va'ani tefillasi is recited in praise of the Jewish people who return to shul to daven and read from the Torah after their Shabbos meal, and this reasoning does not apply to Yom Kippur.

The end of the Torah portion of Acharei Mos is read, followed by Maftir Yonah.

The Maftir aliyah is a segulah (good omen) for wealth, and increases the individual's power to do teshuvah.¹⁷¹

In the Amidah, we say Mi chamocho av harachamim, not harachaman.

Minchah is concluded with Kaddish tiskabel, L'Dovid Hashem Ori, and Kaddish Yasom. Avinu Malkeinu is not said, as it is Shabbos. Do not recite Aleinu at the conclusion of Minchah.

It is customary not to say Tzidkasecha when Yom Kippur is on Shabbos. This is on account of the phrase therein of mishpatecha tehom rabbah—“your judgments are (as) the vast deep”; on Yom Kippur we elicit Hashem's mercy to act beyond the letter of the law, and want to avoid any reference to judgment.

Mourners who would customarily say Mishnayos and Kaddish D'Rabbanan should wait until Ne'ilah is concluded.

If someone realizes during Ne'ilah that they have forgotten Minchah, they do not make up their tefillah at this time (by davening a second Amidah), but wait for ¹⁷¹ See www.asktherav.com #5583, including: “Can we buy the honor as a group and appoint one representative to have the aliyah?”

Maariv. If they fell asleep and woke up close to nightfall (tzeis hakochavim), they must daven Minchah first, even though they will miss Ne'ilah as a result. (Ne'ilah cannot be compensated by Maariv—once it is tzeis, it cannot be made up at all.)

We begin Ne'ilah in proximity to shki'ah (sunset). “Now is the concluding time of the sealing [of the decisions for the entire year] and we need to request mercy. If not now—when?”¹⁷²

NE'ILAH

AT THE GATE

This tefillah, which means “locking”, is named for the gates of the Beis Hamikdash that were locked on a fast day after the lighting of the Menorah in the evening. It is like the king's faithful servant departing from his master, but before he takes leave, has a final request. Once granted, he leaves and locks the gate behind him.

Another interpretation invokes the Heavenly gates that are being locked at the conclusion of all prayers—now, toward the end of the day—we make one final, culminating effort for teshuvah.

“The five tefillos of Yom Kippur mirror the five levels of the soul,” the Rebbe states in a maamar.¹⁷³ They are Nefesh, Ruach, Neshamah, Chayah, and Yechidah. The three major tefillos (Maariv, Shacharis, Minchah) relate to the first three, revealed levels (called Naran—נֶרֶן), while Musaf represents the less relatable Chayah. The revelation of the soul's essence, Yechidah, comes primarily at Ne'ilah. This is (another) reason it is called “Ne'ilah”, for all the gates to the inner Chamber are locked; even the loftiest, most ephemeral of Hashem's spiritual creations are denied access—the King and Yisrael remain alone.

Replace all mention of “inscribing” with “sealing”—chasmeinu b'sefer hachayim... vachasom l'chaim tovim... nizacheir v'neichaseim lifanecha. In Avinu Malkeinu, say chasmeinu b'sefer. Recite Mi chamocha av harachamim and not harachaman.

SEALED!

Torah Ohr explains that the concept of ‘sealing’ is analogous to the wax seal on the outside of an important letter. The function of the seal is to prevent a stranger from reading private correspondence and learning what might be secret information. This time, then, is the ‘seal’ that all the blessing and emanation should be directed only to the one addressed and not any stranger on the outside. This occurs at the Ne'ilah prayer of Yom Kippur, at a time when we have reached an even higher spiritual plane than is accessible through the normal route of G-dly revelation through the name Havayah.

172) Alter Rebbe's Shulchan Aruch

173) Sefer Hamaamorim Melukat, vol. 5, p. 22. See also Likkutei Sichos, vol. 4, p. 1154 (quoting this maamar) and other places.

Mention of Shabbos is added to all the tefillos of Ne'ilah, as it is still Shabbos, even if the davening continues into the night. If it is forgotten, the tefillah must be repeated. Recite the words, shabbosos kodshecha...veyanuchu bam.

Once the bracha of “mekadesh hashabbos” is said after atah bechartanu, Shabbos is not mentioned again, except by the chazzan in the repetition of the davening (if he forgets, he does not repeat it). The vidui at the conclusion of the tefillah does not recall Shabbos.

WHAT'S GOOD?

In Likkutei Sichos,¹⁷⁴ the Rebbe points out that we recite the prayer Sha'arei shamayim (“Open the gates of Heaven and open Your storehouse of that which is good for us”), while taking care to read hatov lanu as a single phrase so that it means “that which is good for us.” Otherwise, if these words are split up, the phrase can be understood as “...open Your good storehouse for us.”¹⁷⁵

We say Avinu Malkeinu at the end of Ne'ilah even though it is Shabbos, since it is the time that our fate is sealed and we must request mercy: “if not now, when?” Remember to say “chosmeinu” in the recitation of Avinu Malkeinu.

AS ONE

From a *maamar Chassidus*¹⁷⁶: Throughout Yom Kippur we can advance through the stages required halachically for teshuvah: by saying the vidui at Minchah of erev Yom Kippur, we fulfill the first step of “regretting the past”; the second step of “accepting to do better in the future” comes through the tefillos of the day. However, our teshuvah reaches an entirely new, lofty plane with the avodah of Ne'ilah, which concludes with a revelation of our inner essence of Yiddishkeit and our identity as a Jew—when we say: Shema Yisrael Hashem Elokeinu Hashem Echad! which is fundamentally a declaration of actual mesiras nefesh—the willingness to sacrifice our very lives for Hashem. This is followed by Hashem Hu HaElokim!, representing the total unity of G-dly emanation (a lofty level that is able to bring together the names Havayah and Elokim, which represent opposing expressions of His relationship with this world). We say this possuk seven times, imbuing each of seven major character traits with this truth—so that this inner, soul-level knowledge of Hashem's Oneness is acknowledged by our corporeal bodies. This engenders a firm resolution that, going forward, every action will be for a G-dly purpose exclusively.

174) vol. 29, p. 526

175) The difference is that we ask not for the kind of goodness that is appreciated only in the Heavens, but rather, for “specific kindness that is good for us in a revealed manner, so that we can appreciate its goodness in a most literal and practical sense.” See the maamar entitled Anochi Anochi 5687 (Sefer Haminhagim 5687, pp. 21ff).”

[For further information on this, see Likkutei Dibburim, vol. 1, p. 59; maamar entitled Basi l'Gani 5722; Shemu'os v'Sippurim (ed. 5750, vol. 1, p. 159), reporting on the conduct of the Rebbe Rashab when he served as chazzan during Sukkos in the year 5679.]

176) Vayaged Lecha 5691

and great bonding with Hashem, an outpouring from the depths of the heart that expresses itself with song and celebration. This can be compared to the happiness a child feels when he basks in his father's complete attention, for there is no greater joy than knowing a parent's focused, unconditional devotion, which stems from an intrinsic connection rather than any particular need or want, or even a more general kinship that is external to his true essence. It is a bonding of child and father on the level of essential connection—they are one a part of the other. This is a description of the source of joy following the avodah of the entire Yom Kippur, after declaring our allegiance with Hashem and His essential Oneness with us.

(Further in the maamar, the Frieddiker Rebbe explains how this feeling is heightened even more by the fact that the “father” and “son” had been previously lost to each other...)

JOY, JOY, JOY!

At that point (after breaking out in joy and dance), we say “L’shanah haba’ah B’Yerushalayim”. The name “Yerushalayim” is a compound of the expression yirah sheleimah—complete awe. The fact is that every Jew is potentially G-d-fearing, but their awe of Hashem is sometimes hidden. Complete awe is when the hidden aspect is revealed in a practical, mitzvah-observing awe. So, “Next year in Yerushalayim”—we are in the next (new) year and from here on, complete awe will be the paramount impetus in all our actions.

So we come to “the time of our rejoicing” following Yom Kippur, and it is a doubled and tripled joy that is comprised of—in addition to our happiness on account of the inner, essential connection—a rebonding after a long separation, of Hashem’s joy in each one of us, as a king rejoices when his only son is released from captivity and reunited with him in their essential oneness. In addition there is our joy, which is in itself threefold: we have been released from captivity; we have re-established our inner, essential connection with our Father and King; and despite the fact that we were originally sullied with sin, we are now full of mitzvos and increased merit.

THE ACME

In another maamar,¹⁷⁷ the Rebbe elaborates on special qualities of Aseres Yemei Teshuvah, which culminate in the absolute loftiness of Yom Kippur. And within Yom Kippur, we reach the height of absolute loftiness at the end of the day when we daven Ne’ilah. And within Ne’ilah itself, the peak of the height of absolute loftiness is reached at its conclusion when saying the verses of Shema—and each of us, as the Shaloh writes, meditates on our readiness to give our entire lives to sanctify Hashem’s name, and are considered to have done so in actuality. (As the Baal Shem Tov is known to say: The place where a person’s thoughts go, that is where he is found.)

SHEMA YISRAEL

At the conclusion of Ne’ilah, after proclaiming Shema Yisrael, Baruch shem, and ¹⁷⁷) B’yom Hashmini Atzeres 5740 in Sefer Hamaamrim Melukat, vol. 1, p. 372.

Hashem Hu HaElokim, the chazzan recites Kaddish tiskabel as far as da'amiran b'al'ma v'imru amein. Then Napoleon's March is sung, followed by a single blast of the shofar. The shofar should not be sounded until after nightfall. Then "L'shanah haba'ah" is called out, and the chazzan completes Kaddish tiskabel.

Once the shofar blast has ended, the aron is closed.

Recite Kavei, Ein K'Elokeinu, Pitum haketores, Kaddish D'Rabanan (le'eila just one time), Aleinu, and Kaddish Yasom, followed by Chapters 142 to 150 of Tehillim.

After nightfall, do not perform any melachah until you have recited Atah chonantanu in Maariv or baruch hamavdil bein kodesh lechol.

All the restrictions of Yom Kippur are lifted immediately upon its conclusion, which extends a brief time into the night (even when Yom Kippur falls on Shabbos). Eating remains forbidden until after Havdalah.

Recite Maariv and Havdalah while dressed in your kittel and tallis. Make sure that your tallis is only over your shoulders, not your head. Wear a hat (and not just a yarmulke) for Maariv and Havdalah. Remember to add Atah chonantanu during Maariv.

If you said Hamelech Hakadosh, Hamelech Hamishpat or Zachreinu l'chaim, etc. in Maariv by mistake, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

Do not recite Vih no'am and Ve'atah Kadosh.

MOTZOEI YOM KIPPUR

The fast ends—after Havdalah—at 7:00 pm.

After Yom Kippur, we wish each other "Gut Yom Tov!"

Before reciting Havdalah, wash your hands until the wrist, three times each, but without a blessing. Kohanim must do so as well, despite having washed in this manner in the afternoon before Birchas Kohanim. Wash your face and rinse your mouth.

HAVDALAH

Recite Havdalah as usual with spices and a flame. For the flame, use a source of fire that has remained lit from before the onset of Yom Kippur—or light a candle from such a source. We do this even when Yom Kippur falls on Shabbos. Customarily, we use both: light a second candle from the original candle that remained lit in the home throughout Yom Kippur and then use the two of them together for the blessing.

The Frierdiker Rebbe would be particular to personally perform Havdalah on motzoei Yom Kippur.

On every motzoei Shabbos, if you have no flame, you need not expend effort to obtain it to the same degree as you would pursue other mitzvos. However, on motzoei Yom Kippur, some hold that you must seek out a lit flame to recite the brachah on fire, because it emphasizes the distinction between Yom Kippur and other festivals when handling fire is permitted. In this aspect it is equal to the brachah of Havdalah when we bless Hashem who is “mavdil”—make a distinction (between holy and mundane days).

If you make Havdalah without a flame, and then fail to make the brachah on the candle at some point at night, you cannot make it up the next day or afterward.

Recite Veyiten lecha as usual after Havdalah.

A woman should recite her own Havdalah before eating if she is unable to wait for her husband to return from shul. She may use wine or grape juice, or chamar hamedinah, such as tea or coffee.

If she is unable to recite Havdalah, she may drink water in the interim (although this is not our custom regarding an ordinary Havdalah of motzoei Shabbos). If truly necessary, she may drink seltzer, and even plain tea or coffee without sugar or milk.

If you forgot to recite Havdalah before eating, or at any point in the evening thereafter, see the chart at the end of the booklet for the correct way to do it.

A man who has previously recited Havdalah may not repeat it for the sake of a woman who has not heard Havdalah. If he plans to return home after shul and recite Havdalah for his wife, he should have in mind not to fulfill his obligation with the Havdalah that he is presently hearing in shul.

If you intend to eat bread or mezonos immediately after Havdalah, and these items are on the table at which you recite Havdalah, you should cover them until you have concluded Havdalah.

The blessing you recite over the Havdalah wine (borei pri hagafen) also covers all other drinks you partake of immediately afterwards. This applies only if the other drinks were either on the table at which you recited Havdalah or if you had intended to drink them, even if you didn't consciously intend to include them in the blessing of borei pri hagafen. In either case, you can then drink them without reciting a blessing before or after. However, if the drinks were not present on the table or on your mind, they require their own brachah rishonah (shehakol), but they do not require a brachah acharonah (borei nefashos), because they will be included in the subsequent after-blessing of al hagefen.

If you intend to wash your hands for a meal immediately after reciting Havdalah and do not intend to drink additional wine during that meal, you must recite al hagefen before your meal. If you forgot to recite al hagefen before starting your meal, you should interrupt your meal to recite it. If you remember only after reciting birchas hamazon, do not recite al hagefen.

After Havdalah, we recite Kiddush Levanah, while wearing a gartel, and inside the siddur.¹⁷⁸

WHY EAT?

The Rebbe states,¹⁷⁹ “We have only just prayed Ne’ilah ... until its conclusion, Avinu Malkeinu and Shema Yisrael, etc., including L’shanah haba’ah b’Yerushalayim with the tekiah gedolah that precedes this proclamation...Coming from such an elevated spiritual position such as this, what is the frantic rush to eat?!...We should work and toil on ourselves until we are in such a position...that upon the conclusion of the holy day, we do not think about food and drink...Rather, we eat lishmah—for the sake of fulfilling the Torah’s instruction, ‘Go eat your bread in joy,’ and without mixing in the material enjoyment derived from consuming physical food!”

Upon the conclusion of Yom Kippur, a bas kol proclaims, “Go eat your bread in joy.” Eat and rejoice; it is considered a partial Yom Tov. Partake of a large and plentiful meal and dip your challah in honey. This year, it is motzoei Shabbos and this meal also serves as melaveh malka.

LAW OF REDEMPTION: BREAK FAST

When Yom Kippur falls on Shabbos, the lechem hapanim are distributed at the break of the fast. The distribution of lechem hapanim isn’t delayed until the following morning, since they were not allowed to remain on the shulchan overnight.

PREPARING FOR SUKKOS

On motzoei Yom Kippur, occupy yourself in building a sukkah. Most people do not observe this in actuality, but instead fulfill their obligation by discussing the construction of a sukkah (and studying the laws of the sukkah).

It is an obligation to be joyful and in a positive state of mind throughout all nine days of the coming festival. This is a biblical obligation that extends to a person’s wife, children, and all those associated with his family. A husband causes his wife to rejoice by purchasing clothing or jewelry for her, according to his means.

It is our duty to provide the needy with plentiful supplies for Yom Tov.

The laws for Sukkah and Lulav are detailed in Part Two of the Halachic Guide for Tishrei.

¹⁷⁸ Regarding eating before Kiddush Levanah: In Sefer Haminhagim, it seems to support the opinion that you should eat before reciting Kiddush Levanah. See also Roshei Devarim of the sichah of the first day of Sukkos, 5730. This is what the Rebbe did in 5731. But in later years, this has not been the Rebbe’s practice. See also Igros Kodesh of the Friediker Rebbe, vol. 3, p. 228.

SUNDAY, 11 TISHREI

Today in the year 5553 (1792), the Tzemach Tzedek was brought to Cheder for the first time by his grandfather, the Alter Rebbe.

This day is known as G-t's Nomen (the Name of Hashem). Go to shul early for Shacharis.

No fasting: The days between Yom Kippur and Sukkos are joyful days during which time the Jews inaugurated the mizbei'ach in the times of Shlomo Hamelech. Do not fast until after Isru Chag, with the exception of a chosson and kallah on their wedding day.

If you forgot to recite Havdalah on motzoei Yom Kippur, see the chart at the end of the booklet.

If you forgot to do Kapporos before Yom Kippur, see footnote.¹⁸⁰

Someone who pledged to give tzedakah during Yizkor should not delay fulfilling their pledge. In a number of his Igros Kodesh, the Alter Rebbe is unusually elaborate on the great importance of hurrying to pay tzedakah dues (in addition to the Torah's admonition of bal te'acher, not to delay our tzedakah dues).

This week, the Chumash/Rashi studied daily as part of Chitas is for Parashas Vezos Habrachah, for the second time.

MONDAY, 12 TISHREI

Today is the hilula (anniversary of the passing) of the tzaddik Reb Avraham "the Malach," the son of the Maggid of Mezritch, who passed away in 5537 (1776).

Shacharis: The beginning of Parshas Vezos Habrachah is read.

TUESDAY, 13 TISHREI

L'chatchila Ariber

Today is the yom hilula (anniversary of the passing) of the Rebbe Maharash, who passed away in 5643 (1882).

WEDNESDAY NIGHT, 14 TISHREI

If you have not yet recited Kiddush Levanah this month, do so tonight.

Me'ein Shalosh - Rosh Hashanah & Shabbos Shuvah

forgot to say זכרנו or רצוה לטובה	before saying Hashem's name at the end of the brachah	return to say זוכרנו לטובה or רצוה & conclude as usual
	after saying Hashem's name at the end of the brachah	do nothing; I am yoitze ¹²

The Additions for Aseres Yemei Teshuvah

I forgot שיר המעלות	before starting יוצר אור or answering ברכו	say שיר המעלות now
	after starting יוצר אור ¹³ or answering ברכו	don't interrupt; say it when you conclude davening
Chazzan forgot שיר המעלות	after Kaddish	don't interrupt; say it when davening concludes forgot זכרנו, מי כמוך, וכתוב, ובספר	before saying Hashem's name at the end of the brachah	say it now and then continue where you are holding forgot זכרנו, מי כמוך, וכתוב, ובספר	after saying Hashem's name at the end of the brachah	don't say it said האל	before saying הקדוש	say המלך הקדוש ¹⁴ said האל הקדוש	within k'dei dibbur ¹	immediately say המלך הקדוש
	after k'dei dibbur ¹	start ¹⁵ the Amidah again ¹⁶
	after starting the next brachah ¹⁷	start ¹⁵ the Amidah again ¹⁶ can't remember if I said המלך הקדוש ¹⁸	within k'dei dibbur ¹	immediately say המלך הקדוש
	after k'dei dibbur ¹	start ¹⁵ the Amidah again ¹⁶
	after starting the next brachah	start ¹⁵ the Amidah again ¹⁶

Notes

12. even when saying Al Hamichya on mezanos, except if the mezanos is eaten instead of bread (in which case you repeat Al Hamichya) on the nights of Rosh Hashanah

13. even if you only uttered "Baruch"

14. past the time of k'dei dibbur as well.

15. You must first wait k'dei hiluch daled amos (the time it takes to walk six feet) before restarting the Amidah.

16. On Rosh Hashanah during Musaf, repeat the entire Amidah (including the extra three brachos).

On motzoei Shabbos Shuvah repeat Atah Chonantanu. On Tzom Gedaliah during Minchah (and the for chazzan, during Shacharis as well), repeat Aneinu. In Minchah of erev Yom Kippur, and all five tefillas of Yom Kippur itself, say Vidui again.

If you already removed your tefillin after Shacharis on a weekday, it's proper to don them again before repeating the Amidah.

If you remember after the time has arrived for the next tefillah, say the Amidah, and then repeat it to make up for the earlier one.

However, if you err in Musaf, and night has already fallen, do not repeat the Amidah by Maariv. (The same applies to Ne'ilah after Yom Kippur; it cannot be compensated.)

If, on motzoei Yom Kippur, you realize that you made a mistake in Minchah that day, you may repeat the Amidah after Maariv, but only as a tefillas nedavah (a "bonus", i.e., non-obligatory).

The earlier tefillah can only be compensated as long as you are occupied with the following one; once you have finished davening, you are no longer able to make it up. See details (in Hebrew) on #25750

17. This holds true for Shacharis as well, even if you remember after you davened Musaf.

18. However, if you know for certain that you said the entire section of L'dor vador (especially if davening from a machzor), you can assume you said the brachah correctly and do not have to repeat it. If you are uncertain, repeat it.

19. It is a good idea to repeat the Amidah as a tefillas nedavah in this situation after you've concluded it.

What did I do?	When did I remember?	Now I should...
on Rosh Hashanah & Yom Kippur forgot to say לדור ודור on Yom Tov	before saying Hashem's name at the end of the brachah	say לדור ודור now and continue as usual after saying Hashem's name at the end of the brachah	say המלך הקדוש now and then continue with בחרתנו אתה on a weekday said מלך אוהב צדקה ומשפט	within k'dei dibbur ¹	immediately say המשפט
	after k'dei dibbur ¹	do not say it now or start over ¹⁹
on Shabbos Shuvah or Yom Kippur said הא-ל הקדוש in מגן אבות	before saying Hashem's name at the end of the brachah	say המלך הקדוש and continue as usual
	after saying Hashem's name at the end of the brachah	do not repeat the repetition

on Rosh Hashanah & Yom Kippur
said weekday brachos	after saying just the word אתה חונן אתה ²⁰	say בחרתנו מכל העמים and continue as usual in middle of a brachah ²¹	finish the brachah ²² you are saying then go to בחרתנו אתה
	after starting רצה	interrupt and start בחרתנו אתה
	after המחזיר שכינתו לציון but before מודים	say יעלה ויבוא now and then continue with מודים ²³
	after starting מודים but before concluding ²⁴ the second יהיו לרצון ²⁵	Say אתה בחרתנו now ²⁸ and continue with the rest of the Amidah
	after the second יהיו לרצון ²⁶	start ¹⁵ the Amidah again ²⁷

Notes

20. Even once you've started the next word but did not finish it ("choi—" or "chain—") you may switch to the Yom Tov davening. However, if you are not sure whether you completed the word, you must conclude the brachah.

21. This applies to any of the weekday brachos in the Amidah.

22. If you mistakenly did not conclude a weekday brachah before starting Atah B'chartanu and you already concluded the brachah, you cannot go back and conclude that brachah.

23. This applies if you are certain that you said Hamelech Hakadosh. If not, or you are unsure, you repeat the Amidah.

24. even if you already said Hashem's name, you should stop and go back to בחרתנו אתה

25. If you started אלקי נצור and the chazzan reached Kedushah, you should answer and then you can go back to בחרתנו אתה.

26. and you have also made the decision not to lengthen your tefillah with extra requests and supplications.

27. On Rosh Hashanah during Musaf, repeat the entire Amidah (including the extra three brachos).

On Yom Kippur, say Vidui again.

If you remember after the time has arrived for the next tefillah, say the Amidah, and then repeat it to make up for the earlier one.

If, on motzoei Yom Kippur, you realize that you made a mistake in Minchah that day, you may repeat the Amidah after Maariv, but only as a tefillas nedavah (a "bonus", i.e., non-obligatory).

However, if you err in Musaf, and night has already fallen, do not repeat the Amidah by Maariv. (The same applies to Ne'ilah after Yom Kippur; it cannot be compensated.)

The earlier tefillah can only be compensated as long as you are occupied with the following one; once you have finished davening, you are no longer able to make it up. See details (in Hebrew) on www.asktherav.com #25750

What did I do?	When did I remember?	Now I should...
recited the weekday Amidah ²⁹ on Rosh Hashanah	-	I'm yotze if I mentioned Rosh Hashanah ²³ (יעלה ויבוא in)
	-	recite the correct Amidah if I did not mention Rosh Hashanah at all
	-	recite the correct Amidah if I'm not sure I mentioned Rosh Hashanah
	after already reciting Musaf (if for Shacharis)	cannot daven Shacharis again recited the weekday Amidah ²⁹ on Yom Kippur	-	I'm yotze if I mentioned Shabbos & Yom Kippur ²³ (יעלה ויבוא in)
	-	recite the correct Amidah with the additions for Shabbos if I did not mention Shabbos or Yom Kippur at all
	-	recite the Yom Kippur Amidah with the additions for Shabbos if I'm not sure I mentioned Shabbos or Yom Kippur
	after already reciting Musaf (if for Shacharis)	cannot daven Shacharis again recited the Shabbos Amidah	in middle of the brachah for Shabbos	interrupt and start אתה בחרתנו
	after saying Hashem's name at the end of the middle brachah	interrupt and start אתה בחרתנו
	after completing the brachah for Shabbos	say אתה בחרתנו again
	after starting רצה	interrupt and start אתה בחרתנו
	after המחזיר שכינתו לצינן but before מודים	on Rosh Hashanah: interrupt and return to אתה בחרתנו on Yom Kippur: say יעלה ויבוא now & then continue with ²³ מודים
	after starting מודים but before concluding ²⁴ the second ²⁵ יהיו לרצון	say אתה בחרתנו again after the second ²⁶ יהיו לרצון	repeat ¹⁵ the Amidah ^{27, 29}

Notes

28. Even if you mentioned Yom Tov in ya'aleh veyavo, you are not yotze.

29. If you're unsure if you davened for weekday or Yom Tov, the halachah is inconclusive whether you should repeat the Amidah. Instead, listen to the chazzan's repetition with the intent to be yotze through him.

What did I do?	When did I remember?	Now I should...

	after concluding the brachah	Maariv or Minchah: return to אתה בחרתנו finish Musaf and daven another (correct) Amidah for Shacharis

30. If you concluded in the correct way with מקדש ישראל ויום הזכרון, it is still best to listen to the chazzan's repetition with the intent to be yotze through him. If you concluded with מקדש השבת וישראל ויום הזכרון: within k'dei dibbur, say the correct version immediately. If k'dei dibbur has passed, go back to Atah B'chartanu.

31. During Maariv, do not rely on me'ein sheva.

		not daven again ⁴³ if I didn't eat, even if I did melachah by mistake.

Notes

39. If you concluded with מקדש השבת וישראל ויום הזכרון within k'dei dibbur, say the correct version immediately. If k'dei dibbur has passed, repeat the brachah correctly.

40. If k'dei dibbur has passed. Within k'dei dibbur, say מקדש השבת וישראל ויום הכפורים immediately.

41. or mezonos on cake

42. If there is no other Havdalah to listen to, you should repeat Havdalah correctly yourself and make a בורא פני הגפן again.

43. You are, however, still prohibited from work until you say: הרוך המבדיל בין קודש לחול.

	after k'dei dibbur ¹ but before concluding ⁴⁴ the second יהיו לרצון	chazzan goes back to the beginning of the brachah of ראה
	after the second יהיו לרצון	chazzan goes back to the beginning of the repetition
The chazzan forgot עננו	before saying Hashem's name at the end of the brachah of רפאנו	interrupt & say עננו, then start רפאנו from the beginning after saying Hashem's name at the end of the brachah of רפאנו	say שמע קולנו in עננו (like in the silent Amidah of Minchah) and conclude with: העונה בעת צרה ושומע תפלה ⁴⁵
	after saying Hashem's name for שומע תפלה	recite it as an independent tefillah after שלום
	after concluding the chazzan's repetition	he should not say it now nor repeat the Amidah
I forgot עננו	after saying Hashem's name for שומע תפלה	say it after אלקי נצור (before the second יהיו לרצון) but without the concluding brachah
	after the second יהיו לרצון ²⁶	not say it now nor repeat the Amidah
I did not continue after כי אתה שומע בכל עת צרה וצוקה	after saying Hashem's name	say שומע תפלה now, and I'm yotze
I concluded with ברוך אתה ה' העונה לעמו ישראל	within k'dei dibbur ¹	שומע תפלה
	after k'dei dibbur ¹	say שמע קולנו again
I said עננו in a separate ברכה after גואל ישראל (like a chazzan)	-	not repeat it again in שמע קולנו
did not daven Minchah	-	I daven Maariv twice, the first is for Maariv & the second as compensation ⁴⁶

What did I do?	When did I remember?	Now I should...
----------------	----------------------	-----------------

Krias Hatorah of Minchah

recited Kaddish post-reading or post- Haftorah	-	skip the Kaddish before the Amidah returned the Torah to the aron before saying the Haftorah	-	say the Haftorah now (with the Torah remaining inside)

Yom Kippur Amidah (& Erev Yom Kippur Minchah)

forgot to say vidui	-	say it after concluding the Amidah
----------------------------	---	---

After Yom Kippur

said המלך הקדוש or המלך המשפט	within k'dei dibbur ¹	immediately say the correct words
	after k'dei dibbur ¹	do not say it now nor repeat the Amidah said זכרנו לחיים	before saying וכתבנו	stop & continue the regular Amidah
	after saying וכתבנו	conclude the Amidah & then repeat it as a tefillah nedavah ¹⁵ said מי כמוך	-	continue the regular Amidah said וכתוב	-	conclude the Amidah & then repeat it as a tefillah nedavah ¹⁵ said ובספר	before saying ונכתב	stop & continue the regular Amidah said ובספר	after saying ונכתב	conclude the Amidah & then repeat it as a tefillah nedavah ¹⁵

Notes

44. even if you already said Hashem's name, you should stop and go back to ראה.

45. If you concluded with שומע תפילה, you are yotze.

46. don't say עננו in both

Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet beverages and send portions to those who have nothing prepared, for today is sacred to Hashem!

TZEDAKAH “GIFTS”

• The acronym of ‘Elul’ which alludes to giving Tzedakah is found in the verse (Esther 9:22), “[Sending portions,] each man to his friend, and gifts to the poor.” The Tzedakah that we distribute during Elul should assume the quality of “gifts (i.e., something of worth) to the poor”; both the amount and the quality of that which is given should be something that both the donor and the recipient consider of value.

PREPARE NEEDY FOR UPCOMING FESTIVALS

• It is during Elul that we prepare for Rosh Hashanah and all the other festivals of the month of Tishrei. It is only correct that we should now provide all who are needy with whatever is necessary for all of the coming festivals – beginning with their Rosh Hashanah needs and then their Erev Yom Kippur, Motze Yom Kippur etc. requirements.

THIRTY DAYS IN ADVANCE

• We should publicize everywhere – this includes those who go to speak at other congregations – that the drive to provide Sukkos requirements to all who are in need of them should begin thirty days before Sukkos.

FOR ROSH HASHANAH TOO

• Moreover, we should begin a drive for Rosh Hashanah thirty days in advance too – since we find that the prophet Nechemya instructed the Jewish people on Rosh Hashanah, “Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet beverages and send portions to those who have nothing prepared, for today is sacred to Hashem!” (Nechemya 8:10).
