

Hidden ↔ Revealed

“Some truths are not seen until we seek them.”

The light within has always been there—hiddenness is only a stage before illumination.

Broken ↔ Whole

“Wholeness isn’t about avoiding brokenness—it’s about returning the missing piece.”

The Afikoman teaches us that even what is concealed and fractured is part of the path to completion.

Faith ↔ Understanding

“Faith is the center; understanding flows outward—and then returns inward to deepen the core.”

True insight begins in simple faith and expands, but must circle back to nourish the soul’s foundation.
