🕍 BUILDING THE SUKKAH

It is preferable for every family to have their own personal Sukkah, rather than rely on a shared or communal Sukkah.

One may not use Maaser for his own Sukkah, but may use it to provide a Sukkah for others, for the Shule's Sukkah, or for Mivtzoim.

It is a Mitzvah to build the Sukkah on the day after Yom Kippur.

It is not Chabad custom to be particular about building the Sukkah personally.

The Sukkah should consist of four proper and complete walls. If this is not possible, the Sukkah should be made of three complete walls. If any of the three walls are incomplete – whether vertically or horizontally – the Kashrus of the Sukkah should be reviewed by one knowledgeable in the relevant Halachos.

A roof at the edge of the Sukkah does not disqualify it, provided it is less than four Amos (192cm) wide, and the wall of the Sukkah extends at least to the height of the Schach. The same applies when there is an eave or roof overhanging the Sukkah, but with the additional requirement that the Schach (or some other material at the same height as the Schach) continues all the way to the wall of the Sukkah. Of course, one does not fulfil the Mitzvah of Sukkah under these areas (unless they are less than four Tefachim – 32cm – wide).

The Sukkah must be sturdy enough to remain stationary during an ordinary gust of wind. [Canvas or fabric walls are not ideal, as they flap in the wind. Even if "Lavud straps" are used, they may loosen without anyone noticing. If such walls are used, one should constantly ensure that the "Lavud straps" are very tight at all times, and that they surround the Sukkah on all four sides, and not just three.]

If the Sukkah is detached from the house, it is ideal to set up a washing station near the Sukkah in order to minimize any interruption between Kiddush, Netilas Yadayim, and the Seudah. [The water should not drain onto earth or grass.]

It is not Chabad custom to use floorboards by default. However, it is proper not to build the Sukkah over earth or grass without floorboards. Otherwise, on Shabbos and Yom Tov, great care must be taken that liquids do not spill onto the grass, pips or seeds do not fall to the ground, and the ground is neither swept nor levelled in any way.

🕍 LOCATION OF THE SUKKAH

One should ensure that there are no tree branches hanging over the site of the Sukkah. [A Rav should be consulted about trimming branches of a fruit-bearing tree.]

According to Halacha, if a tree on another property prevents one from building a Sukkah on his property, he may cut down the neighbour's overhanging branches as required. [Of course, in the interest of neighbourly relations, it is wise to discuss it with him beforehand.] However, the neighbour cannot be forced to pay the costs without prior agreement. The branches (and their disposal) belong to the neighbour.

If anything is suspended above the Schach – e.g. tree branches, clotheslines, cables, wires, crossbeams or pergolas – the Kashrus of the Sukkah should be reviewed by one well-versed in the relevant Halachos.

The Sukkah is invalid if it was built in a place which is insect-infested, foul-smelling, unsafe or otherwise uncomfortable from the outset.

One should avoid building a Sukkah on public property, someone else's property, or commonly owned property, without the appropriate permissions. Similarly, a Sukkah should not directly block the neighbour's windows without permission. A stationary Sukkah mobile should be parked legally.

🕍 THE SCHACH

The Schach is comprised of detached inedible plant matter which was never susceptible to Tumah.

The Schach should not be prone to excessive shrinkage or leaf shedding, to the degree that insufficient Schach remains by the end of Sukkos. [If this requirement was not met, the Sukkah is disqualified from the outset.]

The Schach should not cause discomfort to the Sukkah's inhabitants, e.g. if it smells foul or sheds leaves constantly. [If this requirement was not met and the Sukkah is already built, it may be used.]

One should purchase Schach only from a reliable vendor who ensures that there is no concern of Gezel.

It is customary not to use construction timber for Schach.

A mat may be used as Schach only if it has been manufactured for shade or fencing, and not for sitting or lying down on.

🕍 LAYING THE SCHACH

The Sukkah walls should all be assembled before the Schach is put on.

The Schach should be detached from its place of growth before being laid over the Sukkah. Schach bundles containing more than 25 pieces should be unbundled prior to being laid out over the Sukkah. [If this requirement was not met, the Kashrus of the Schach depends on many factors.]

If the Sukkah has a rain cover, one should ensure that the Sukkah is uncovered when the Schach is laid out. Similarly, Schach on a Sukkah mobile should be placed (or replaced) only when there is no roof or tree overhead.

If necessary, one may lay the Schach beneath overhanging tree branches before cutting those branches.

The Schach must either be laid within thirty days of Sukkos, or must be laid expressly for the sake of the Mitzvah of Sukkos. [If these criteria were not met, one may correct it in retrospect by either lifting and replacing all of the Schach, or by adding new Schach over an area at least 8cmx8cm, or by adding any amount of Schach that extends across the entire width or breadth of the Sukkah.]

The Schach should be laid on the Sukkah by a Jewish male over Bar Mitzvah (who is obligated in the Mitzvah of Sukkah). After the fact, if it was laid out by anyone else, a Jewish male over Bar Mitzvah should pick up and put down at least one piece.

It is Chabad custom to use lots of Schach, but not to the point that it is watertight. A small hole is left somewhere in the Schach for the stars to be seen. At a minimum, the Schach should create more shade than sunlight.

There should be no gap of airspace in the Schach exceeding 24cmx24cm. [A larger gap is sometimes acceptable, but that depends on many factors. The Mitzvah of Sukkah is in any case not fulfilled beneath it, so it is best avoided.]

The Schach must be sturdy enough to remain intact during an ordinary gust of wind. [If in an enclosed place, the Schach must still be sturdy enough to withstand the wind were it an exposed place. Otherwise, it must be secured in an acceptable manner (see the section "SUPPORTING THE SCHACH"). This is of special concern when using mats.

If Schach blows out of place on Yom Tov or Shabbos, one may not fix it, since the Schach is Muktzeh. However, if the Sukkah is no longer Kosher (or its status is questionable), one should consult with a Rav as to whether a Goy can fix it.

🌀 SUPPORTING THE SCHACH

The Schach should not be directly secured or supported by any object which is unfit to be used as Schach. [Examples: Metal rods or cables, nails, cable ties, nylon thread, nearby trees, processed fibre thread, ropes.] However, these materials may be used to secure or support the Schach indirectly (e.g. by securing or supporting the beams beneath the Schach).

The Schach may be tied down with reeds or unprocessed fibre threads, and may also be directly supported by the Sukkah walls (or any adjacent walls or roofs).

Although construction timber is not used for Schach, it may be used to directly support or secure the Schach.

A Schach mat may be used when strung together with unprocessed fibre threads. If strung together with processed fibres or metal threads, it may still be used if laid out so that the individual reeds will remain in place even without the threads. [E.g. the mat reeds should be laid perpendicular to the supporting beams, with several beams placed on top to hold the mat down.]

If one did not adhere to any of the requirements listed in this section and the Sukkah is already built, it may be used and there is no obligation to fix it.

🌀 LAWS OF MAKING AN OHEL

On Yom Tov or Shabbos, it is forbidden to fully create or remove a temporary "roof" whose purpose is to provide any sort of shelter. However, this restriction applies only when the airspace beneath this Ohel is at least one Tefach (8cm) high. Therefore, one may use a rain cover without restriction if it lies directly on top of the Schach.

If one wishes to use a rain cover that will be raised at least one Tefach higher than the Schach, or which will be spread below the Schach, one must ensure that it is extended at least one Tefach across the width of the entire Sukkah (in addition to any space taken up by the actual roll) before Yom Tov. This minimal amount must remain open for the entire duration of Yom Tov and Shabbos.

A rain cover which is designed like a hinged door may be used on Shabbos and Yom Tov without restriction.

When removing the rain cover on Shabbos or Yom Tov, one should ensure that any water remaining on it does not pour onto grass or earth, unless the ground is still completely saturated from the rain.

When using a rain cover of any type, one must ensure that the Sukkah is uncovered when the Schach is laid out, as well as at the onset of Yom Tov (i.e. from sunset until Tzeis). One should also remember to open the cover whenever the Sukkah is used.

On Yom Tov or Shabbos, one may set up a temporary partition for shelter or privacy. One may not do so if it is required to validate the Sukkah, but one may ask a Goy to do so. [This is most frequently an issue when the primary walls of the Sukkah are hinged or foldable.]

🌀 THE SUKKAH AND DECORATIONS

Unless absolutely unavoidable, the Sukkah should not be dismantled or made unusable until after Simchas Torah.

It is not Chabad custom for the Sukkah to be decorated. Nevertheless, if decorations or decorative chains are hung from the Schach, they should extend no more than 4 Tefachim (32cm) below the Schach.

Sukkah decorations are Muktzeh on Shabbos and Yom Tov, and no personal benefit may be derived from them until after Simchas Torah, even if they fall off. These prohibitions can be avoided by verbalizing the following stipulation before the onset of Sukkos: "I do not separate myself from using the decorations any time I desire."

Similarly, the Sukkah walls and Schach are Muktzeh on Shabbos and Yom Tov. Until after Simchas Torah, one may not derive personal benefit from them in a manner that disrupts their primary use, such as snapping off a sliver of wood to use as a toothpick. [One may rest items on, or in, the walls of the Sukkah, since this does not disturb their function.] These restrictions apply even if the Sukkah is dismantled during Sukkos (e.g. a Sukkah mobile).

A verbal stipulation is ineffective in permitting the Schach. A verbal stipulation also does not help with regard to the walls of a Sukkah built prior to Yom Tov. However, if a Sukkah is built during Chol Hamoied and will be dismantled before the last days of Yom Tov (e.g. a Sukkah mobile), its walls remain permitted if one verbalized the following stipulation before first sitting in the Sukkah: "I do not separate myself from using the walls any time I desire."

All the prohibitions in this section only apply after at least one male over Bar Mitzvah (who is obligated in the Mitzvah of Sukkah) sat in the Sukkah at least once for the sake of the Mitzvah.

🌀 CHOOSING THE DALED MINIM

One should only buy the Daled Minim from a reliable vendor who verifies that they are not grafted, and that there is no concern of Gezel, Shemitah, Tevel and Orlah. One should not buy the Daled Minim from a child under Bar Mitzvah, as he does not have the Halachic capacity to transfer ownership.

It is not Chabad custom to be particular about paying for the Daled Minim before Sukkos. [Of course, this is acceptable only with the vendor's agreement.]

One should endeavour to purchase a Daled Minim set which is Mehudar (beautiful). It is not appropriate to boast about the beauty of one's set.

It is Chabad custom to use an Esrog of the Calabria ("Yanove") variety that actually grew in Calabria. The next best option is an Esrog of that lineage even if it grew elsewhere.

The Esrog is preferably yellow, like beeswax, rather than green.

An Esrog is acceptable if the Pittam fell off due to natural causes whilst still on the tree. [An indentation in the place of the Pittam generally indicates that it fell off whilst the Esrog was still growing.]

If the Pittam fell off after the Esrog was detached from the tree, it is acceptable only if the base of the Pittam is still intact and protrudes above the tip of the Esrog.

Greater emphasis is placed on the beauty of the actual Esrog than on whether it is missing a Pittam (in a Halachically acceptable manner).

Blechlach (leaf marks) and light red/brown discolouration do not disqualify an Esrog.

White, black or deep red/brown discolouration that can be seen at first glance when the Esrog is held at arm's length: If located on the upper side of the Esrog, from the area where the Esrog begins to slope inwards, it is Possul. If located on the underside of the Esrog in the area of the stem, it is Kosher. If located anywhere else, it is Kosher – unless the discolouration spans the majority, or there are two such spots (or more).

One must purchase a Lulav whose central leaf is completely closed. Nevertheless, the Lulav may still be used if a minority of the central leaf split. On Chol Hamoied, it may be used even if the central leaf completely split, as long as the actual spine is intact.

If the top of the central leaf is covered with "Moch", it is considered closed.

The Lulav is acceptable if its tip is sunburnt, but not if it is snipped.

Preferably, the Lulav:

- Is not rounded at the top (“Knepplach”).
- Has “Moch” (bark).
- Is tall and straight.
- Has a straight and well-centred spine.
- Is not thin.

It is best to select Hadassim and Aravos whose leaves are all intact and fresh.

Chabad custom is to add at least three extra Hadassim to the basic minimum of three.

There are many other Halachos relevant to the Kashrus of the Daled Minim. If in doubt, approval should be sought from someone well-versed in the relevant Halachos.

It is best that a separate Daled Minim set be purchased for a boy under Bar Mitzvah if he is old enough to perform the Na’anuim. (For more details, see the section “OWNERSHIP OF DALED MINIM”.)

It is not Chabad custom to store the Daled Minim in elaborate containers.

One may not use Maaser for his own (or his dependent’s) Daled Minim, but may use it to arrange sets for others, or for Mivtzoim.

🌀 BINDING THE DALED MINIM

Ideally, one personally binds the Daled Minim in the Sukkah on Erev Sukkos.

Five rings are used when binding the Lulav. These are all prepared before binding the Lulav. [Lulav baskets are not used.]

Two rings are placed on the Lulav itself. These are positioned so that the Hadassim and Aravos obscure them (at least partially).

Three rings are used to bind the lower end of the Lulav with the Hadassim and Aravos. These three rings should span no more than a Tefach (8cm).

With the Lulav lying horizontally and the spine facing upward, the Hadassim are positioned, one to the right, one to the left, and one on the actual spine, inclined slightly to the right. [The same pattern is followed for any additional Hadassim.] One Aravah is positioned to the right of the Lulav, and the other to the left. The Aravos should be obscured by the Hadassim. The bottom of the Hadassim and Aravos should be flush with the bottom of the Lulav.

When binding, one must ensure that the Lulav spine extends at least another Tefach above the Hadassim and Aravos. [The Lulav spine ends at the point where leaves no longer branch out of the middle leaf.]

If necessary, the Hadassim and Aravos may be shortened, ensuring that they remain at least three Tefachim (24cm) in length, as measured from the top of the stem to the bottom leaf. Shortening the Hadassim and Aravos must be done from the bottom of the stem. If shortened at the top, the Aravos are Possul, while the Hadassim should not be used unless there are no others available.

If the Lulav was not bound on Erev Yom Tov, or became undone, one may not make the usual rings on Yom Tov. However, one may wrap a Lulav leaf around and around, and insert the tip into this makeshift “ring” without tying or making a knot.

🌀 EREV SUKKOS (EREV SHABBOS)

On Erev Sukkos, one should not donate blood or undergo any procedures or tests involving blood loss. [This does not apply in cases of great need, and certainly not when it is Pikuach Nefesh.]

On Erev Sukkos, one should not eat (a meal) in the Sukkah.

The Mitzvah of V’Samechta B’Chagecha entails consuming meat, wine and delicacies; providing new clothing or jewellery for one’s wife according to his means; and giving sweets to the children. These should be arranged in advance.

One may not launder on Chol Hamoied. Therefore, any laundry should be done before Sukkos.

When necessary, one should have a haircut in honour of Sukkos.

Nails should be trimmed in honour of Yom Tov. [Another reason to trim them on Erev Sukkos is because they otherwise cannot be trimmed on Chol Hamoied.]

One immerses in a Mikvah after midday.

Yom Tov is an especially appropriate time for guests. This is emphasized on Sukkos, because the Sukkah’s function is to unite all Klal Yisroel. Additionally, hosting guests is especially connected to the Ushpizin.

It is forbidden to begin a full meal of bread once the tenth Halachic hour of the day begins (3:15pm), in order to properly enjoy the meal of the first night. However, one may snack in small quantities.

Even though all meals will be eaten in the Sukkah, a tablecloth should be placed on the table in the house in honour of Yom Tov.

One should give Tzedakah on Erev Sukkos. The Rebbe emphasized that the Yom Tov requirements of the needy be met, including a set of Daled Minim and a Sukkah.

An Eruv Chatzeiros should be arranged if it is needed to carry between one’s home and the Sukkah on Shabbos.

The Daled Minim are Muktzeh on Shabbos, so they should be put away in a suitable place beforehand.

One should arrange a pre-existing flame with which to light the candles on the second night of Sukkos.

Prior to candle-lighting, one should give Tzedakah for the two days of Yom Tov.

Since the first night of Sukkos is Shabbos, the candles should be lit at the usual eighteen minutes before sunset (6:01pm), and certainly not after sunset (6:19pm).

The Brochos are L’Hadlik Ner Shel Shabbos v’Sel Yom Tov, followed by Shehecheyanu. [If one mistakenly omitted either Shabbos or Yom Tov entirely – if she realized within the time frame it takes to say three words, she corrects her mistake. Otherwise, there is a debate whether to repeat the Brocho, and how. One should take great care to avoid this dilemma in the first place. If one forgot Shehecheyanu, she should have in mind to be Yotzei during Kiddush.]

When a man is required to light candles, he does not recite Shehecheyanu, as he will be doing so in Kiddush.

Since the candles cannot be moved on Shabbos, they may be lit in the Sukkah and the husband may move them back into the house after a short while (before Shabbos begins), preferably to a place where they can be seen from the Sukkah. One should ensure that practical benefit is derived from the candles after nightfall.

It is common for tables in the Sukkah to be moved around. Therefore, if the Shabbos candles will remain on a Sukkah table, one should place Challos there from candle-lighting until Tzeis Hakochavim (6:46pm). This prevents the table from becoming a “Bossis” which may not be moved on Shabbos.

If lighting at home but eating the Seudah elsewhere, one must ensure that practical benefit is derived from the candles after nightfall (such as arranging for someone to eat by their light, or lighting in a location that needs to be used and would otherwise remain dark).

As on every Erev Shabbos, Hoidu and Posach Eliyahu are recited before Mincha.

🌀 FIRST NIGHT MAARIV

Kabbolas Shabbos begins with Mizmor L’Dovid and not with L’chu Neranenah. In Lecho Dodi, we say B’Simcha U’vetzahala.

All the Shabbos selections are added in the Shmoneh Esrei of Sukkos. If one did not make any mention of Shabbos in the middle Brocho, or if he mistakenly davened the regular Shmoneh Esrei of Shabbos: If he did not yet say the second Yih’yu L’ratzon (at the end of the passage of Elokai N’tzor), he should return to the beginning of the middle Brocho (i.e. Atoh Vechartonu). Otherwise, he must repeat Shmoneh Esrei. [The same applies to all other Tefillos of the day.]

After Shmoneh Esrei, the usual Shabbos selections are recited – Vayechulu, the Brocho of Me'ein Sheva and Mizmor L'Dovid.

🕯 FIRST NIGHT KIDDUSH

The custom to avoid making Kiddush between the sixth and seventh hour on Friday night applies on Sukkos as well.

Shalom Aleichem and Eishes Chayil (as well as all the other selections prior to Kiddush) are recited in an undertone. Yom Hashishi is then recited aloud, followed by Hagofen and the Sukkos Kiddush (including the Shabbos additions).

During Kiddush on the first night, Leisheiv Basukkah is recited before Shehecheyanu, as the Shehecheyanu pertains to the Mitzvah of eating in the Sukkah as well. One should have this Mitzvah in mind when reciting Shehecheyanu, in addition to having the Kiddush of Yom Tov in mind.

A woman who needs to make her own Kiddush does not say Shehecheyanu, as she already recited it at candle-lighting.

It would appear that Azamer Bishvachin is not recited, even though it is Friday night.

The householder leads the Mezuman, as on every Friday night.

🕯 FIRST TWO NIGHTS OF SUKKOS

Throughout Sukkos, there is no Torah obligation to eat in the Sukkah if one chooses to avoid foods and quantities that require it. The exception is the first two nights of Sukkos. Therefore, the meals on these nights must begin after Tzeis Hakochavim (6:46pm).

Women who hear Kiddush in the Sukkah but choose to eat in the house should first eat a kezayis of bread or Mezonos in the Sukkah, or drink a revi'is (86ml) of grape juice or wine. This is because Kiddush must be heard in the same place where the meal begins. Alternatively, they should stand in the place where they will eat and hear Kiddush from there. [Although this is an absolute requirement only when the Sukkah is detached from the house, it is still preferable to act accordingly when the Sukkah is attached to the house.]

At least a kezayis of bread must be eaten before midnight (12:11am). [A kezayis is a measurement of volume equal to the displacement of 29ml of water. In practice, if a food is less dense than water, 29 grams is certainly more than a kezayis.] This kezayis is eaten in the shortest time frame possible, and at the very least, within nine minutes.

While eating the kezayis, one should intend to fulfil the special obligation of eating in the Sukkah on the first night(s). This is in addition to the intention that this Mitzvah commemorates the Exodus from Egypt (as explained later).

During each Yom Tov meal of Sukkos, the Challah is dipped (three times) in honey. [More than a K'beitzah must be eaten, as on every Yom Tov and Shabbos.]

One should drink (a revi'is of) wine every day of Sukkos. Those who do not make their own Kiddush should be mindful of this.

Simchas Beis Hashoeva celebrations begin on the first night, and are conducted throughout Sukkos, with singing, clapping and dancing.

🕯 YA'ALEH VEYAVO IN BENTCHING

If one forgets Retzei (on the first night and day) and/or Ya'aleh Veyavo: If he remembers before saying Hashem's name at the end of Bonei Yerushalayim, he goes back. If he remembers after that, but before beginning the next Brocho, he recites the extra Brocho printed in the Bentcher. [There are three separate Brochos – one if only Retzei was forgotten, another if only Ya'aleh Veyavo was forgotten, and a third when both were forgotten.] If one already began even the first word (Boruch) of the next Brocho, one must begin bentching again if it is Yom Tov, but not if it is Chol Hamoied.

The Horachamon additions are recited in this order:

1. Shabbos (on the first night and day)
2. Yom Tov (first two nights and days)
3. Sukkos (all seven nights and days)

On Chol Hamoied, only the Horachamon for Sukkos is recited.

🕯 BROCHO OF LEISHEIV BASUKKAH

The Brocho of Leisheiv Basukkah is recited only when eating more than a K'beitzah of Hamotzie or Mezonos. [A K'beitzah is a measurement of volume equal to the displacement of 57ml of water.] A K'beitzah can be consumed more expediently with cake than cookies or biscuits.

One first recites Hamotzie or Mezonos, followed by Leisheiv Basukkah, whilst seated. If one forgets Leisheiv Basukkah, he recites it as soon as he remembers. Even if he has already finished eating, he still recites the Brocho as long as he is still in the Sukkah.

One should look at the Schach before reciting the Brocho of Leisheiv Basukkah.

When one drinks wine or grape juice, or any other beverage typically sipped at length or enjoyed with company (such as tea, coffee and other alcoholic beverages), one does not recite Leisheiv Basukkah. However, it is best to drink such beverages after already reciting Leisheiv Basukkah on Hamotzie or Mezonos.

After one has already recited Leisheiv Basukkah, he must recite it again if:

- He left the Sukkah for an hour or two – even without intending to be away that long.
- He intended to be away from the Sukkah for an hour or two – even if he returned sooner than planned.
- He visits another Sukkah. Even if he began a meal in the first Sukkah with the intention of finishing it in the second Sukkah (in which case a new Brocho on bread is not required), he still needs to recite Leisheiv Basukkah. [In many instances, Leisheiv Basukkah is required when visiting another Sukkah even without eating there. To avoid confusion, the custom is to always eat more than a K'beitzah of Hamotzie or Mezonos when visiting another Sukkah.]

Although women are exempt from the Mitzvah of Sukkah, they may make the Brocho of Leisheiv Basukkah.

Boys are trained to eat in the Sukkah from around the age of five or six, as per the child's maturity, and they must recite the Brocho. [A father is obligated to ensure that his child eats in the Sukkah. Others are not obligated in this regard and may give the child food even if he will eat it outside the Sukkah. Nevertheless, one may not feed the child directly or actively encourage him to eat outside the Sukkah.]

🕯 LIVING IN THE SUKKAH

The Sukkah commemorates the Clouds of Glory that protected Bnei Yisroel from the sun and heat of the desert. Therefore, whenever in the Sukkah, one should bear in mind that this Mitzvah commemorates the Exodus from Egypt.

If the Sukkah contains a section of Schach that is Possul (e.g. the edge of the Sukkah lies beneath the overhanging roof of the house or under the edge of a rain cover), one must ensure that both he and the part of the table used for eating are beneath Schach that is Kosher.

It is Chabad custom to eat and drink in the Sukkah even in the rain or inclement weather, and a Leisheiv Basukkah is still recited when eating more than a K'beitzah of Hamotzie or Mezonos. [As mentioned earlier, it is forbidden on Yom Tov or Shabbos to create a temporary roof whose purpose is to provide any sort of shelter. Therefore, one should not cover food with a box or bag to protect it from rain unless there is less than one Tefach (8cm) of airspace beneath it.]

It is Chabad custom to refrain from eating or drinking anything – even the smallest amount – outside the Sukkah. The Rebbe

Rashab would even take medicine only in the Sukkah.

When eating in the Sukkah on Yom Tov or Shabbos, one should be mindful of the prohibitions of trapping or killing insects. [Even so, one is not required to inspect a container before closing it to ensure that no insects are inside.]

One must treat the Sukkah respectfully. One may not wash dishes in the Sukkah, keep dirty dishes there, store tools or bikes, cook, or hang laundry. Similarly, one should not bring the rubbish bin into the Sukkah, but rather carry waste to a rubbish bin stationed outside.

Throughout Sukkos, one spends as much time in the Sukkah as is practical. One should learn in the Sukkah, unless he finds it hard to focus there, needs constant access to his Seforim library or wishes to learn in a Beis Hamedrash.

One should daven with a Minyan in Shule. However, if circumstances require him to daven at home, he should do so in the Sukkah, unless he cannot focus there.

Chabad practice is not to sleep in the Sukkah.

One should mention the daily Ushpizin and Chassidishe Ushpizin by sharing a Dvar Torah or story pertaining to them. There are many Sichos which focus on the common denominator between that day's Ushpizin, as well as the contrasts between them.

The order of the Ushpizin:

1. Avraham / Baal Shem Tov.
2. Yitzchok / Mezritcher Maggid.
3. Yaakov / Alter Rebbe.
4. Moshe / Mittlerer Rebbe.
5. Aharon / Tzemach Tzedek.
6. Yosef / Rebbe Maharash.
7. Dovid / Rebbe Rashab.

One may assume that a Sukkah's owner consents to others using it for the sake of the Mitzvah, provided it would otherwise be vacant at that time and is left afterwards in exactly the same state.

🕯️ FIRST DAY OF SUKKOS

Since the first day of Sukkos is Shabbos, the Lulav is not bentched. One may therefore eat in the morning as one normally would to have strength for davening.

All the Shabbos selections are added in the Shmoneh Esrei of Shacharis and Musaf. [See the section "FIRST NIGHT MAARIV" for details regarding one who forgot.]

Hallel is recited (see the section "HALLEL" on the second day for relevant Halachos), but not Hosha'anos.

As it is Shabbos, the special selections normally added for Yom Tov when opening the Aron Hakodesh are omitted.

Before Musaf, Yekum Purkan is recited as on a regular Shabbos. After Musaf, the paragraph Vlakachta Soiles is recited before the Shesh Zechiros.

For the daytime Kiddush, all the Shabbos selections – from Mizmor L'Dovid until Al Kein (inclusive) – are recited in an undertone, followed by Eileh Moadei in a loud voice. One should remember to recite Leisheiv Basukkah before drinking the wine.

The Mitzvah of V'Samechta B'Chagecha requires one to celebrate Yom Tov with his family. As such, one should not overly prolong the time he spends at any communal Kiddush or Farbrengen.

It is preferable to avoid beginning a full meal once the tenth Halachic hour of the day begins (3:15pm) so as to properly enjoy the Yom Tov meal of the second night.

One may not perform any preparations today for the second night and day of Yom Tov.

Mincha includes Krias Hatorah (Vzos Habracha).

🕯️ SECOND NIGHT OF SUKKOS

Shabbos ends at 6:59pm. Maariv (and Kiddush) should not begin before this time, nor should any tasks or preparations for Yom Tov be done before this time.

Vatodienu is recited during the Shmoneh Esrei of Maariv. [If one forgot to do so, he does not correct his mistake, but should say Boruch Hamavdil Bein Koidesh L'Koidesh before doing anything forbidden on Shabbos that is permitted on Yom Tov, or before performing tasks for the second night of Yom Tov. The same applies to a woman who will not be davening Maariv.]

The candles should be kindled with a pre-existing flame, and only after Shabbos ends (6:59pm).

Candles must not be waxed into place, nor the wicks twisted. When necessary, one may remove the wax from the previous night in a way that it falls directly into the bin.

On Yom Tov, one may not relight a candle that went out for the first time on Shabbos.

The Brochos are L'Hadlik Ner Shel Yom Tov and Shehecheyanu. [If one incorrectly concluded Shel Shabbos Kodesh, but realized within the time frame it takes to say three words, she corrects her mistake. Otherwise, she must repeat the Brocho. If one forgot Shehecheyanu, she should have in mind to be Yotzei during Kiddush.]

The candles are lit in the Sukkah and kept there until the end of the meal. At the very least, they should be lit in the Sukkah and moved only after some time has elapsed and some benefit has been derived. If even this is not feasible or safe, the candles may be lit indoors, preferably in a place where they can be seen from the Sukkah, and one should ensure that practical benefit is derived from them.

When a man is required to light candles, he does not recite Shehecheyanu, as he will be doing so in Kiddush. [Therefore, it is best that he lights candles right before Kiddush, so that his Shehecheyanu is linked to both.]

🕯️ SECOND NIGHT KIDDUSH

During Kiddush on the second night of Sukkos, one recites a total of six Brochos: Yayin, Kiddush, Ner, Havdallah, Zman, and Leisheiv Basukkah. [If one jumbled the order, he does not need to repeat it in the correct order, unless he reversed the order of Yayin and Kiddush.]

When the Brocho of Ner is recited, one looks at the candle, but does not bring the candles together, look at one's fingernails or bring them close to the flames.

[If one forgot to recite Ner and Havdallah during Kiddush, he should recite them over a cup of wine as soon as he realizes. He should also recite the Brocho of Hagofen when required (e.g. if he already bentched or intended at the time of Kiddush not to drink any more wine during the meal). If he did not remember until the next morning, he should still recite the Brocho of Havdallah over a cup of wine, but not the Brocho of Ner.]

[See the section "FIRST TWO NIGHTS OF SUKKOS" for matters pertaining to the meal.]

🕯️ SECOND DAY – LULAV

All males over Bar Mitzvah must bentch Lulav. Boys who are of the age of Chinuch (i.e. old enough to understand the concept of bentching Lulav) must also do so.

Women and girls are technically exempt, though the custom is for them to bentch Lulav anyway.

It is especially appropriate to go to Mikvah before bentching Lulav.

Men in good health should not eat anything before bentching Lulav. [One should not be stringent if there are any health concerns, or if he will obtain the Daled Minim only after midday.] Similarly, one should not learn or perform work before bentching Lulav.

It is best to bentch Lulav as soon as possible after sunrise (6:02am on 2nd day), especially for the first time. Nevertheless, one may bentch Lulav any time after sunrise until sunset (6:21pm on 2nd day). In extenuating circumstances (as can occur on Mivtzoim), or after the fact, it is acceptable if performed after dawn (4:44am on 2nd day) with a Brocho, or before Tzeis (7:00pm on 2nd day) without a Brocho (but not on Shmini Atzeres evening).

Before bentching Lulav, one first fulfils the Mitzvah of Krias Shema, since it is more frequent.

Shehecheyanu is recited on the second day of Sukkos, since this is the first time one bentches Lulav this year. The Esrog is picked up before Shehecheyanu is recited. However, it is not joined to the Lulav until the conclusion of the Brocho.

When joining the Esrog to the Lulav, the upper third of the Esrog should touch the bottom of the Lulav. This is accomplished by holding the Esrog at a slight diagonal.

One should ensure that there is no Chatzitzah (barrier) between his hands and the Daled Minim. Thus, one should remove any rings from one's fingers. [When on Mivtzoim, one should ensure that those fulfilling the Mitzvah are not wearing gloves or holding anything (e.g. a wallet or keys) that may constitute a Chatzitzah.]

Na'anuim: The Daled Minim are extended in all directions, three times per direction. One does not turn his body, but merely moves the Daled Minim in each direction.

The order of the Na'anuim:

- South (i.e. south-east).
- North (i.e. north-east).
- East (i.e. centre-east).
- Up. [The Daled Minim are returned in a straight downward motion to approximately the height of the chest before being brought back to the chest.]
- Down. [The Daled Minim are returned in a straight upward motion to around the height of the chest before being brought back to the chest.]
- West (i.e. twice south-west and the third time centre-west).

The Daled Minim are extended forward from the chest and then returned to the chest, physically touching the place where one beats his fist when reciting Ashamnu. Each time the Lulav is extended forward, it is given a slight shake before being returned to the chest.

During the Na'anuim, the Daled Minim themselves should be kept perfectly upright and not inclined in any direction. One ensures that the tip of the Lulav does not come into contact with the wall, ceiling or Schach. The Esrog is concealed by the hand, except for the very last time (i.e. centre-west), when it is slightly revealed.

It is preferable to eat Mezonos right after bentching Lulav, so that the Brocho of Leisheiv Basukkah is recited in connection with the Mitzvah of Daled Minim as well.

Throughout Sukkos (and on Shmini Atzeres) one should not smell the Hadassim or Esrog.

Women are generally not meticulous about waving the Lulav in all six directions.

OWNERSHIP OF DALED MINIM

On the second day of Sukkos, one must own the set of Daled Minim he uses to perform the Mitzvah. [However, he may use a borrowed set for Hallel and Hosha'anos.]

When giving the Daled Minim to someone over the age of Bar Mitzvah, one should expressly state that it is a "Matono Al M'nas Lehachzir", a gift conditional on its return. [If one neglected to say this, it is still the presumed intention – provided that the giver and recipient are both aware that one must own the set of Daled Minim.]

There is a dispute as to whether a woman must own the Daled Minim in order to recite a Brocho. It is therefore preferable that it be given to her as a "Matono Al M'nas Lehachzir". [Halachically, items given to a married woman normally become the property of her husband. Nevertheless, Daled Minim given to her for the sake of the Mitzvah are regarded as her own, since it is obvious that they were given on condition that they not become her husband's.]

As mentioned earlier, a boy of the age of Chinuch is required to bentch Lulav. According to many Rishonim, the Mitzvah of Chinuch requires him to own the set he uses. At the same time, a boy under Bar Mitzvah has the Halachic capacity to acquire, but not to give back. Therefore, one should not give the Daled Minim to a child as a "Matono Al M'nas Lehachzir". Rather, his father should purchase a set of Daled Minim for him.

If this is impractical or beyond one's means, one may rely on the Rishonim who do not require a boy under Bar Mitzvah to own the set he uses. In this case, the owner of the Daled Minim should hold the boy's hands or the Lulav while the Brocho is made, intending not to give it to him.

[Technically, another solution is to give the Daled Minim to the boy only after all adults have bentched Lulav. However, this is not a practical solution if the Daled Minim will be used later for Mivtzoim, or if one has several boys.]

HALLEL

Full Hallel is recited. When reciting Hallel, one may interrupt only for responses permitted during the the Brochos of Krias Shema. [i.e. if the Chazzan recites Kedushah, one responds Kodosh, Boruch and Yimloch. When the Chazzan says HaE-I Hakodosh (or Shomea Tefillah during Chol Hamoied), one answers Omein. When the Chazzan says Modim, one answers the three words Modim Anachnu Loch. When the Chazzan recites Kaddish, one answers Omein Yehei Shmei etc, and Omein to d'amiran b'olmo. One also answers Borchu and Omein when the Brochos are recited before and after an Aliyah or Haftorah.]

It is preferable to recite Hallel with the Minyan. If one is not up to the Minyan, this creates a dilemma; on the one hand, it is appropriate to recite Hallel with the congregation, and on the other hand, it is appropriate that one davens in the correct order. For this reason, the Rebbeim were always punctilious about being up to Hallel when the Minyan recited it on Yom Tov.

If one forgot Hallel, he should recite it with a Brocho as soon as he remembers, up until Tzeis Hakochavim.

If one mistakenly recited half-Hallel, he must repeat the entire Hallel (without a Brocho).

During Hallel, the Na'anuim are performed as described earlier, at the following places:

- At the first Hoidu; one direction per word, besides the word Hashem.
- At each "Anna Hashem Hoshiah Nah"; two directions per word, except for the word Hashem.
- At the last Hoidu, the first time that it is recited; one direction per word, except for the word Hashem.

In general, the Rebbe would hold the Lulav for the entire Hallel and pick up the Esrog only for the Na'anuim.

HOSHA'ANOS

For Hosha'anos, a Sefer Torah is held at the Bimah by someone who does not have a set of Daled Minim (or by anyone in the year of Aveilus who does not circle the Bimah). If all present have a set, the Torah is placed on the Bimah. The Aron Hakodesh remains open throughout Hosha'anos.

When reciting the Hosha'anos unique to that day, the initial phrases are recited quietly whilst standing in one place, and each phrase is preceded by the word Hosha'anah. The phrases from the letter "Samech" or "Ayin" onwards are recited aloud after the Chazzan, and each phrase is preceded and followed by the word Hosha'anah. These phrases are timed to coincide with one complete circuit around the Bimah.

On Sunday, one recites the Hosha'anos for both the first and second days, but circles only for the second day.

During Hosha'anos, the Lulav is held with the right hand and the Esrog with the left. The Rebbe would generally hold them joined together and touching his chest.

One who does not have a set of Daled Minim does not circle the Bimah. [It is best to borrow a set in order to participate.]

The last Posuk (i.e. L'Maan Da'as) is said aloud when the Sefer Torah is returned to the Aron Hakodesh. One holds the Daled Minim until this time.

One who is davening without a Minyan should still circle the Bimah. If at home where there is no Bimah, one should still circle a table. (Some maintain that a Sefer should be placed on the table.)

On Yom Tov, one may return the Lulav to the moist towel or water in which it was kept. One may also place it in another moist towel or other water, as long as they were prepared before Yom Tov. One may add water to either of these, but may not completely change the water.

❧ MIVTZOIM

One should go on Mivtzoim throughout Sukkos, ensuring that every Jew bentches Lulav and fulfils the Mitzvah of sitting in a Sukkah.

If the person performing the Mitzvah of Sukkah or Lulav does not know the Brochos, one may recite the Brochos on behalf of a man or boy of the age of Chinuch (or prompt him word by word), but not on behalf of a female, in which case she performs the Mitzvah without the Brochos.

Shehecheyanu is said the first time one eats in the Sukkah, even if it is after the first day of Sukkos. When making the Brocho, he should have in mind both the Yom Tov of Sukkos and the Mitzvah of eating in the Sukkah.

Shehecheyanu is said the first time one bentches Lulav, even if it is after the second day of Sukkos.

When visiting a hospital or an old age home, one should be mindful of whether the environment is suitable for reciting the Brochos (e.g. no unpleasant odours or soiled surroundings). If it is unsuitable, the Mitzvah is performed without making the Brocho.

An Esrog remains Kosher if discolouration occurs due to frequent Mitzvah use. As mentioned earlier, the Lulav usually remains Kosher if the central leaf split. One should be far more concerned with ensuring that those without Daled Minim fulfil the Mitzvah – this is the truest beauty! It is also the most appropriate way to actualize the unity symbolized by the Daled Minim.

❧ MOTZEI YOM TOV

Yom Tov ends at 7:00pm. Vihi Noam and V'atah Kaddosh are not recited.

Havdallah (without Besomim and candles) is recited, followed by Leisheiv Basukkah. (V'Yiten Lecha is not recited.)

❧ YA'ALEH VEYAVO IN DAVENING

If one forgets Ya'aleh Veyavo in davening, but remembers before saying Hashem's name at the end of Hamachazir Shechinasoi L'tziyon, he goes back to recite it. If he remembers after concluding that Brocho but before Modim, he recites it at that point, without going back. If he remembers any time after that point, but before the second Yih'yu L'ratzon (at the end of Elokai N'tzor), he returns to the beginning of Retzei. If he remembers after that, Shmoneh Esrei is repeated.

If one is unsure whether he recited Ya'aleh Veyavo, Shmoneh Esrei is repeated.

If one forgot Ya'aleh Veyavo during Shacharis, and only realised after Musaf, he does not repeat Shacharis.

If one forgot Ya'aleh Veyavo during Mincha or Maariv, and only realized after the Zman Tefillah has passed, he must recite an additional Shmoneh Esrei in the next Tefillah, as compensation. Between the two Tefillos, he should wait the time it takes to walk four Amos (approx. two metres), and preferably, he should recite words of supplication between them.

❧ CHOL HAMOIED

Each night of Chol Hamoied, one should take part in Simchas Beis Hashoeva celebrations. These should be enhanced with music.

During Chol Hamoied, one replaces the Hadassim and Aravos as necessary.

One should be aware of the state of his Aravos. If most leaves fall off the top three Tefachim (24cm), the Aravah needs to be replaced. [It often happens that the leaves have already fallen off and are merely being held in place by the Lulav rings. This renders the Aravah invalid, and it must be replaced.] A leaf is considered intact even if only its majority is intact.

The Aravos are still acceptable if the leaves have turned a darker colour.

When new Aravos are necessary, they should not be inserted into the Lulav without loosening the rings first, as this will likely cause the Aravah leaves to become detached.

On Chol Hamoied:

- One wears Shabbos clothing.
- One washes for bread, eats meat and drinks (a revi'is of) wine every day.
- One allocates more time for learning. [The Rebbe directed that this is all the more emphasised this year, when Chol Hamoied is uninterrupted by Shabbos and its preparations.]

In association with Yom Tov, the Rebbe urged all to participate in a Kinus Torah.

Many activities are prohibited during Chol Hamoied, including (but not limited to) business activity, trade, moving homes, gardening, sewing, laundering (except as required for children who frequently soil their clothing), preparing food for after Yom Tov, cutting nails (unless they were cut on Erev Sukkos as well) and having haircuts. One may not instruct a non-Jew to perform these activities for him either.

For the sake of Chol Hamoied or the last days of Yom Tov, one may professionally repair any item which is directly involved in food preparation (e.g. oven or fridge), or which provides direct bodily benefit (e.g. the plumbing, electricity or air-conditioning), provided that it wasn't practical to fix before Yom Tov (e.g. it broke on Yom Tov).

One should avoid writing. If it cannot be deferred until after Chol Hamoied, one should write with a Shinui. However, calligraphy and artistic drawing or painting are prohibited.

Unless needed for Yom Tov, one should not shop for utensils, appliances or clothing. [One may be lenient if the item is significantly discounted and cannot be purchased later for a similar price.]

If an employee's job involves activities that may not be performed on Chol Hamoied, he should arrange to take leave, unless his absence will jeopardise his employment.

Routine medical exams that can easily wait should not be scheduled for Chol Hamoied.

One who goes fruit-picking or fishing on Chol Hamoied may collect only that which will be used during the remainder of Chol Hamoied or on the last days of Yom Tov.

See separate Halacha Guide for laws and customs of Hoshanah Rabbah, Shmini Atzeres, Simchas Torah and Shabbos Breishis.
